A Warning to "Tired-Out" Grown-ups

Children at play are just naturally noisy -- they have an abundance of healthy, happy energy. If you don't feel up to joining in the little folks' fun, your patience is short, and they "get on your nerves"

For two years I suffered with gas on my stomech. I couldn't sleep at night. I would almost smother and have to sit up in bed. I was weak and nervous. The children made me want to scroum every time they made a noise.

Beck around 1939, Smith was in Salisbury and as was his habit stopped for a friendly chat with his old friend, Banker J. K. Dorsett. They talked about finances, the war in Europe, and other things. During the course of the conversation, Banker Dorsett casually remarked that he had a son studying law at the University of North Carolina and he thought this boy might make Mr. Smith a good juntor partner sometime. To this, of course, Good Friend Smith a-

Time marched on, and in the spring of 1941 Duke Alumnus Willis Smith thought it would be a good idea to have a young Carolina man in his law firm. He picked up the telephone, called the University Law School and told them he wanted their best man.

The reply was that they had just the man for him. This student, name of Dorsett, was not only tops in the class but was editor of the Law School's publication, "Law Review". A few days later they sent him over to see Willis Smith During the early stages of the interview, Attorney Smith asked
