Bradfield Married To Brackett

Arrangement is made of the wedding of Miss Anne Elizabeth Bradfield of Wichita Falls, Texas, to Zeb Brackett of Waynesville. The ceremony took place September 9 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bradford.

Rev. B. Slack, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiated. The bride and groom were joined at the altar in the living room. The decorations and arrangements of chrysanthemums were beautiful.

A program of nuptial music was given prior to the ceremony. The officiating minister was E. M. Rowser of Fort Worth, and Miss Patsy Cutler.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle with a yoke of pink and white, bordered with seed pearls, and a fitted bodice with long sleeves extending to the wrists. She wore a long veil of illusion attached to a crown of seed pearls and her hair was styled in white fuzzi chrysantheums with white satin streamers.

Mary Margaret Bradfield, the bride's maid of honor, wore a gown of ice blue slipper satin with matching mitts and shoes. She carried an armful of bluish pink chrysantheums.

Mr. J. Swartz of Fremont, Okla., served as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a formal reception was held. The table was covered with a white damask cloth and a three-tiered wedding cake.

At the reception the couple will be on a wedding trip to Lake Lodge in Oklahoma. They are residing in Wichita Falls. The bride received her education at Paschal High School at Fort Worth, and the North Texas College, Denton, Texas. She is employed by the Texas Service Company at Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Brackett, son of Mrs. Bertha Bradford of Waynesville and Zeb Bradford of Hazelwood, attended Waynesville schools and served in the navy during World War II.

Mr. Brackett is now stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base, Wichita Falls. The out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Brackett, the bride's mother, and the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brackett

Mr. and Mrs. Brackett were married in the home of the bride's parents in Wichita Falls, Texas, on Saturday, September 9. The bride is the former Miss Anne Elizabeth Bradford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Henry Bradford. Mr. Brackett is the son of Mrs. Bertha Brackett of Waynesville and Zeb Brackett of Hazelwood.

Apple Festival Ball Set For Local Armory Nov. 3
