Miss McClung Is Married To Charles Sheehan

Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. McClung of Morgantown, West Virginia have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Virginia McClung, to Sergeant First Class Charles J. Sheehan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sheehan of Waynesville.

The double ring ceremony took place in the home of the bride's parents, on Friday, July 7, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Dr. Owen O. Dietz, pastor of the First Baptist church of Morgantown, officiated in the presence of the families and close friends.

Summer flowers were used in the rooms and the vows were spoken before an improvised altar of palms interspersed with branch-end candelabra.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of white marquisette over pale yellow satin fashioned with embroidered net yoke. She wore a white picture hat and carried a white bible topped with white orchids and yellow roses.

Miss Sharon McClung was her sister's maid of honor. She wore shell pink marquisette and her flowers were lavender orchids and rose buds.

Tommy Robertson of Waynesville, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Sheehan is a graduate of Richmond, West Virginia High School and the Charleston, West Virginia School of Commerce and Finance. She is presently employed by the Farmer's and Merchants Bank of Morgantown.

Sgt. Sheehan is serving as an assistant professor of military science and tactics at West Virginia University in Morgantown. He is a graduate of Waynesville High School.

The couple is residing at 1872
