

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

Published Twice-A-Week In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

65th YEAR NO. 53 8 PAGES

Associated Press and United Press News

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., MONDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 3, 1950

$3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

TODAY'S SMILE

John: "Did Jack remain cool when that burglar came in?"
Sam: "Yes, he was positively shivering."

Delights Of The News

March

... from South Carolina...
... elderly Cherokee...
... weather gener...
... the village...
... water, the patriarch...
... with a frown, "covers...
... all time."
... visitor was impressed. He...
... the man about more de...
... the region. The Cherokee...
... graciously, painting lurid

Beer-Wine Election Set For 2nd. of Sept.

W. H. Burgin Building 3 New Stores On Depot St.

Construction is nearing completion on three store buildings on Depot Street by W. H. Burgin. The glass fronts are due to be installed this week, and Mr. Burgin said that he expected the buildings to be completed by the 15th of this month.

Board Sets New Dates, As Registrars And Judges Are Named For Election

The Haywood county election on whether beer and wine sales will continue legally was rescheduled Saturday for September 2. The new date was set by the Haywood County Board of Elections.

Local Guard Company Leaves For Training

After an interested glance at the news from Korea in the morning newspaper, Waynesville's National Guardsmen, 84 strong, left by bus, jeep, and truck early yesterday morning for their two-weeks' summer training session at Fort Jackson, S. C.

60 Young People Arrive At Lake For Conference

Six Picnic Areas Now On Soco Mt.

Six picnic areas on the roadside on Soco mountain have been installed by the State Highway Commission, it was learned from Commissioner L. Dale Thrash today.

Monkey Business Afoot Here As Simian Escapes

Esskay's Galleries To Open Tuesday Night On Main St.

Esskay's Galleries are staging their formal opening on Tuesday night, July Fourth, it was announced today by Sam Kirsch, general manager.

Holidays Cut On Size Of Edition

The Mountaineer is smaller today than usual and some features are missing. This is due to the holidays.

Dean Henry Brandis To Be Lake Speaker Tonight

Speaking under the auspices of the Committee on Peace of the Western North Carolina Methodist Conference, Dean Henry Brandis, Jr., of the University of North Carolina, will be the platform speaker in the Assembly Auditorium, at 8 p.m., Monday, July 3.

Record-Breaking Crowds Expected For Fourth Events

Parade And Heavy Schedule of Athletic Events Feature Program Here

Haywood County's 1950 Fourth of July celebration will reach its climax here tomorrow with a colorful day-long program.

Varied Array of Activities, Including Fireworks at Lake Junaluska

A day-long sports carnival, a music concert, and a night fireworks display will feature the July 4 observance at the Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly.

Audiences Delighted With Cherokee Drama 'Unto These Hills' Is Far Better Than Expectations

While the drama does not begin until 8:15, be sure and give yourself a minimum of 30 minutes from the time you park your car at any of several large paved parking lots to get to your seats.

Heavy Influx of Visitors Crowd Into This Section

Highway Commission To Meet In Waynesville

The State Highway Commission is due to come here on Thursday for their two-day July meeting. The Commission will make headquarters at Mount Valley Inn.

R. ROY CAMPBELL, 48, drowned Sunday morning in Fontana Lake when the boat from which he was fishing turned over.

Funeral Services For R. R. Campbell Set For 5 Today

Funeral services will be conducted at five this afternoon at Grace Episcopal church for Robert Roy Campbell, 48, well-known Waynesville resident, who was drowned in Lake Fontana early Sunday morning.

Local Lions Install Officers For New Year

The new officers of the Waynesville Lions Club formally took office last Thursday night.

Richard Barber Takes Over As Rotary President

Richard N. Barber, Jr., assumed the presidency of Rotary here Friday, succeeding Jonathan Woody, who becomes vice president.

Traffic Hits Record Peak Over Week-End

Out-of-town Fourth of July holiday traffic going through Haywood county last week-end hit a record volume.

Youth Center To Open Tonight

The Youth Center at the VFW Building opens tonight from 7 to 10:30, for six nights weekly, under the supervision of Mrs. Fred Calhoun.

Fourth Of July Will Be A Holiday For Business, Too

Business generally will call it a holiday throughout Haywood County for the Fourth of July.

Many Heard Adm. Thomas At Union Services Sunday

"And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free"—using this as a text, Admiral W. N. Thomas addressed a union service audience at the high school stadium here Sunday night.

Highway Record For 1950 In Haywood (To Date) Injured . . . 18 Killed . . . 3 (This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol)

The Weather By The United Press FAIR

Date	Max.	Min.	Precep.
June 29	84	59	—
June 30	88	54	—
July 1	84	48	—
July 2	87	50	—