kicks, divided by the number of kids.

So we'll just have to settle for the claim—unofficial, of course,—that Waynesville's big end is the best kicker in the United States this year.

But only the second best in the nation in, say, the last 20 years.

After all, we can't forget Jim Thorpe, who hooted around 70 or 80 yards every time, and fell to 60 when they were blocked.

We can say, without fear of getting our ears pinned back, that Bill is the country's best high school booter.

After all, Paul Stombaugh was a college man.

Beef Stew for Fall Appetites

By ALICE DENHOFF

HEARTY fare just right for the season, is on the fire today. First off, a honey of a beef stew with toothsome dumplings.

To serve 4, melt 2 tsp. fat in large frying pan. Flour lightly one lb. round steak that has been cut into inch cubes. Brown meat in frying pan. Arrange one medium onion and 3 medium carrots, all sliced, on top of meat.

Add an 8 oz. can tomato sauce, tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. pepper, 1/2 tsp. celery salt, 1/4 to 1/2 tsp. garlic salt, and water to cover. Cover and simmer slowly for about 2 hr. or until meat is tender. Add more water if gravy cooks down.

The Dumplings

Drop dumplings by spoonful on top of boiling stew, cover, and simmer 15-20 min. To prepare dumplings mix and sift one c. sifted flour, 2 tsp. baking powder, 1/2 tsp. salt. Cut in 2 tsp. shortening, then add 1/2 c. milk, 3/4 tsp. dry mustard, 1/2 tsp. minced parsley (dry or fresh), 1/4 tsp. each onion salt and celery salt. Stir quickly to make soft dough. Proceed as above. Makes 6-7 dumplings.

A casserole of tuna fish with potato chips makes a hearty supper special. To serve 4 generously, stir 1/2 c. milk into a can condensed cream of mushroom soup; heat. Put contents of a 7-oz. can tuna fish into a strainer, and pour over it a cup of hot water to take off the excess oil, then break the fish into rather large pieces and add it to the sauce. Crush medium size package of potato chips. Butter a small casserole; pour half the creamed tuna fish in the bottom, then sprinkle with half the potato chips over the fish, then add another layer of the creamed tuna, and top with potato chips. Bake at 375 F. for 20-30 min.

Egg Curry

A tangy egg curry is a good choice for something different by way of a luncheon or supper dish. To serve 4-6, cream 2 tsp. butter and 2 tsp. flour together. Add tsp. curry powder, 1/2 tsp. paprika, 1/2 tsp. finely-chopped onion and 1/2 tsp. salt. Stir well; add 1 1/2 c. scalded milk, then cook until mixture thickens, stirring constantly. Chop the whites of 4 hard-cooked eggs and add with one c. cooked rice to the above mixture. Serve in patty shells garnished with the egg yolks, grated.

It's a good apple season, so how about an apple soufflé? Yes? Then combine 1/2 c. quick-cooking tapioca, 1/2 c. sugar, 1/2 tsp. salt and 2 c. milk in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water, bring to scalding point (allow 3 to 5 min.) and cook 5 min., stirring frequently. Add 1/4 tsp. cinnamon, 1/4 tsp. nutmeg, 2 tsp. butter, 1 1/2 tsp. lemon juice and one c. grated raw apple. Cool slightly while beating 3 egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored. Add egg yolks and mix well. Fold in 3 stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into greased baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake at 350 F. for 50 to 60 min., or until soufflé is firm. Serve hot with whipped cream.
