

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

Published Twice-A-Week In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

65th YEAR NO. 80 16 PAGES Associated Press

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 5, 1950

$3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

TODAY'S SMILE
Definition—"A good husband: one who feels in his pockets every time he passes a mailbox." (Lion Chatter).

Crusade For Freedom Starts Here Tuesday

Crusade Head

AARON PREVOST of Hazelwood has been named co-chairman of the Crusade for Freedom in the Waynesville-Hazelwood area.

Aaron Prevost Is Named As Co-Chairman

Haywood will officially launch "The Crusade for Freedom" campaign here Monday night when community chairmen and county chairmen meet for the initial drive to get 10,000 signatures to freedom scrolls in the county.

Jonathan Woody, and his co-chairmen, Aaron Prevost and A. Hutchins, announced this morning that the leaders would meet Monday night, seven o'clock, for dinner meeting at the Town House. Starting early Tuesday workers are to make a thorough canvass of the county, getting names to the scrolls, pledging to fight communism. The scrolls will be sent to Berlin, and there placed in a shrine with the Freedom Bell as a symbol of American dedication to the cause of world freedom.

Mr. Woody said the quota assigned Haywood was 5,400, but the committee had almost doubled the quota to 10,000, instead. "The people in Haywood love freedom—we love America, and we are going to prove it by getting 10,000 names on these Freedom scrolls," he said.

Reuben B. Robertson, of Canton, is general chairman for the two Carolinas, and Beckman Huger is assistant. Edwin Jones, of Charlotte is state chairman; R. Greg Cherry, vice chairman, James C. K. McClure is district chairman, with Frank M. Parker, co-chairman and Mrs. C. E. Dameron, executive secretary.

Among the speakers on Monday night will be Mrs. C. O. Newell, Rev. M. R. Williamson, A. J. Hutchins, and Mr. Huger.

The community chairmen are as follows: South Clyde, William Osborne; North Clyde, Glenn Williams; Lake Junaluska, Zack Massey; Iron Duff, Jarvis Caldwell; Lower Crabtree, Mrs. Hugh Noland; Upper Crabtree, James Bell; Fines Creek, Charles B. McCray; White Oak, Mrs. George Boring; Cove Creek, Mrs. Hobart Franklin; Jonathan Creek, Enos Boyd; Dellwood, Mrs. W. D. Ketter; Boosters Club, Carl Henry. (See Crusade—Page 8)

Union Services To Close On October 11

The Union Revival and Evangelistic Services, sponsored by the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches of Hazelwood, are being conducted each evening this week, except Saturday, in the Methodist church, at 7:30.

After Sunday morning the services will be in the Presbyterian church, and will continue each evening through Wednesday, Oct. 11.

Due to a heavy schedule of other evangelistic meetings Mr. Warren will conclude our series on Oct. 11, rather than on Sunday, Oct. 15, as first announced.

The evangelist, Rev. A. M. Warren, is a graduate of Davidson College and of Princeton Theological Seminary.

Though a native of Allendale, (See Union Service—Page 8)

Governor Sees Effects Of Road Program In Haywood

Governor Kerr Scott expresses approval of a photograph showing a large congregation in front of the Rocky Branch Baptist Church in Allens Creek community. The road to the church was improved under the governor's rural road program. He said he was gratified to see that the improvement of the roads permitted so many more people to get to church, and that he'd keep the picture on his desk. The photo was presented by Swan Hendrix, extreme right, rural road program chairman for Waynesville township. Left to right are L. Dale Thrash, Tenth District Highway Commissioner, the governor, and Dr. Kelly Bennett of Bryson City, former state senator. This Mountaineer staff photo was made at Tuesday's district Democratic rally at Sylva. (Staff Photo)

Governor Scott And Haywood Democratic Leaders

Governor Scott, in a genial mood talks with a group of Haywood County Democratic nominees and party leaders during the Congressional District Democratic Rally at Sylva last Tuesday. Left to right: William Medford, Waynesville, state senate nominee; Charles B. McCray, Fines Creek, chairman of the county's Democratic executive committee; Fred Campbell of Hazelwood, nominee for sheriff; Oral Yates, Iron Duff, nominee for state representative, and Charles Francis Ratcliffe Cove, nominee for chairman of the board of county commissioners. (Staff Photo)

Publication Gives Space To Projects

The current issue of the Extension Farm-News devoted a large percentage of space to the dedication of Camp Schaub, and the visit of the Iowa 4-H Club boys and girls.

Two articles appeared on the front page, and Dr. Frank Jeter devoted almost all the editorial space to the two events.

Employ Handicap Week Proclamation Issued

The mayors of Canton, Waynesville, and Hazelwood today issued proclamations setting aside this week as Employ the Physically Handicapped Week.

The local observance of the national campaign opened last week-end with efforts aimed at underscoring the importance of considering a prospective employee's ability, instead of disability, in reviewing qualifications for a particular job.

Local Campaign Chairman Arthur Vieth pointed out that in the Waynesville and Hazelwood area alone, there are a substantial number of people who are holding and performing competently skilled jobs. (See Mayors—Page 8)

Library Work Is Discussed Here By WNC Group Today

About 30 were attending the Western District Library meeting here today, with state and regional leaders leading a discussion of current problems for libraries. Miss Margaret Johnston, Haywood librarian, was general host for the meeting, held at the Presbyterian church.

Miss Margaret Ligon, of Asheville, was leader of the discussions. Others taking part were Miss Helen Rex, field worker for this district, Miss Elizabeth House, director of the Library Commission, Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn, member of the state Library Commission, and William Medford, state senator, and member of the Haywood Library Board.

$4,200 Sought For Expansion Of Local Band

Fund-Raising Drive To Be Launched With Parade This Saturday

Tonight the High School band will play a dual role in the life of this community — officially opening their Band Building, and inaugurate a campaign to raise $4,200 for uniforms and equipment.

The modern band building is the first home of the band which was organized in 1939. Tonight marks the beginning of the third campaign for funds during the 11-year period.

W. A. Bradley, chairman of the band committee, said today that the assets of the band is now $20,000, exclusive of $18,837 in instruments owned by the individual members.

Mr. Bradley pointed out the urgent need for 30 additional uniforms, in order that Waynesville could put 90-playing musicians on the field or in a parade at once. Also urgently needed are five instruments, a bassoon, tuba, bass clarinet, and 2 piccolos. The uniforms, and five instruments total $3,800. The additional $400 is to cover transportation costs to the state contest, where the band will go next spring in order to defend the title of holding first place with two other bands in Class Six music — the top class in the state.

Mr. Bradley pointed out that the band committee owns $7,975 in instruments now, some of them bought back in 1939. There is an investment of $6,284 in uniforms, and a music library valued at $4,000. Supplies on hand, together with other physical equipment, such as cabinets, stage platforms, and office equipment adds another $900 to the assets of the organization.

The 30 uniforms, which are needed to bring the number to 90, will cost $1,800. The instruments and transportation costs total $2,400.

There are approximately 250 students now taking band in the four groups — beginners, juniors, military band and concert band. Charles Isley is director, and Robert Campbell is assistant.

The band committee is composed of Mr. Bradley, chairman, W. S. Prevost, secretary, W. Hugh Massey, treasurer, M. H. Bowles, Jack Messer, C. E. Weatherly, Claude N. Allen, George A. Brown, Jr., and T. L. Brandell.

"In consideration for the many public appearances, and outstanding contributions the band makes each month to our community life, it appears that a campaign for $4,200 for a four-year period is an excellent investment. We are urging that all interested in the continued growth of the band contribute liberally," Bradley said.

Mr. Isley announced that the band would stage a parade at 11:30 Saturday morning, and the Lions Club would operate a dime board in behalf of the band all-day Saturday.

New Sunday Hours For Theatres Announced

The announcement was made this morning that the Park and Strand Theatres would open at eight o'clock on Sunday nights, with the picture beginning at 8:30. This new hour will continue through the winter months.

Friday's Contest To Be No. 42 In WTHS - Canton Series

Friday night's game will be the 42nd time that Canton and Waynesville have met on the football field. Waynesville holds the edge in the 18-year-old series, with 24 victories.

Canton has won 16. Only one game ended in a tie. That was the scoreless first game of the 1940 season. Canton came back and won the second one by three touchdowns.

Which goes to show you that what happens in the first game isn't an exactly infallible indication of what's going to happen in the second.

In the vast majority of the double-headers which started with the season of 1937, however, the same team won both games in each season.

The second game of 1939 took the cake for being the closest. Canton won it, 25-20. But quite a few others ended with a margin of only six points between winner and loser.

The first game between the seasons was one of those wing-dings. Canton came through with a 25-19 victory.

In only 22 of the contests did the loser fail to score at all. Waynesville was shut out in nine of these, and Canton in 12.

The first game of last season probably came closer to being a deadlock than any of the others outside of the scoreless tie of 1940. (See Game—Page 8)

Appointed

ROBERT HALL, 27-year-old University of North Carolina graduate, went to work Monday as Haywood County's first probation officer. His official title is "assistant probation officer," and he is on the staff of the County Welfare Department.

Bob Hall Named First County Probation Officer

Robert Hall, 27-year-old former program director for Radio Station WHCC, started work Monday as Haywood County's first assistant-probation officer.

Mrs. Sam Queen, Sr., county welfare superintendent, announced his appointment by the County Welfare Board.

Actually, Mr. Hall is the first person ever appointed in a Western North Carolina county to do probation work, and is the only one doing this type of job in the western area at present.

Mr. Hall, incidentally, also is the first man ever to be named to the staff of the Haywood County Welfare Department in the 32 years it has been operating.

Men have filled the office of superintendent of the department since it was organized on a part-time functioning basis in 1918. But the staff had always been composed of women until Mr. Hall was appointed. (See Hall—Page 8)

Saturday Will Be Parade Day Here

Everybody loves a parade, so Saturday's program is just what the doctor ordered for the Waynesville folks.

There will be one before each meal, except breakfast, on that big day.

At 6:15 A. M., the Waynesville Township High School band will start marching down Main Street from the First Baptist Church to observe the opening of its 1950 fund-raising drive.

At 6:45 P. M., this one, and the bands and majorettes of East Tennessee State College and Western Carolina Teacher's College will start parading from the Hotel Gordon up Main Street.

That one will be a preliminary to the East Tennessee-WCTC football game at 8 P. M. at the high school stadium.

St. John's To Install Pastor On Sunday

The Rev. Lawrence Newman will be installed formally as the new pastor of St. John's Church of Waynesville in ceremonies at the church at 7:30 P. M. Sunday.

Officiating will be the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Louis J. Bour, dean of the Western Carolina Catholic Diocese.

The installation service will be followed by the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Participating in the closing service will be the Rev. C. F. Hill, assistant pastor of St. John's.

The parishioners will greet their new pastor formally at a reception in the St. John's School Auditorium after the service.

Father Hill said all friends of the church and school are invited.

Serving as hostesses will be Mrs. John Wasilik of Franklin, Miss Gertrude Flannagan of Cherokee, Mrs. R. C. Lane of Lake Junaluska, Mrs. Harold Henson of Canton, and Mrs. Morris Morrill of Cullowhee.

The arrangements were made under Father Hill's direction.

The appointment of the new pastor gave St. John's an all-native Tar Heel administrative lineup. Father Newman is a native of New Bern, and Father Hill was born and raised in Burlington.

Baptists To Hear Dr. Love Sunday

Dr. Frank S. Love will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist Church for both services on Sunday — for the 11 o'clock morning service, and again at the 7:30 evening service.

Dr. Love has served as superintendent of Lake Junaluska for the past six years, having resigned recently, effective October first.

A Lot Of Chickens Going To Market

This is believed to be the largest load of chickens ever shipped at one time from here. The load of 2,100 hens weighed 12,000 pounds and was worth about $3,000. The hens were bought from the hatching egg flocks as sponsored by the Haywood County Farmers Cooperative. The hens were sold on the Atlanta market for a three-cent premium over other markets. The chickens, left here at five o'clock, and before noon the next day many were in poultry display cases in stores. Shown here, left to right, H. M. Dulin, manager of the Cooperative; Carl Crawford, of Brasstown, Tenn., and Lyda Patron, Cooperative driver, and Mr. Crawford, in cab of truck. (Staff Photo)

Highlights Of The News

able, Terrible

Smith, the Hazelwood likes to spin mountain and his supply is unlimited. He had to determine which likes best, history of the far, mountain stories, or of his latest is about the had just made a run in a. While going down the with a jug of the new liquor hand, he carried his gun in ing a stranger, he stopped, the newcomer the jug and him to drink. The man ed, whereupon the distiller st gun on the man, and said: "or I'll shoot."

man obeyed, but almost ed when he sipped a small rible stuff, ain't it?" in- the man holding the gun. mb rotten," came the reply, re hold the gun on me while a drink," said the distiller, swapped his gun for the jug.

et

an drove a coupe into a and asked for a special mon- ming job.

ould the proprietor he want- in the form of a large bull's ay," said the puzzled crafts- "where do you want it?"

man pointed to a battered ght there," he said, "These have been hitting me any- and, I want to give them thing harmless to aim at next

Whom the Bells Toll

as you open the front door Firestone store, you make Owner William Cobb a few ago installed a set of chimes sounds when the front door let the clerks know that a customer has just come in.

uty Surplus

haps some college bands can Western Carolina Teachers' ge's musicians in talent.

not in majorettes.

eding the WCTC band in the here Saturday afternoon eding the WCTC-East Tennes- State football game will be: nym Edwards of Lakeville, ajette who was "Miss North lina" of 1950 and one of the 15 lists in the Miss America Beau- tiest last month.

ty Jean Hines of Raleigh, the ty majorette, who was "Miss ht Leaf" last summer and ned during the ceremonies at- and to the world premiere of motion picture, "Bright Leaf," ney Rogers of Charlotte, who "Miss Merry Christmas" last er in her home city's annual stmas pageant.

Waywood Farmers Attend FHA Meeting

orm representatives from 22 tern North Carolina counties, uding Haywood, at a meeting Asheville last week discussed hods of improving the overall icultural program.

the meeting was sponsored by Federal Farm Home Adminis- tion. State FHA Director J. B. ek was in charge.

representing Haywood at the on was a committee of Jarvis Caldwell as chairman; Charles Limer, and Tom Rogers.

arm Manager told the delegates t major adjustments in the ming program must be made if average cash farm income in th Carolina is to be raised ve the current $1,069 per farm year level.

The FHA's county committee em- bered by law to certify to the ability of applicants and loans der the Farm Housing, Farm nership, and Farm Operating grams.

L. C. McDarris is supervisor for FHA in Haywood County.

The Weather

FAIR

Thursday, October 5—Fair and elier Thursday. Friday, fair, be- ginning a little warmer in the af- ternoon.

Official Waynesville tempera- re as recorded by the staff of the ate Test Farm:

Date	Max.	Min.	Rainfall
Oct. 2	76	48	.....
3	74	38	.....
4	73	45	30

Highway Record For 1950 In Haywood (To Date) Injured . . . 27 Killed . . . 6 (This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol)