Coming To Strand

RONALD COLMAN'S FEVERISH—and blond Ellye Marshall checks—in "Champagne for Caesar," the Harry M. Popkin comedy coming to the Strand Theatre Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

'Champagne For Caesar' Full of Fun

No doubt about it, "Champagne for Caesar," the Harry M. Popkin production which is coming to the Strand Theatre Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday through United Artists release, is one of the most rollicking, boisterous and wittiest comedies to come to the screen in years. Hans Jacoby and Fred Brady have fashioned a film story which is well-nigh perfect for laughs. They take as their target radio and television "giveaway" shows and proceed to throw non-poisonous darts.

The kernel of the story is a situation wherein an infallible character named Beauregard Bottomley gets on a double-or-nothing-type quiz program and promptly wins the jackpot up to $40,000,000. The program's sponsor, a soap tycoon named Waters, is thereby faced with complete ruin. His efforts to prevent the loss of his business include the use of a beautiful siren to seek out Bottomley's weak spot, an approach by the quiz show's m.c. to win the confidence of the savant's sister and various other desperate means. All of

Linda Sue Mehaffey Has Birthday Party

Little Miss Martha Platt was honored at a party given on her third birthday Saturday, July 22, with Miss Linda Sue Mehaffey as hostess at her home on the Dellwood Road.

Refreshments were served following games and favors were presented to the guests. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. John D. Platt. Attending the party were Donna Bradley, Ailing Fortner, Peggy Owen, Gail and Waynell Underwood, Jimmy and Barbara White, Judy Gurgess, Donny Owen, Johnny Underwood, Sammy Bradley, Jerry Hightower, Jimmy, Freddie and Joe Cunningham, and David Platt.

Characteristically expert, too, is the performance of Celeste Holm as the beautiful siren. Like Mr. Colman, an Academy Award winner, Miss Holm gets every bit of humor out of her roll. Take this reviewer's word for it: "Champagne for Caesar" is downright good fun.

Judge and Mrs. Frank Smathers of Miami have arrived to spend some time at their summer home here. They have as their guest the former's brother, William Smathers of Atlantic City, N. J.

Mrs. Carl Hill and young son, Mary Elizabeth, of Tenn., arrived this morning to visit to the former's parents and Mrs. Tom Straughfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McElroy and young daughter have moved into their new home on Balsam Street.

L. I. and Brevard, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Hyatt.
