TODAY'S SMILE

Golf: A game where the ball usually lies poorly and the player well.

Delights Of The News

Manhood
He was going hot and fast the first quarter, and then he was concentrating on Bobby Setzer, who was charging ball-carriers automatically disconcerting. After one play ended, an lineman, whose zeal overruled better judgment, swung at the Waynesville center. Setzer naturally took the chap, but then he turned himself with an effort to get all the way back in time to turn quickly and walk to his teammates.

Afterward, when he was substituted, he found Coach Weatherby waiting for him on the sidelines. Coach slapped him on the back and grinned: "That was the greatest play you ever made in your life."

Investment

Rogers, East Waynesville principal, knew he was in for a good cause when he campaigned last year for the hospital bond issue.

He discovered just how good the cause was, when he spent a week at Haywood Hospital following an operation, he declared: "I'm glad I had the privilege of being in the hospital bond issue."

He received nothing but pleasant service from the hospital staff.

Rogers declared that the hospital he didn't get was what he needed or didn't want."

Choice

Plans at the Waynesville-Hendersonville game saw a situation which few of them understood probably will never see.

Carleton Weatherby of the Hendersonville Tailback Bobby Setzer was thrown for a big loss by Setzer and Alden McCarty.

He made it fourth and about 10 yards for a first down. Then he came back in punt formation and got a pretty nice boot. Hendersonville carried the kick to the Hendersonville 45.

Over the officials ruled the Hendersonville kicker on the play. He pointed an accusing finger in the general direction of Waynesville.

He meant a 15-yard penalty. Hendersonville, which meant Hendersonville gain for Hendersonville chance to kick the thing Hendersonville took it.

He declined the penalty. Hendersonville people that was a pretty silly thing to do—until the officials at the ball back to the Hendersonville 45, where the Waynesville punter was stopped—and proceeded to step off 15 yards against Hendersonville.

Refusing to take 15 yards in Hendersonville, Fleming gained his team 40 yards.

The main point was this: Hendersonville punter committed a foul by roughing the kicker, clipping the rule book says, the penalty goes into effect—regardless whether the other team accepts the penalty.

Other words, the play was when Fleming declined the penalty—but the penalty stuck, and Hendersonville was set back 15 yards at the point where the play ended.

Weatherby, who has been coaching for 22 years, said that was the first time he had ever seen a situation like that arise.

He also called it a nice piece of play.

The weather was cloudy.

Monday, October 23 — Partly cloudy and warmer, a few scattered showers Monday. Tuesday partly cloudy and not much change in temperature.

Official Waynesville temperatures recorded by the staff of the Test Farm:

Time	Max.	Min.	Rainfall
19	66	56	.89
20	68	59	2.43
21	66	47	.11

Freedom Crusade Box Snatcher Is Jailed

The First National Bank was "robbed" Friday morning. But the quick-working police got the "loot" back ten minutes later—the whole $1.50.

It made up the entire contents of the Crusade for Freedom donation box that was snatched from the bank lobby by a local Negro. But the sound of the coins clattering in the box as the man was putting it under his coat attracted the attention of a teller.

She promptly phoned the police department, and Chief Orville Noland accompanied by Policeman Jerry Rogers apprehended the Negro on Main Street a few yards from the bank.

A search at first failed to find the money or the box. But then Chief Noland remembered seeing the man tuck something in his shoe as he was being placed in the police car.

The officers found the coins simply by having the man remove his shoes.

The Negro is scheduled to appear before Acting Police Court Judge Felix Stovall this afternoon for a hearing on a charge of larceny.

State College Dean To Address Haywood Alumni

Dr. W. G. Van Note, director of the N. C. State College department of engineering research, will address the State College graduates of Haywood county next Monday night.

The Haywood alumni chapter will hold its dinner meeting in Canton.

The "old grads" also will see a motion picture recently made of the State College.

Heads WCTC Frosh

Officers Seize 24 Gallons Of White Liquor

State Highway Patrolmen arrested two Haywood County men shortly after midnight Friday after finding 24 gallons of "white lightning" in the 1950 Buick sedan they were driving.

Officers Joe Murrill of Waynesville and Charles Lindsay of Sylva stopped the car in Jackson County near the Haywood County line.

The two were charged with transporting and possessing non-tax-paid liquor and were released after posting bond.

Patrolman Murrill said they waived preliminary hearing and were bound over to Jackson Superior Court.

He added that the wife and two-year-old daughter of one of the men were riding in the car also.

Parris To Address Local Lions Thursday

John Parris of Sylva, newly-appointed publicity director for the Cherokee historical drama, "Unto These Hills," will address the Waynesville Lions Club Thursday night.

He accepted an invitation tendered by telephone Friday night to speak at the club's regular weekly dinner meeting which will open at 7 P. M. at Patrick's Cafeteria.

For the ex-United Press and Associated Press foreign correspondent from Sylva it will be the second speaking engagement of the week before a Waynesville civic club.

He will be featured speaker Tuesday night at a dinner meeting of the Waynesville Business and Professional Women's Club.

Walter Coble Dies At Home In Florida

Walter Coble, 61, native of Waynesville, died at his home in Winter Garden, Florida on Friday, October 13, after having been in ill health for some time.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church in Winter Garden last Monday and interment was in an Orlando cemetery.

Mr. Coble was the son of the late George and Minnie Bridges Coble of Waynesville and spent his early life here. He had resided in Florida for the past forty years and was engaged in citrus fruit business.

Survivors include the widow, the former Miss Dora Good of Hendersonville; a daughter, Carolyn, of Winter Park; four brothers, W. A. Coble of Asheville; Charles Ray Coble of Bennettsville, S. C.; George Scott Coble of Charlotte; and John Coble of Waynesville; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Sullivan of Glendale, California.

Pack Trips Into Park Filled With Plenty Excitement

Rotarians heard Tom Alexander Friday tell of experiences of 10-day pack trips into the Park.

The semi-annual trips, led by Mr. Alexander, are attracting national attention, and are arranged for June and September by the American Forestry Association.

"We mix a lot of fun with the trip, and do not just make it all riding. We hold the riding to about ten miles a day," he explained.

"Once I get the group over the second day and second night I breathe a sigh of relief. Usually they are not seasoned riders, and after the first day's ride, and first night in the open, they feel somewhat worn. After that they become familiar with the routine."

Very little wild life is seen on the trips, except at night, when bears present a problem in their search for food.

"Not long ago we had a bear steal our surplus food from under our canvas, with three men sleeping within five feet of the supply. We have been looking for about every night looking for food."

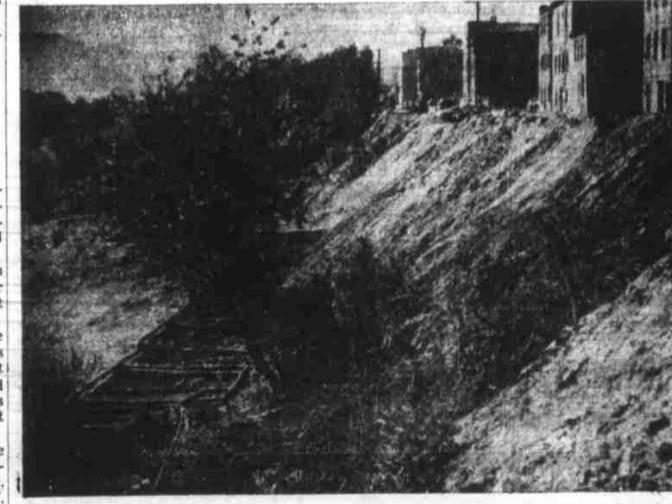

Rattlesnakes are usually found on the trips, and all riders soon learn to bring in any snake killed. The cooks have found that properly prepared rattlesnake steaks is a favorite dish.

During every trip, one or more guests are taken on a snipe hunt on one of the nights out. The snipe hunts turn out to be a joke on the hunter, who falls unaware of the age-old woodsmen's prank.

Mr. Alexander explained that oddly enough, more women than men show an interest in the 10-day trips.

CHARLES GIBSON AT MOORE GENERAL
Charles Gibson left Sunday to enter Moore General Hospital for medical treatment.

Retaining Wall Being Built On Alley By Town

Locust logs are being used by Town street forces in building a retaining wall for widening the alley just back of buildings on Main Street. On the extreme lower left of the picture can be seen the cross sections of logs already in place. Thousands of yards of earth will be required to fill-in. The town has had this as a major project for some time, filling in as dirt was available. Plans are to ultimately pave all of the alley. (Staff Photo)

Haywood Democrats Plan Seven Rallies

Some of the state's best known speakers will be featured in the seven Democratic rallies in Haywood county.

Democratic leaders here this morning, headed by Charles B. McCrary, chairman, completed the details for the seven rallies, to begin next Friday and continue to the eve of the election on November sixth.

The headline speakers will be led by Senator Clyde R. Hoey, who will appear twice on November 4th, together with Representative Redden, also Secretary of State Thad Eure, Solicitor Thad Bryson, former Solicitor John M. Queen, Judge Felix E. Alley and Judge Sam Cathey.

Chairman McCrary said today "this is just as impressive a list of speakers as any county will have during the campaign. We are well organized, and are going out after a big majority on the seventh," he commented.

The initial rally will be staged at the Cruso School on Friday, Oct. 27, with John M. Queen and Judge Felix Alley as speakers.

The second rally on November 1st, will feature Solicitor Thad Bryson in a rally for Maggie, Jonathan and Ivy Hill townships.

On Thursday, Nov. 2, Thad Eure will address a rally at the Canton High School, with Judge Sam Cathey going to the Crabtree-Iron-Duff school on the night of Friday, Nov. 3rd.

All the night meetings will begin at 7:30.

The only day rally will be on Saturday, Nov. 4, here at the court house, when Senator Hoey and Representative Redden make the principal addresses. That night the same group of speakers will go to Bethel school for the second rally of the day.

The climax of the campaign will be held at Pines Creek on Monday, the sixth with all local candidates being featured.

Past National VFW Commander To Visit Here

Otis N. Brown of Greensboro, past national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will make an official visit to the Waynesville Post and Auxiliary, Wednesday night, in the interest of the membership drive which is being carried on in the two organizations.

Mr. Brown will make an address on International Affairs at 8 o'clock in the Court Room in Waynesville.

Prior to the address the Post and Auxiliary will hold a dinner at the Towne House in honor of the visiting official.

Members and eligible members of the two groups as well as their wives and husbands, are invited to attend these events.

Reservations for the dinner must be made with Mrs. Charles McDaris by Tuesday morning.

'BIG TWO' RELAX IN RIDE TO MEETING

OF THE MANY PHOTOS taken of President Truman and Gen. Douglas MacArthur during their historic Wake Island meeting, this one catches them in one of their more informal moments. The President is laughing and the General grinning at some quip as they ride from the airstrip to the building where the momentous conference was held. (International)

If You Voted In Bethel Or Court House—Register

Democrats Open Fall Campaign Headquarters

Haywood County's Democrats drew up plans for their fall General Election campaign Saturday afternoon, then formally opened their headquarters.

Most of the candidates and county Party officials, but few others, attended the meeting at the Haywood County Court House.

The campaign will be carried out from the office of State Senator-nominate William Medford of Waynesville.

Haywood Folks To See New Bridge Dedicated

A large delegation of Haywood county people left shortly before noon today to attend the dedication of the new Smoky Mountain Park Bridge connecting West Asheville with the Asheville business section.

Many town and county officials were in the group.

If you have been voting in the last elections at Bethel or at the Haywood County Court House, you have to register all over again.

This announcement was made today by Haywood Elections Board Chairman Crom E. Cole.

Saturday, he warned, is the last day you can register in order to qualify for voting in the November 7 General Election.

Everyone who lived in the old Waynesville North Ward, Pigeon, and Saunook must register again before he can vote in the General Election.

Those living in what was the North Ward are now in either the new East Waynesville, Center Waynesville, or West Waynesville precincts.

The Pigeon precinct is now divided into Pigeon and Center Pigeon.

All those living in the Saunook section also must register again, since this has been set up as a new precinct.

The polling places where persons in these areas can register are: East Waynesville—East Waynesville School; Center Waynesville—Haywood County Court House; West Waynesville—Presley's.

Photos Of 163 Haywood Folks In Mountaineer

One hundred and 63 Haywood County folks must have felt as though they were looking in the mirror when they went through last Thursday's issue of the Waynesville Mountaineer.

That is the number of people shown in the 25 photographs The Mountaineer published in that edition.

We couldn't find any figures on the subject, but we believe it is something of a record for a newspaper in this class in picture coverage.

All but a few of those photos were taken by the staff photographer.

In the process, he used over four dozen flash bulbs, about 50 sheets of film wore a pair of shoes about half way through, and got a stiff neck.

Those pictures, in terms of work, took about 24 hours of activity, including the cameraman's efforts and those of the folks who developed and printed the pictures.

Then there was the time spent in making the pictures into engraved "cuts" for the press. Fact is, though, that the intensity of the flash of the photographer's bulbs was exceeded only by the flash set off in the business office by the size of the bill.
