

Some Haywood Farm Leaders View Winston-Salem

Robert E. Hanes, Jr., right, president of the Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, is showing three of the 186 Haywood farm folk several landmarks of the industrial city, as the Haywood countians posed there for dinner on Monday. This group is looking at the city from the roof of the Robert E. Hanes Hotel. Shown left to right, Frank Medford, of Crabtree, Mrs. D. Reeves Notand, Ratcliffe Cove, Wayne Corpening, county agent. Over Attends Technicians' Meeting

Dr. Carver of Waynesville, technician for the Haywood Breeding Association, attended the first annual Technical Conference at Asheville last week. The conference was sponsored by the Southern Artificial Breeding Association. Technicians from the majority of breeding cooperatives and breeding services in Virginia, the Carolinas, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, and Florida attended the two-day session which closed August 11. Among the featured speakers were J. A. Arey, N. C. State College Extension dairy specialist; Dr. Beaton of Snow Camp, president of the Alamance Breeding Cooperative; and John Brown, N. C. State College.

Bishop Short Speaks At Junaluska

Bishop Roy H. Short, head of the Jacksonville Area of The Methodist Church, was the featured speaker Tuesday night of a south-wide Conference on Christian Education in session at Lake Junaluska Assembly, August 13-19. His subject was, "The Holy Spirit in Christian Education."

This conference has brought to the Assembly grounds high connections in The Methodist Church to make platform addresses, including Bishops Paul B. Kern, W. W. Peele, Marvin A. Franklin, and Drs. Harry M. Bullock and John U. Shackford of Jackson, Mississippi and Newport News, Va.

On Sunday, a conference on Evangelism will get under way with Bishops Clare Purcell and Paul B. Kern, of Birmingham, Alabama, and Nashville, Tennessee, respectively, preaching from the Junaluska pulpit at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Bishop Short, speaking Tuesday night, said that the activity of the Holy Spirit is to be seen not only in dramatic movements of Christian history, but more often is witnessed in the regular processes of life in the church and in the world.

Demands Doctors Examine Draftees

U. S. Rep. Carl T. Durham of Chapel Hill this week demanded that doctors make the examinations of draftees. He wants the Army to put a stop to the practice of having what he called "incompletely trained personnel" examine men reporting for induction regardless of a shortage of physicians in the Army.

In an all-night singing at the high school auditorium here Friday night, the event is being sponsored by the Woman's Christian Society of the Methodist church.
