Three Queens At WCTC

Farm Bureau To Meet Saturday

The Haywood County Farm Bureau will hold an important meeting at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Haywood County Court House. Bureau President O. L. Yates in his announcement today urged all Farm Bureau members and their families, and all county 4-H Club leaders to attend.
George Farthing, field representative for the N. C. Farm Bureau Federation, and other authorities, will be featured speakers.

When to Water Lawn
A lawn needs watering when the upper inch or so of the soil reveals any dryness. This dryness can be quickly determined by taking a small sampling plug of earth from the grass root area.

Stamey Cove Folks Plan New Projects

By Mrs. Martin Rogers
Mountaineer Correspondent
The residents of Stamey Cove discussed new community improvement projects and elected Mrs. James McFalls as the Community Development Program secretary for the rest of the year when they met last week.
The session was held at the home of T. D. Stevenson.
Following the devotional by the Rev. V. N. Allen, the group discussed the project for erecting road and church signs and laid plans for a box supper to help raise money for the community's basketball team.
Community spokesmen said later no definite date had been set for the supper, but that it would be held in the "near future."
The residents during the meeting also voted the Rev. V. N. Allen, chairman of the Allens Creek Community Development Program, and the residents of Allen's Creek for their hospitality at the wener roast they had given for the Stamey Cove people.

Rev. Bauer New Seventh Day Adventist Pastor

The Rev. S. I. Bauer, 25-year-old native of Berkeley, Calif., this week started work as district pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Churches in Hazelwood and Sylva.
Mr. and Mrs. Bauer have established their residence at Lake Junaluska. They are the parents of a set of twins—a boy and a girl—and another son.
Mr. Bauer served as assistant pastor at the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Shelby for a year before coming here, and previously had been assistant pastor of the Rocky Mount Church.
He will preach regular weekly worship services every Saturday at the Sylva and Hazelwood churches, and this Sunday will start a series of weekly revival meetings at the Hazelwood Church.
The revival service will be held every Sunday at 7:30 p.m.
