A Tense Moment InThe Cherokee Drama

TSALI, the famous Cherokee leader, is shown here in the scene "Unto These Hills" as seen at the Mountainside Theatre, at Cherokee, as he slew the drunken solider who had just a few minutes before killed Tsali's wife, Wilani, who is shown on the ground, extreme right. Tsali's four sons look on, and shortly after the soldier is killed, the five escape to a cave on Clingman's Dome.

Allens Creek CDP Will Meet Aug. 10

The next meeting of the Community Development Program of Allens Creek will be held on August 10 in the Allens Creek School, according to an announcement made this morning.

Regular meetings have been held each Thursday night and attention is called to this change.

One of the easiest garden herbs to grow is mint, which is excellent in the ice-tea season.

CURSED EMPLOYE COLLECTS

DAVENPORT, Ia. (UP)—Because his boss criticized him with profanity and shouting, Charles P. Chapman is entitled to unemployment compensation dating from April, 1948. A court upheld Chapman's claim, ruling that unjust accusations and profane conduct afforded Chapman a good cause for quitting his job.

The U. S. Geological survey estimates it will take 50 years to complete its job of mapping the nation at the present rate.
