NEW YORK — America's fashion designers of the future are well equipped to keep Mrs. U. S. A. the best-dressed woman in the world.

Such was the consensus at recent graduation exercises at the Parsons School of Design, when students presented their own fashion show of more than 100 costumes.

The student designs were executed under the direction of a group of famous designers, each of whom posed a particular problem to the group. Awards were given to the student in each group who created the most wearable, dramatic and original outfit.

Designers participating in the event included: Pauline Trigere, Jo Copeland, Joset Walker, Emily Wilkens, Mildred Orrick, Stefan, Mark Mooring, and Claire McCardell, all of whom except Miss Trigere are graduates of the school.

In addition to the regular collection, a group labeled "Fantasy" was presented. This consisted of imaginative original designs by students who were required to work out their creations from materials at hand, at minimum cost. In the group were such creations as a strapless evening gown covered entirely in colored fish scales, another of braided raffia, and a hostess gown made of vivid dyed cheese-cloth scraps.

Sweetness and Light HAVERHILL, Mass. (UP)—Unkind words were barred from editorials in the Haverhill Gazette for an entire week. Editor William H. Heath announced the policy of "sweetness and light" after hearing a union official complain that all attempts to advertise the city were "shot to pieces" by the Gazette's criticism.

Surviving, in addition to the parents, are one half-brother, George Fullender of the home; the parental grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Green of Clyde; and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Nellie Gibson of Waynesville.

Crawford Funeral Home was in charge.

Bible Quiz Answer

Today's Bible picture represents the parable of the sower.

HEAR YE therefore the parable of the sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

BUT HE that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

BUT HE that received seed into good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

FOUR ABOUT Fourth of July

(Continued from Page 1) events will begin at 10:30 and continue until noon, with cash prizes being given the winners. Those participating will be ages 9 to 14. Starting at one o'clock there will be a baseball game between the Knee-Pants team, composed of players from 9 to 14, in their new uniforms. There will be two 5-inning games. Sammy Lane, and William Chambers are in charge of the two teams.

Starting at three o'clock, two girls' softball teams from the Community Development League will play. This event is under the direction of Turner Cathey, assistant county agent.

Scheduled to begin immediately after the girls' softball games, will be boys' games, also from the Community Development league.

One of the highlights of the celebration is expected to be the musical program on the night of July Fourth, starting at 7:30 at the stadium. In the event of rain, the program will be given in the school auditorium. The program will be musical, featuring string bands, and singing groups from the various Community Development units of the county.

Mr. Prevost said that there will be no admission charges — everything is free except the rides, he explained.

"Following a custom of many years, there will be six modern rides, but no gambling, or places of chance permitted. The same high type programs as have been presented in the past will be featured again this year," he commented.

Tentative plans are to award valuable merchandising prizes on Tuesday and Saturday nights. Details will be announced later.

A large portion of the money which the Boosters Club makes from this event is donated to the Waynesville High School Band.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the Union Service is R. L. Prevost, Rev. M. L. Lewis, and Rev. Paul Throver.

The general committee is composed of, Prevost, chairman, Howard Clapp, Homer Justice, Sammy Lane, Paul Davis, and Fred Campbell.

A Girl's Best Friend: A Good Basic Haircut

CHIC AND CASUAL . . . Favorite hairdo of movie stars. Easy to care for, says Jeanpierre de Paris, Fifth Avenue hair-dresser.

SMOOTH DRAMA . . . The right haircut and a good soft permanent make home care of hair a cinch, says expert. Try it for summer.

By BETTY CLARKE AP Newstures Beauty Editor

"If you have a soft permanent and a good hair cut, there is no limit to styles that can be worn even though your hair is short," says New York's Jeanpierre de Paris, in his Savoy Plaza salon Mr. de Paris is hairdresser to some of Hollywood's most glamorous movie stars.

He has found that the magic formula to give a fresh, casual look without wasting time on endless hair fussing is a good basic haircut. He suggests that you have your hairdresser follow these directions, if you want a good workable haircut, easy to care for:

Remove the under bulk of hair in back, but leave the outer hair long enough to cover the curve of your head. Ends should have an over-all length of about an inch-and-a-half with only the last inch tapered. Select a lock of hair at the right-front and taper it to about a length of two inches from roots to ends.

The tapered right-front lock can be used for bangs or curls on your forehead or it can be brushed completely back to fall into a smooth line with your top and back hair. Or it can be handled, he says, with a series of casual ringlets to nestle with graduated height back of the hairline. The tapered ends all around, at the touch of your brush should soar upward in a brushed-up casualness that's newer and more practical by far than formal ringlets or curls.

How much will you give for the promise of three meals a day as long as you live, a roof over your head, clothing for your back, free medical service, and the assurance that your neighbor will never have more than you have? According to some men in the nation's capital and other sections of the country, it won't cost you one thin dime. They are demanding that you be "given" government rent houses . . . government electricity . . . government education . . . government transportation . . . government medical service . . . and government say-so over how much you can earn, regardless of whether your employer can stay in business on those terms, or how much more the nation plunges into DEBT. The only thing it will cost you is YOUR FREEDOM. The "lifer" in Sing Sing has that kind of "security"—free room, board and laundry, with a haircut thrown in twice a month. Not a thing to worry about—except his freedom. Drop in some time and ask him how happy he is. WHAT IS THIS "WELFARE STATE" business . . . THIS PLANNED ECONOMY?
