

CLUBS OF INTEREST TO WOMEN ACTIVITIES

Office Phone 700 — MRS. BEN SLOAN, Editor — Home Phone 462-J

Miss Doris Ann Blalock Is Bride Of Willis C. Beck

Miss Doris Ann Blalock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Blalock of Waynesville, was married to Willis C. Beck, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Oscar J. Beck of Waynesville, Route 1, in the home of the bride, last night at seven o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Beck, father of the bridegroom, officiated in the presence of the members of the families and a few close friends.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of evergreen and ferns, flanked by branched candelabra and floor vases of white gladioli.

The couple entered together and were unattended. The bride wore a street length dress of light navy blue satin with navy felt hat, trimmed in velvet, and white accessories. She carried a white prayer book, topped with white roses and showered with white satin streamers and tube roses.

Mrs. Blalock, mother of the bride, wore a brown crepe dress with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Beck, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a grey suit with black accessories and her corsage was of red roses.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony and the receiving line was composed of the bride and bridegroom and their parents.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and held a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. White tapers were also used.

Assisting in receiving and serving were Mrs. Lewis Green, Mrs. Henry Clayton, Jr., Mrs. J. C. Crouser, Jr., Mrs. Ralph Thurman, and Miss Patsy Blalock, sister of the bride.

Mrs. Beck was educated in the Waynesville Schools and is now employed at C. E. Ray's Sons Department Store.

Mr. Beck attended the Waynesville High School and Western Carolina Teachers College and served with the Marines in the Pacific Theatre during World War II. He was employed by the Home Security Insurance Company until last week when he received orders to report on September 15 to Camp Lejeune for active duty.

Joint Hostesses Give Shower For Bride - Elect

Mrs. Jess Crouser, Jr. and Mrs. Oliver Yount, Jr., were joint hostesses of a miscellaneous shower given in the home of Mrs. J. C. Crouser, Sr., Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Doris Ann Blalock, whose marriage to Willis Beck took place Wednesday evening.

The residence was arranged with mixed fall flowers and the dining table, on which the gifts were placed, was centered with a miniature bride, flanked by white tapers.

The guests included Miss Blalock and her mother, Mrs. W. H. Blalock, Mrs. Oscar Beck, Mrs. Dove West, Miss Patsy Blalock, Mrs. Charles Beck, Mrs. Myrtle Tappan, Mrs. Ned Howell, Mrs. Calvin McDaniel, Mrs. Richard Inman, Mrs. Bill Karpis, Mrs. Joe Massie, Mrs. Lewis Green, Mrs. Frank Morrison, Mrs. John Blalock, Mrs. Frank Compton, Mrs. Henry Clayton, Jr., Mrs. John Ezell.

Miss Peggy Sue Burgin, Miss Mary Sue Crocker, Miss Helen Jewel Robinson, Mrs. Bill Rogers, Mrs. Bill Boyd, Mrs. Homer West.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick Is Hostess Of Bridge Party

Mrs. Cleveland Kirkpatrick entertained with a bridge party at the Hotel LeFaine, Monday afternoon, as a courtesy to Mrs. Julia Carr, who left yesterday for her home in Winchester, Va., after spending the past three months as a guest in the hotel.

Following the games score prizes were presented to Mrs. William Ronald, who held high, and Mrs. Lemmie Crofoot of Gainesville, Fla. who had low score. The honor guest was also presented a gift.

Those playing were Mrs. Carr, Mrs. Ronald, Mrs. Crofoot, Mrs. Thomas Seawell and Miss Anne Seawell of Winder, Ga., Mrs. Stella Hall, Miss Robina Miller, and Mrs. Frances Frazier.

Joining this group for tea were Mrs. John K. Williams, Mrs. O. T. Alexander, and Mrs. Alice Smith.

Presbyterian Young People Are Entertained

College and high school students of the Waynesville Presbyterian Church were guests of the Women of the Church at a barbecue supper given Monday evening at Camp Unagusta.

In charge of the entertainment were Mrs. George Craig, Mrs. Charles F. Fowler, Mrs. J. T. Russell, Mrs. R. H. Gibson, and Mrs. M. G. Stamey.

The Rev. Malcolm Williamson, pastor of the church, introduced the college students and spoke briefly of the contribution each was making to the life and work of the church.

Around twenty college students and thirty high school students enjoyed an evening of games, singing, and square dancing.

Chaperons were the Rev. and Mrs. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Russell, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gibson.

Girl Scout Council Will Hold Meeting

A general meeting of the Hazelwood-Waynesville Girl Scout Council will be held in the Girl Scout Hut, Monday, September 11, at 8 p.m.

All adult Girl Scout members, including troop leaders, troop committee members, and executive board members, are expected to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Howard Hyatt, council president, will be in charge and plans will be made for the Girl Scout program for the coming year.

Miss Elsie Glavich left Tuesday for Richmond, Va., where she will enter the school of nursing in the Medical College of Virginia. She completed her two-year pre-nursing course at the Woman's College in Greensboro last June.

Miss Margaret Johnston spent the Labor Day week end with relatives in Fayetteville and Greensboro. She was accompanied to Fayetteville by her sister, Miss Louise Johnston, who was here for the summer.

Separates Multiply The Basic College Wardrobe

CAMPUS STANDY . . . This classic three-piece outfit consists of gray flannel fly-front skirt, matching knit-rib trim cardigan and jersey blouse, designed by Frances Sider.

TARTAN TOUCH . . . The Scotch plaid wool skirt and matching beret team with a wool jersey blouse for a gay campus outfit, all items of which may be worn with other things.

DATE BAIT . . . Black velvet skirt with rhinestone buttons is worn here with low-cut matching velvet blouse for a short formal outfit, may team with sleeved blouses.

BIKE OUTFIT . . . Gray flannel pedal pushers are shown with matching weskit and plaid cotton shirt for sports wear. Substitute a skirt and it's a classroom costume.

Mary Ann Massie To Make Debut At Raleigh Ball

Miss Mary Ann Massie left this morning for Raleigh where she will attend a week-end of social events honoring North Carolina debutantes.

Miss Massie will be presented to North Carolina society along with 134 other debutantes at the 24th annual Debutante Ball given by the Terpsichorean Club of Raleigh Friday night, in the Raleigh Municipal Auditorium.

Her marshalls for the ball will be Charles Wyt, Wingate Hannah, and Richard Crowder of High Point.

Other affairs planned for the debutantes and their marshalls include a luncheon at the Sir Walter Hotel on Friday, a dance at the Raleigh Country Club Saturday morning, tea at the Governor's Mansion Saturday afternoon, and a second ball Saturday night.

Miss Massie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Massie, is a rising sophomore at Duke University.

Mr. and Mrs. Massie will leave tomorrow morning to attend their daughter's debut.

D.A.R. To Hold Initial Meeting

The initial fall meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Martha Stringfield, Mrs. Harry Marshall will be associate hostess.

This will be an organization meeting and guest day and several new members will attend.

Crabtree WMU Met Saturday

The WMU of the Crabtree Baptist Church met last Saturday at the home of Mrs. F. Noland, with Mrs. Frank Brown in charge of the program.

Among those witnessing the program and service was the pastor of the Crabtree Baptist Church, the Rev. M. H. Raby.

The next meeting was announced for 2 P. M. on the first Saturday in October at the home of Mrs. M. V. Daniel.

RETURNS FROM WEST

Mrs. Clemmie James Hall, a native of Haywood County who has been on a tour through the states of Washington, Oregon and California, has returned to her home at Cullowhee.

Mrs. Hall speaks of her visit in Portland, Ore., with much enthusiasm. She was impressed with the scenery in Hollywood, California and Kelso, Washington where she visited Charlie and Willard Nation who are also natives of Haywood County.

Miss Mildred Medford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Medford, left Monday for Gainesville, Ga., where she has entered the freshman class at Brenau College. Miss Medford, who has been writing The Younger Set column for The Mountaineer, is participating in the High School Editors Roundtable at Brenau this week.

Beaverdam Club Meets With Mrs. Williamson

Mrs. Jarrett Williamson was hostess for the September meeting of the Beaverdam Home Demonstration Club which was held Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ernest Jones, president, presided and the devotional was given by Mrs. C. C. Willis.

During the business session plans were made for a special meeting to be held in the basement of Rockwood Church on September 15, at which time husbands of the members will be special guests. Mrs. George Culbert was named chairman of arrangements for the event and Mrs. Albert Stamey was named chairman of the recreational committee.

Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent, gave a demonstration on "The Professional Touch In Sewing," and project leaders reported as follows: home poultry, Mrs. George Culbert; house furnishings, Mrs. Paul Robinson; home management, Mrs. Roy Robinson; family life, Mrs. Elmer Keener; home beautification, Mrs. Sherrill Jimison; and arts and crafts, Mrs. A. J. Trantham.

Mrs. Leatherwood Is Hostess For Jonathan Club

The Jonathan Creek Home Demonstration Club held its September meeting last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Leona Leatherwood as hostess.

Mrs. Way Fisher, president, was in charge and the demonstration on "The Professional Touch In Sewing," was given by Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent.

Individual book reports were completed and project leaders reported as follows: foods and nutrition, Mrs. Robert Howell; home gardens, Mrs. J. L. Palmer; family life, Mrs. Glenn Boyd; home beautification, Mrs. W. R. Boyd; clothing, Mrs. R. E. Owen; and arts and crafts, Miss Belle McCracken.

Revival Service Continues At Barberville

The revival which is now in progress at the Barberville Baptist Church under the direction of the pastor, Rev. Jarvis Brack will continue through next week. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. James A. Gwyn is a patient at the Haywood County Hospital.

Miss Elsie Jane Green, daughter of Mrs. Ruth C. Green, left yesterday for Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where she is a member of the senior class.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Murray left Tuesday for their home in Hampton Village, Va., after a visit to the latter's mother, Mrs. W. L. McCracken.

Due to density of population and the importance of marine products in the Japanese diet, coastal fishing off Japan is the most intensified in the world.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. William R. McClure spent the week end in Palmyra, Va., as the guests of friends. They also went to Charlottesville and visited Monticello.

Miss Marie Strange left this week for Furman University in Greenville, S. C. where she is a member of the junior class.

Mrs. Thomas M. Seawell, who spent the summer at Lake Junaluska, left Monday for her home in Winder, Ga. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Miss Anne Seawell, who came up for the week-end.

Mrs. Robert Mason and children of Dallas, Texas, are here for a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Massie.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Alexander and daughters, Jessie and Amelia Alexander, formerly of Monticello, Fla., are new residents of Waynesville. Mr. Alexander is connected with Davis-Liner Motor Company.

Charles W. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay W. Morgan of Clyde, has entered the freshman class at Mars Hill College.

Charles H. Stamey, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stamey, has returned to his home in Bortura, Calif. Mr. Stamey is employed with the Department of Technical Engineers of the U. S. Navy at Point Mugu, Calif.

Miss Betty Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brown, has entered the freshman class at Merry Hospital School of Nursing.

YOU FIND 'EM AT RAY'S

A tough, long-wearing Brute of a Rubber

The stickiest mud can't pull these rubbers off — and the toughest going finds them hard to wear out. Special wear-proof sole; buckles put on to stay; strongly reinforced at toe and heel. BALL-BAND (Red Ball) rubbers have always been the best and you'll like these better than ever. Come in for yours now.

Also Ready With — Arctics — Wading Boots and Other Rubber Footwear.

RAY'S SHOE DEPT.

Bridges Reunion Is Attended By 80 Members

The annual Bridges Family Reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bridges in Waynesville with approximately eighty members attending.

Several states were represented at the gathering but the majority came from South Carolina and this section.

The Rev. F. H. Leatherwood gave a short talk on the family tree and its relation to the world and conditions now existing in the world.

Mrs. Virginia Elrod of Piedmont, South Carolina read the report of the historical committee for the chairman, John Bridges of Greenville, S. C., who was unable to attend the reunion.

Raymond Bridges of Greenville, S. C. was elected president of the group, succeeding Jim Bridges, also of Greenville and Mrs. Frank Albright was elected secretary to succeed Lewis Bridges of Greenville.

This reunion was the first in many years to be held in Waynesville. Former gatherings have been held in South Carolina where the larger part of the Bridges clan now resides, and plans were made for the 1951 meeting to return to Greenville.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Platt and two children have gone to Marietta, Ga., where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Gwyn of Wilmington, Del., spend week-end with the latter's father at Fairhaven.

Miss Jackie Sue Messer left yesterday to spend a week with friends at Carolina Beach.

Billy Rhodamer, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Rhodamer of Canton, Route 1, has returned to Clemson College where he is a member of the sophomore class.

Miss Bette Hannah is leaving Saturday for Cincinnati, O., where she will enter the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. She will drive up with her mother, Mrs. William Hannah, and her brother, Bill Hannah, Jr.

Miss Patsy Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Allen of Canton, will enter the junior class at Woman's College in Greensboro.

Charles H. Stamey, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stamey, has returned to his home in Bortura, Calif. Mr. Stamey is employed with the Department of Technical Engineers of the U. S. Navy at Point Mugu, Calif.

Miss Betty Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brown, has entered the freshman class at Merry Hospital School of Nursing.

Charles W. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay W. Morgan of Clyde, has entered the freshman class at Mars Hill College.

Charles H. Stamey, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stamey, has returned to his home in Bortura, Calif. Mr. Stamey is employed with the Department of Technical Engineers of the U. S. Navy at Point Mugu, Calif.

Miss Betty Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brown, has entered the freshman class at Merry Hospital School of Nursing.

Charles W. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay W. Morgan of Clyde, has entered the freshman class at Mars Hill College.

Charles H. Stamey, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stamey, has returned to his home in Bortura, Calif. Mr. Stamey is employed with the Department of Technical Engineers of the U. S. Navy at Point Mugu, Calif.

Miss Betty Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brown, has entered the freshman class at Merry Hospital School of Nursing.

Charles W. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay W. Morgan of Clyde, has entered the freshman class at Mars Hill College.

Charles H. Stamey, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stamey, has returned to his home in Bortura, Calif. Mr. Stamey is employed with the Department of Technical Engineers of the U. S. Navy at Point Mugu, Calif.

Miss Betty Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brown, has entered the freshman class at Merry Hospital School of Nursing.

Charles W. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay W. Morgan of Clyde, has entered the freshman class at Mars Hill College.

Charles H. Stamey, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stamey, has returned to his home in Bortura, Calif. Mr. Stamey is employed with the Department of Technical Engineers of the U. S. Navy at Point Mugu, Calif.

Miss Betty Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Brown, has entered the freshman class at Merry Hospital School of Nursing.

Charles W. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay W. Morgan of Clyde, has entered the freshman class at Mars Hill College.

AMERICAN WEAPON

EIGHT INCH GUN WEAPON 500 lbs. with carrying range of 35,000 yards. 240 pound projectiles around a minute. Crew of 10 men.

THE GOOSE, officially known as the J.R.2-F, is an engine amphibious cargo port plane. It has a speed of 150 mph. service ceiling of 10,000 feet, wingspan of 40 feet.

45 CAL. PISTOL is fed and recoil-operated. It weighs two pounds without the magazine and has a range of 1,650 yards.

The present Cape Hatteras house was completed in 1906. Alexander the Great came here in 340 B.C.

"SEZ WE" AT RAY'S

"IT TAKES LEATHER TO STAND WEATHER!"

WEATHER-BIRD SHOES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS ARE "Weatherized" FOR ALL 4 SEASONS

RAIN OR SHINE, hot or cold these famous shoes are out in front on every count. Fit, Wear, Comfort, Protection, Looks! That's why they're Best Values in children's shoes.

FIVE "Weatherized" FEATURES OF WEATHER-BIRD SHOES:

1. LEATHER OUTSOLES: Of high quality, specially treated to repel water, or of best grade rubber soles obtainable.
2. GOODYEAR STITCHING: Stout quality thread treated with hot wax to tightly lock-stitch outsole to upper.
3. ONE-PIECE ALL-LEATHER OUTSOLES THAT WILL NOT CURVE: To give solid foundation and insulation against wet, dry, cold or hot weather.
4. PLUMP, SOFT, FLEXIBLE UPPER: Carefully selected leather, expertly tanned and finished gives added protection and comfort.
5. LININGS, EYELETS, LACES, ETC.: Of high quality throughout to insure performance of "Weatherized" WEATHER-BIRD SHOES.

AND AT RAY'S Your Child Can Be Fitted —

In Some Shoes — We Carry A-B-C- Widths

We Feature Good Shoes — And — Good Shoes Will Not Be Found Cheaper Anywhere Than At

RAY'S Shoe Department

LAFF-A-DAY

Copyright, 1936, King Features Syndicate, Inc. World rights reserved.