Helen Irene Graham Weds Grady Ranson Galloway

Miss Helen Irene Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Graham of Clyde, became the bride of Grady Ranson Galloway, son of Mrs. Ernest Ray of Whittier and the late Elbert Galloway, in Central Methodist Church at Clyde, Sunday afternoon, October 22.

The Rev. W. P. Medlin, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The altar was decorated with white gladioli, pom-pom chrysanthemums, and seven-branched candelabra against a background of Oregon ferns and rhododendron.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Janice Smathers, organist, and Carl Painter, vocalist. Mr. Painter sang "Because", "At Dawning", and "The Lord's Prayer". "Leibestraum" was played during the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches were used as processional and recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of candle-light satin with basque waist and full skirt ending in a cathedral train. The collar and peplum were embroidered with seed pearls and her only ornament was a gold lavalier which belonged to her maternal grandmother. Her tiered veil of French illusion fell from a satin cloche and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and gla-mellias.

Miss Margaret Graham of Martinsburg, West Virginia, was her sister's maid of honor. Her dress was of petal pink taffeta with an overskirt of nylon marquisette and short cape. She wore matching taffeta mitts, a picture hat of nylon marquisette, and carried a colonial bouquet of chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Dean of Sylva and Miss Doris Graham, sister of the bride. They wore dresses of exotic blue taffeta and marquisette, identical in design to that of the honor attendant, and carried colonial bouquets.

Miss Ruth Hyder of Rutherfordton and Miss Doris Lewis of Coolemeec, cousins of the bride, were junior bridesmaids. Their dresses were of yellow taffeta fashioned with Grecian necklines, short puffed sleeves, and full skirts and they wore matching picture hats and carried colonial bouquets.

Henry Galloway of Stecoah, N. C., brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers were James White, C. C. Weaver, W. H. Brown, all of Asheville, and Jimmy Graham, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Graham, mother of the bride, wore a turquoise blue silk dress with black felt hat and a corsage of red carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore a powder blue silk print with black hat and a corsage of white carnations and gypsophylla.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at an informal reception in their home. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. R. L. Allison, Mrs. A. P. Lewis, and Miss Lila Lewis, aunts of the bride, Mrs. E. M. Rogers, and Mrs.

Woman's Society Gives Reception At Church

An informal reception was given in the dining room of the First Methodist church, Wednesday evening, with members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service as hostesses.

Honor guests were Dr. F. S. Love, retiring superintendent of Lake Junaluska Assembly; Dr. C. N. Clark, retired district superintendent of the Methodist church; The Rev. W. J. Huneyutt, new district superintendent; the Rev. J. E. Yountz, pastor of the church; and their wives.

The dining room was decorated for the occasion with autumn foliage and arrangements of chrysanthemums.

Receiving with the guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gaddy, the latter president of the hostess Society; Noble Garrett, chairman of the board of stewards of the church, Mrs. Garrett; and Dr. H. G. Allen, new superintendent of the Junaluska Assembly, and Mrs. Allen.

Others receiving were officers of the Woman's Society. Mrs. Guy Massie and Mrs. Rufus Siler greeted the callers and Mrs. David Hyatt, Mrs. Carl Mundy, Mrs. W. A. Hyatt, and Mrs. J. H. Howell, Sr., presided at the table.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. Fred Campbell, Mrs. J. H. Howell, Jr., Mrs. J. C. Crouser, Mrs. Ernest Hyatt, Mrs. Joe Davis, Mrs. Roy Tuttle, Mrs. G. W. Boston, Mrs. Lawrence Leatherwood, Mrs. Fred Allison, and Mrs. Charles Burgin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gerringer have returned from a week's visit to New York.

Hasque Warren, Daniel Gibson, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the bride's book.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a suit of royal blue with black accessories and a corsage of gla-mellias detached from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Galloway is a graduate of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and has completed one year of graduate study at the Richmond School of Social work. During the past year she has been employed as child welfare worker with the Buncombe County Department of Public Welfare.

Mr. Galloway received a B.S. degree from Western Carolina Teachers College and did post graduate study at New York University. He served four years with the Coast Guard during World War II and was released to inactive duty with the rank of senior lieutenant. For the past four years he has been a counselor with the North Carolina Department of Public Welfare.

The couple will reside at 135 Flint Street, Asheville.
