CULLOWHEE—(Special)—

The first of the year's three lyceum selections was presented at WCTC on Wednesday, November 8, when Charles Laughton, famed English actor of stage and screen, gave recitations from some of the great world literature.

Hoey Auditorium was filled to capacity for the event.

Laughton opened the program with several amusing limericks which quickly created a receptive audience.

For the first selection Laughton read "The Train and the Moon" from Thomas Wolfe's "Of Time and the River." Here he stressed the word music and rhythm which has brought national fame to the Asheville author.

"Mr. Pickwick's Christmas Vacation" from Charles Dickens' "Pickwick Papers" was presented next. It was followed by a recital from "Mutiny on the Bounty," the movie in which Laughton played the role of the cruel and merciless Captain Bligh.

After a short intermission, Laughton read from Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream," proving to all that he is a master at interpreting the Bard of Avon.

Two selections from the Bible were the story of the Fiery Furnace and Psalm 179. In a backstage interview, Laughton confessed that it took him three years to perfect the story of the Fiery Furnace. The Psalm, he told the audience, was his favorite from the works of David.

For his last two recitations, read Lincoln's first political speech and the Gettysburg Address. As an encore he repeated the last portion of the Address.

Students are now looking forward to January when the second lyceum offering brings to the campus the Robert Shaw Chorale, a group composed of some thirty singers and a ten-piece orchestra. Walter Carringer of Murphy, former student at WCTC, is a member of this organization.

HOTELS LOSE ON TOWEL-TAKERS

NEW YORK — (AP) — Taking towels from hotels may be a joke to the taker but not to the hostelry owner. No matter what you pay for the room, if you take a towel, the hotel loses money on the transaction, report owners. Most hotels pay $2.50 per towel.

The Hotel Edison here recently took an informal survey to discover if towel-taking was predominant among residents of any one section of the U. S. Owner Irwin Kramer reports that it can't be traced to any one part, but that "people from all over do it mostly for a gag. These same people wouldn't ever dream of sticking their hand in my pocket when I wasn't looking and taking out $2.50," he means.

Miss Collins Thrills Her Audience

By TINKA CRAWFORD

CULLOWHEE—(Special)— A beautiful soprano voice, sparkling eyes, charming personality, and a stunning array of costumes all add up to Evangeline Collins.

With her first appearance on stage to sing Mozart's "Alleluiah," she completely captivated the capacity audience of students, faculty and guests.

A noticeable feature of this concert was that all the selections were chosen with the idea of pleasing the college audience; not to demonstrate the skill of the performer. The program consisted of a variety of classical and semi-classical songs ranging from Bizet's "Ouvre Ton Coeur" to the Scotch folk song, "Comin' Through the Rye."

By a description of a lonely graveyard, Dr. Richard Renfro set the mood for the most unusual number of the afternoon, "Epitaphs" by the modern composer, Chanler. The odd melody was sung against a weird discordant accompaniment.

Other than her voice, Evangeline Collins' outstanding characteristic was her dramatic ability. Frequently, otherwise splendid concerts have been ruined by the dead pan or artificial expression of the singer. Miss Collins lived the parts and seemed to enjoy every moment. It was a treat to attend her concert.

As entertainment value, this concert far outstripped that of Margaret Truman's last year. Many students have voiced the opinion that this was the most enjoyable program in the entertainment field to be presented by the Chapel Committee in several years.

Dr. Renfro of the Music Department accompanied Miss Collins and played two solo selections, "Sonata in C" by Scarlatti and "In Autumn" by MacDowell.

Suggestion to the Chapel Committee: Let's have Dr. Renfro in Chapel again, not as an accompanist but as soloist.
