

Haywood Apples Make Good Showing At State Fair

Haywood orchardmen won several prizes at the recent State Fair with their displays of apples. Here is the general view of the structure display, which was in charge of Howard Clapp, of Waynesville. (Photo by State College.)

Eleven WCTC Students Named To Who's Who

Pictured are the eleven students at Western Carolina Teachers College who were named to Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges 1950-51. Seated left to right are Annie Ruth Watts of Morven, Mrs. June Cowan of Sylva, Patricia Sawyer of Black Mountain, and Jane Callison of Black Mountain. Standing, left to right, Charles West of Weaverville, Bob Failing of Murphy, Ned Noblitt of Marion, Bob Greeson of Burlington, Lawrence Arney of Morganton, Herbert Hyde of Franklin, and Ralph McConnell of Andrews. (Photo by Stan Sarella).

Deaths

WEXLER R. MORGAN
 Wexler R. Morgan, 33, died at home on Thickety Road, near Canton, last night following a brief illness.
 Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Paul Morgan; two brothers, Fred Morgan, U. S. Army in Germany, and Rufus Morgan of Wake Forest College; two sisters, Mrs. Garren, Canton, and Miss Morgan of Gardner-Webb College, and the mother, Mrs. Wexler, of Canton.
 Funeral services will be held in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at the North Canton Baptist Church, with the Rev. J. Sawyer, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Bon-A-Venture cemetery.
 Hearers will be J. L. Sprin, Russell Clark, Charlie Rhoads, N. E. Dempsey, Bronson, and Tom Hall.
 The body was taken to the home in the afternoon to await the hour of service.
 Crawford Funeral Home is in charge.

BUGG TWINS
 Burial services were held yesterday in Pisgah Mountain Baptist cemetery for Jean and Fred Bugg, infant twin daughters of Mrs. Fred W. Bugg of Route 1, Candler.
 The Rev. Isaac Rhinehart officiated.
 Surviving in addition to the parents are the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Bugg of Route 1, and the maternal grandparents, Mrs. Jane Hunter of Hazlet.

WILLIAM REID KIRKLAND
 William Reid Kirkland, 72, died at home today at the Haywood County Hospital.
 He was a native of Erie County, Pennsylvania, he had come to Haywood County in 1915.
 For the last several months, he had been living at the Teague Farm Home on Dellwood Road.
 He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Kirkland.
 Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at Garrett Funeral Home.
 The Rev. Malcolm Williamson, pastor of the Waynesville Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Green Hill cemetery.
 Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Lou Athorne of Waynesville.

MINKS GET FED
 BOSTON — The 45-foot fishing boat Minkette I is owned by several Massachusetts and New Hampshire mink ranchers who have a steady supply of fish to feed their stock.

24-Hour Service
 Crawford Funeral Home
 Crawford Mutual Burial Ass'n.
 Waynesville, Phone 147
 Canton, Dial 3535

Mrs. James Named White Oak Queen For Festival

By MRS. GEORGE BORING
 (Mountaineer Correspondent)

Mrs. Lucy James will represent White Oak in the contest for queen of the 1950 Haywood County Tobacco Harvest Festival.
 Mrs. James was elected at a recent meeting by the residents of White Oak.
 They had decided previously that the community would have a float and a queen in the annual Festival parade.
 Meanwhile, Sam Ledford's hopes of bringing White Oak at least one Festival championship grows as his board grows.
 He will represent his community in the "most-beautiful-board" contest, which will be another feature of the Festival.
 Serving on the committee making arrangements for the float are Mrs. George Boring, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Bob Williams, Mrs. James Messer, Mrs. James Gayton, Mrs. Roe Ledford, Mrs. Frances Teague, Miss Roslyn Meier, and Mrs. Sallie Sutton.
 Anyone else who would like to help, however, is welcome to join the committee.
 During the last meeting also, two large wooden signs each bearing the words, "Welcome to White Oak Community," were presented to the community by the chairman.
 Later they were placed at the entrances to the community.
 In other business, two scrolls of the Crusade For Freedom, bearing the signatures of 108 White Oak people, were turned over to Jonathan Woody before the campaign ended.
 A letter from Mrs. R. W. Teague, former White Oak resident now living at Pisgah Forest, was read to the audience. It said Mrs. Teague was planning to return to White Oak to help prepare the festival float, in which she expressed great interest.

DOUBLE TAKE
 BOSTON — Opponents of South Boston High School's football team thought they were seeing double this season. South Boston boasts two backfield stars, both named Tom Sullivan. They're not related.

Rubber gloves sometimes are made with cloth linings to facilitate putting on and off.

Ex-WTHS Cage Star Edits Sports For College Book

By MRS. ALGIE RATCLIFFE
 (Mountaineer Correspondent)

Miss Nancy Medford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Medford, of Ratcliffe Cove, has been elected as sports editor on the staff of the Brevard College annual.
 Miss Medford spent the last weekend at home and attended the football game at Knoxville.
 H. C. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Raby, spent last weekend at home and attended the football game at Knoxville. H. C. is going to Carolina.

The Elizabeth Chapel Methodist Church had a homecoming and all day meeting last Sunday.
 In the afternoon of the meeting the Home Demonstration Club members from the church presented the United Nations Flag to the Church.
 Mrs. Will Ratcliffe made the presentation.
 The Rev. Paul Taylor accepted the flag. A special song was rendered by Miss Arbie Joe Jones, "Prayer for Peace".
 Those taking part in the program were: Mrs. Ward Kirkpatrick, and Mrs. Carl Jones, Mrs. James Medford, Mrs. Woody Jones, Mrs. Mark Galloway, and Mrs. Mary Turner.

The Ratcliffe Cove Baptist Church had a special program Sunday at the Sunday School hour with the presentation of the United Nations Flag by Mrs. Will Ratcliffe to the Rev. Pink McCracken, who is pastor of the church.
 Others taking part in the program were: Mrs. Hugh Francis, Mrs. Bob Francis, and Mrs. Grace Campbell.

Tight Shoes
 Nearly 90 per cent of the workers at the DuPont plant in Wilmington, Del., were found to have mechanical dislocation of the foot bones, in a recent study. In American industry, study disclosed, one of every four men and two of every three women are wearing shoes that are too tight. As a result many workers suffer from "afternoon fatigue" and lowered efficiency.

and Now

The Mountaineer consistently

Leads The Field with Haywood

News and Pictures

THE OLD HOME TOWN By STANLEY

TELEVISION