Deaths

Funeral services for George Wyatt, 48, of Morning Star, who died Saturday in the Haywood County Hospital, were held this afternoon in the Morning Star Methodist Church. The Rev. Asmond Maxwell and the Rev. C. G. Wyatt officiated and burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were A. L. Wyatt. Jack Wyatt, Sgt. Brown Wyatt, Joe Smathers and Gordon Sharpe.

Wyatt was a native of Yancey County and had lived in Morning Star for 25 years. He was a carpenter and a painter.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Irene Wilson Wyatt, and the mother, Mrs. Rhoda Wyatt, of Mica-

MRS. HELEN MORROW

Funeral services were conducted from the First Baptist church in Chester, S. C., last Wednesday morning for Mrs. Helen Dialthea Justus Morrow, 78, who died at her home near Chester Monday following an illness of several

The Rev. B. E. Wall, pastor, officiated, and interment was in Evergreen Cemetery at Chester, Mrs. Morrow, wife of John Palmer Morrow, was a native of Del Rio, Tennessee. She taught in the schools of Haywood county and in Tennessee before her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Morrow moved to Chester from Nebo, N. C. about seven months ago.

Surviving in addition to the husband are three sons, M. B. Morrow and John L. Morrow of Sumter, S. C., and Z. L. Morrow of Rock Hill, S. C.; three daughters, Mrs. MORE ABOUT Ernest F Haire of Marion, Mrs. Roy W Huskins of Chester, and Methodists Mrs. Jarvis Hollifield of Waynesville; 15 grandchildren; and one brother, R. D. Justus of Fort Payne,

Mrs. Hoglen Succumbs To Heart Attack

Mrs. May Jolly Hoglen, 59, of Clyde, Route 1, succumbed to a heart attack in the lobny of the and Recreation." First National Bank about noon

Mrs. Hogien was stricken while 11 a.m. Tuesday will close the contransacting business in the bank ference. and was pronounced dead upon the arrival of a physician, direction of Crawford Funeral Christian Education of Adults of Home are incomplete pending arrival of relatives from the State of at Nashville. son Hogien of Clyde; four sons, versity of North Carolina, Noble and Ray Hoglen of Clyde and Handy and Paul Hoglen of Washington State; two daughters, Mrs. Robert Quinn and Mrs. George Shankle of Columbus, Ohio; two on "Macedonian Call". sisters, Mrs. Nan Noland of Waynesville and Mrs. Allen Park of

GUILFORD GIRL WINS NATIONAL

Gastonia ;and six grandchildren.

A 13-year-old girl high school freshman from Greensboro, won the girl's title today in the National marble championship held in Asbury Park, N. J.

She was Kay Allen who copped the female crown by beating out four other finalists.

SHELBY MAN DIES IN WRECK

Yarborough, a North Carolina

air conditioning expert, was killed FREE-this Beautiful and a

FLOWERED

TUMBLER

with 25lb.baq

Sen. Frank P. Graham (right) congratulates Willis Smith (left) shortly after Graham conceded defeat in their runoff race for the Democratic senatorial nomination Saturday. Smith, conservative Raleigh attorney, had been critical during the campaign of President Truman's "fair deal" program. Sen. Graham was a supporter of the President. After conceding that he was beaten in the runoff, Graham went to Smith's headquarters in the same Raleigh hotel and congratulated him. Mrs. Simth and Mrs. Green, wife of Smith's manager, look on. (AP Wirephoto).

WNC Tourist Group To Observe Birthday June 30

(Continued from Page 1)

Anderson of White Plains, N. Y., associate secretary of the Interna- Carolina Associated Communities. tional Committees of YMCA's, and who spoke earlier during the day. In Waynesville, The address of Dr. John Rustin, pastor of the Mt. Vernon Place Methodist church of Washington, D. C., opened today's program. He discussed the subject: "The Church

The address of Bishop Paul Kern of the Nashville, Tenn., area at

In charge of the arrangements for the session is M. Leo Rippy. Funeral arrangements under the director of the Department of the Methodist Board of Education Surviving are the husband, Man19 years as president of the Unikee Indian Agency.

speak on adult education in relation to political changes, Bishop Moore's address, which will follow the senator's, will be

At 10 a.m. Tuesday, the final day of the convocation, Dr. J. Q. Schlisler, secretary of the division of local church board of education at Nashville, will discuss the theme Winning Adults To Christ".

Bishop Kern's address, on "My Church," will follow at 11 a.m. The delegates on Sunday and Monday afternoons will split up into 34 discussion groups for special sessions. Comprising laymen who are leaders in local churches, and more than 600 teachers of adult classes, this body represents approximately 800 churches in Virginia, North Charles M, Yarborough, 37, of and South Carolina, Georgia, Flor-Shelby, was killed in a freak acci- ida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Kentucky.

Mrs. oJnathan Woody and chilwhen the jeep he was driving ran dren, Laura and Stephen Woody, into a ditch and caused the trailer left this afternoon for a visit to he was pulling to "jack-knife" into New York City and Shelter Island,

he new, improved

Members of the Western North Carolina Tourist Association will relebrate the first birthday of their year-old organization at a meeting and dinner at Cherokee Friday.

The program will open following a meeting of the Western North

The organization actually was Dr. George Harkness, professor of born June 23 at a meeting of applied theology at the Garrett tourist facility operators and WNC Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill., Associated Communities officials

Carl Goerch, editor of The State

The tourist officials and facility operators will adjourn for a 6 p. m. dinner, after attending a preview of camping, in which they'll cook C. Lowe, Sam Ledford, Robert Saved Me;" and Iron Duff, "Tell of "Unto These Hills," the Chero-their own food and live in the Fisher, France Teague, Earl Led- It To Jesus." have its premiere July 1. Among the other featured speakers at the birthday meeting will be Charles E. Ray of Waynesville, chairman of the State Parks Commission; James P. Myers, WNCTA president; Percy Ferebee, WNCAC Senator Graham, who served for nings, superintendent of the Cheropresident from Andrews; Joe Jen-to see a preview of the Cherokee drama was made through arrange- around there so richly endowed ments by Harry E. Buchanan of with historical significance. Hendersonville, chairman of the Cherokee Historical Association.

Mr. Ferebee will be the first speaker on the program, making the opening remarks, Following Mr. Jennings' welcoming the delegates to Cherokee, Mrs. cil. J. B. Tweed, a member of the WNCTA board of directors, will deliver the response.

Mr. Ray will give the "birthday greetings" to the WNCTA.

The guests-officials and directors of the WNCTA and of local county tourist associations, will be recognized. The Cherokee Quartet, led by

McKinley Ross, vice-chief of the Tribal Council, Eastern Band of Cherokees, will deliver a number. Mr. Myers will discuss the Association and its work and Dr. Kelly Bennett of Bryson City then will introduce Mr. Goerch, who will discuss the western North Carolina tourist business. The program was arranged by the WNCTA executive committee composed of Mr. Myers, Paul Hyatt of Waynesville, vice-president; Mrs. Doyle Alley, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Tweed, J. M. Baity and James C. Gaither.

WCTC BIDS ARE OPENED

The J. A. Jones Construction Company, of Charlotte submitted the low bid of $1,135,600 on construction of the new science classroom building and library at Western Carolina Teachers College.

"If the bid is acceptable," President Paul A. Reid said, "construction work should begin immediately following the awarding of con-

STATE LEGION LAUNCHES EVENT

Charlotte streets had a festive air yesterday as thousands of members of the American Legion and its auxiliary came to the city for the annual convention of the North Carolina Department.

Convention chairman Paul R. Younts said around 2,200 men and women were expected to register by nightfall for the big meeting which will run through tomorrow.

Creature Music

Birds are not the only musicians in the animal kingdom. Frogs also contribute to the music of the countryside. Each kind of frog has its own sort of trill, grunt, peep, groan, whistle, clack or burp. The frog orchestra has a high, treble sound and a rhythmic throb as it rises from meadow, marsh or

Dairy Judging School To Be Held Tomorrow

A dairy cattle judging school will be held tomorrow, with the day's program closing with the annual Dairy Banquet that night.

The dinner, a picnic, will start at 7 p.m. at the Piedmont Featured speakers will be Miss York Kiker. dairy marketing specialist of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture. Dr. John Colvard, head of the N. C. State College animal husbandry department; and Jonathan Woody

The judging school with emphasis on Jerseys, Guernseys, and Holsteins, will open at 10 a.m. at the tobacco barn at the Mountain Test Farm.

Conducting the event will be Dr. Colvard, and John Arey and F. R. Faraham, dairy specialists of the N. C. State College Extension Serv-

One of the principal features of the school will be instruction in methods of culling non-profitable cattle from dairy herds.

MORE ABOUT Scouts

(Continued from Page 1)

son of Mr. and Mrs. David Felmet, Sr.; and Aaron Gibson, 15, a Life Scout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Gibson, Sr. After arriving at Asheville, the boys were scheduled to transfer to modern Pullman cars for the remainder of the trip to Pennsylvania.

On the train, a "Jamboree Special," also, were youths from throughout the South, bound for the national event.

After arriving at the encampment site, the boys will participate in a three-day program which will immediately precede the Jamboree, The national event will be opened June 30 by President Truman. It will close July 6. The boys expected to be back home by July 8. During the Jamboree, they will Magazine, will be the principal American youth will be host to two boys from abroad for the dura- them lunch, tion of the program.

But at the encampment also there will be a huge recreation tent, furnished with television and radio sets, snack bars, and stores where the Scout can get his uniform accessories, souvenirs, and films to record his own stay at the colorful Jamboree.

Also on the schedule, in addin to the camping trips, are tours The opportunity for the guests of nearby Philadelphia, America's third largest city; and the places

The boys from Waynesville and other sections of Haywood County going to the event are among the 101 Scouts from the western N. C. area included in the extensive jurisdiction of the Daniel Boone Coun-

In turn, they'll also be among the 45,000 Scouts from throughout the world who will take part in the Jamboree.

on the basis of their advancement through the Scout ranks, are attending the event as Explorer Scouts, wearing the green V-neck of the Explorer, shorts and the traditional shorts, wool OD hose, and overseas cap that distinguishes Boy Scouts throughout the world.

In charge of the delegation from this section will be a Scoutmaster of the Spruce Pine organization.

Steel Production

In America, with 7 per cent of the world's population, we produced 55 per cent of the world's steel, and Indiana, which contains approximately 3 per cent of our population, produces 12 per cent of America's steel.

Friday. Roof exploded as this picture was made. Firemen at left vainly fight the conflagration as the atomic like explosion occurs. No one was injured. (AP Wirephoto). Hundreds Sing Under Stars In CDP Music Event

MORE ABOUT

White Oak (Continued from Page 1)

he would give them $100 if they got the church. The rest of the $1,000 they raised by contributions from the White With the money in the bank, they began plans for the remodel- event to a climax. ing of the church. The first thing, they decided, was to put on a new roof. So. last Thursday the men of the become well acquainted with Boy bright and early, and began taking "Old Rugged Cross;" Ratcliffe community met at the church "He Has Saved Me;" South Clyde, off the old and putting on the new Cove, "Standing On The Premises;" roof At noon the ladies served White Oak, "He Has Saved Me;"

> ford, Mark Messer, Jack Bramlett, George Boring, Bob Williams, James Messer, and Frank D. Led- the County Community Developford.

> The women who served the lunch | ed the vistors, and the Rev. Nando were: Mrs. Roe Ledford, Mrs. Stephens, Saunook community George Boring, Mrs. France chairman, gave the opening prayer, Teague, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. W. C. Lowe, MORE ABOUT Mrs. Charles Lowe, Misses Virginia Ledford and Marcene Lowe, and Mrs. Sam Ledford.

The next thing is to get a bulldozer to level the yard for tennis courts, ball fields, other outside courts, shuffle board, and a place for other recreation.

This small community of about towns, sixty families, has started a prcject that tops all others.

They have determination and ordinance has repealed them," the willingness to work. What more could any community want? I heard two of our towns leading citizens say: "White Oak rais-The youths, selected for the trip ing $1,000 for recreation, would be $300,000. That's a statement that the citi- two residential districts. zens of White Oak will long remember, and will be proud of, because this community is showing property that is now in use. In operation. Beryllium Beryllium, a hard, lighweight metal used in the manufacture of fluorescent lights and in many other industrial applications, . has been found to interfere with the children gathered under the sum-House here. mer moon and the stars Saturday night to hear the first Haywood County Community Development Program Music Festival, Several hundred singers first re-

More than 450 men, women, and

Flames mushroom from burning Asheville Ice & Storage plant warehouse during four-alarm blaze

Horticulture

Tour To Be

Held Wednesday

Haywood county farmers will start a horticulture tour at 9:45

a. m. Wednesday at the Court

The group will stop first at the vegetable field at the intersection of Pigeon and Lovejoy Road, then will tour the county's apple or-

At the vegetable field, they will hear discussions of insects and diseases, and *tsudy irrigation methods

ticulture specialist.

sent to market on ice.

Hot Time At The Ice Plant presented their individual communities in concerts to present old popular favorites, then joined in a county chorus under the direction of Waynesville High School Band Director Charles Isley to bring the Among the specialties presented, the Francis Cove chorus sang, "Peace Be Still;" Saunook's chorus, "I Am Resolved;" Stamey Cove, South Clyde; "Old Rugged Cross;" The men there were: Robert Ratcliffe Cove, "Standing On The They're scheduled for ten days Davis, Joe Davis, Roe Ledford, W. Promises;" White Oak, "He Has The Rev. Mrs. C. O. Newell of

Crabtree-Iron Duff, chairman of ment Program Committee, welcom-

Specialist (Continued from Page 1)

of the town.

He cited numerous incidents of where the lack of such ordinances had proven expensive to land/owners and business men in many "No town in North Carolina that has ever had a zoning and planning attorney and specialist in the field explained. "That is proof enough of what people think of the plan." He explained that tentative surveys showed that the town would equivalent to Waynesville raising be divided into a business district, industrial district, and perhaps "Let this be clearly understood there will be no condemning of Haywood County, and all other cases where there are misplaced counties, what can be done when buildings, or businesses, the oryou have determination and co-dinance will not permit their re placement when present occupancy is completed. Such a plan takes 15 to 20 years, the speaker said. Mr. Franklin was introduced at the Rotary Club by Mayor J. H. Way, Jr.

Public Transit There is one public transit vehicle for every 1,500 persons in the United States.

Bandit With Cap Pistol Robs Bank Of $52,500

body's use of sugar and other foods of the carbohydrate family.

Harry Hamilton (left) looks at the cap pistol which the FBI says he used to rob the First Citizens Bank and Trust Company at Angier, of $52,500. Police Chief Wade Adams holds the toy gun. As he fled along the sidewalk with his loot, the bandit was tripped by Henry Strickland, Jr., Angler insurance man, and fell in the street. H. G. Strickland, Sr., joined his son in subduing Hamilton and marched him to jail. Henry, Jr. (right) examines his father's hand which was injured when he struck the bandit, All of the stolen money was recovered, (AP Photos),

News Fron Allens Cree

By MRS. EDNA HEMBI

A meeting of the Allens Community Development P was held Thursday night Rev. C. L. Allen, chair

Plans were made for for Home Improvements dens. Mrs. Rufus Siler was chairman of a committee on the contest and she will sisted by a representative each section of the com-Prizes will be awarded following classifications, Improvement, Dahllas Mixed Flowers, Vegetab dens, Asters, Begonias, Beds, and Porch Boxes.

Bible School at the Rock Baptist Church will open a tonight with the Rev. W. er in charge. All children and young are invited to attend. The school will throughout this week

Twenty-six new members added to the Rocky Bran tist Church during the which was recently cond the Rev. Ed Crump of Le

JEWISH YOUTH TO CO

A Jewish Youth Cor sponsored by the North C Association of Jewish You cooperation with the South tion - National Jewish Board, will be held from A to 13, at Wildacres

This announcement was Morton Ershler of High President of the North (Jewish Youth Association,

MOORE CENSUS SHOWS INCREASE

Taking part in the tour will be The "preliminary official Dr. Clyde Smith, N. C. State Colsus report for Moore Cour lege entomologist; Dr. Carlyle leased this week by W. Clayton, N. C. State College path- Brown, Eighth District Sup ologist; and Dr. H. R. Niswonger, of the Census, shows that N. C. State College Extension hor-10-year period just past the increased in population by 2,000 persons, going up fro Around half of U. S. shrimp is 966 to 32,933. This is a gain proximately seven per cent

PARK . SHOP . SAVE

SUGAR NUCOA Yellow

Coca-Colas

Every Day Low Prices

MAYONNAISE CHOC. SYRUP PINEAPPLE

CREAM CHEESE

Refrigerated Produce NEW POTATOES

CORN ON COB Grade "A" Markets

BEEF LIVER

MAIN STREET