

Fashion Show To Be Sponsored By Garden Club

A Fashion Show, depicting the styles from the "Gay Nineties" to the modern 1930's, will be held at the Hazelwood Elementary School Building Friday, June 30, at 8 o'clock.

The show is being sponsored by the Richland Garden Club for the benefit of its highway beautification projects.

A special attraction will be the showing of dresses of various styles and periods which belong to local people. The wedding dress of Mrs. W. T. Crawford will be worn by Mrs. Fred Campbell and other young ladies will wear the wedding gowns of Mrs. A. P. Ledbetter and Mrs. Roy Campbell. Mrs. "Tuck" Ray and Mrs. Fred Martin, Jr., recent brides, will show what the bride of 1930 wears. Dresses from the trousseaus of Mrs. T. L. Gwyn and Mrs. Jonathan Woody will be modeled by several local girls and the "ultra-modern" bathing suits which came from the trousseau of Mrs. Clayton Walker will be shown complete with long stocking, cap, and shoes. Also of interest will be a linen duster of the 1912 Vintage, loaned by Mrs. J. E. Elwood.

Fashions for children as well as grown-ups will be a feature of the show with about twenty models taking part. Local stores furnishing outfits include The Toggery, Massies Department Store, Town and Country Shop, Slaek's, Burgin's Department Store, Belk-Hudson, and Sheppe's.

Mrs. Whitener Prevost is serving as chairman of the committee in charge of the plans for the event and is being assisted by Mrs. Bonner Ray and Mrs. John Smathers, Jr.

Juanita Noland Becomes Bride Of James L. Query

Youthful Dance Dress

Embroidered organza frock.

By VERA WINSTON

EYELET embroidered organza makes a lovely frock of a frock for a very young and charming dance dress. The small fluted collar and sleeve trim give a demure touch. There are bands of imported eyelet embroidery edged with fluted organza on the bodice and skirt. The bodice is snugly buttoned down the front and the skirt is full and gathered. Black velvet ribbon is used for a narrow, bow-tied sash.

Miss Juanita Noland of Waynesville and Raleigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cordell Noland of Waynesville, was married to James Lardner Query of Concord, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Query, also of Concord, in a ceremony in the Memorial Chapel at Lake Junaluska, Saturday afternoon at four o'clock.

Dr. F. S. Love, superintendent of the Methodist Assembly pronounced the vows.

Floor standards of white gladioli and branched candelabra against a background of greenery were used in decoration of the altar.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Raye Ballard, pianist, and Frank Love, Jr. vocalist. Before the ceremony Miss Ballard played "Claire de Lune," and Mr. Love sang "Because," by d'Hardelot, "An Angel's Serenade" was played during the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte was sung as a benediction. The traditional marches were used as processional and recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length dress of white Chantilly lace over satin. The fitted bodice was buttoned in front with tiny lace covered buttons and was designed with v-neck, outlined with a rolled collar and long sleeves, pointed at the wrists. Her shoulder length veil of imported Belgian lace was attached to a cap of bridal illusion and her only ornament was a strand of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and valley lilies centered with a white orchid.

Miss Mary Hazel Phillips of Washington, D. C. and Asheville, was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a bouffant dress of blue organza fashioned with off-the-shoulder neckline and a headpiece of matching net. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Fred A. Query of Kannapolis, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers were William David Noland of Waynesville, brother of the bride, Norval Crawford, Jr. of Duke University and Asheville, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Noland, mother of the bride, wore a street-length dress of navy with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left by motor for a wedding trip through the South. For traveling the bride wore an aqua-abeige summer suit with green accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return they will be at home at 705 Wilmar Drive, Concord, N. C.

Mrs. Query was graduated from Waynesville Township High School and Berea College, Berea, Kentucky. Since graduation from the latter, she has been employed by the North Carolina Board of Correction and Training, Raleigh, as testing psychologist.

Mr. Query is a graduate of the Harrisburg School, Harrisburg, N. C. He served four years in the 101st Airborne Medical Division of the U. S. Army in England, France, and Germany. He has been employed for several years at the Stone-wall Jackson Training School in Concord as Farm Manager and Boys' Supervisor.

Mrs. Burgin Gives Birthday Party For Son

Mrs. Lester Burgin, Jr. entertained a group of children at her home on Hazel Street Saturday afternoon in celebration of the first birthday of her son, Bobby Burgin.

Mrs. Burgin was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Henrietta F. Klutz, and Miss Norma Jane Burgin, aunt of the young honor guest.

A birthday motif was used and the guests were presented balloons as favors.

Those invited were Billy Porter, Stephen Barker, Patricia Barker, Skipper Garrett, Eddie Thomas, Rebecca Tate, Patricia Worsham, Reba Kelly, and Mike Milner.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Duke of Washington, D. C. and Richmond are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sloan, Sr.
