Long's Chapel Guild To Meet Tuesday Night

The Wesleyan Service Guild of Long's Chapel Methodist Church will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Dock Boyd, instead of tonight as formerly scheduled.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Ruel Noland and Mrs. Charles Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Barr are planning to leave tomorrow to spend the winter in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Let us help you choose between

Stradivari, rhythm in silver... Rose Point, the delicacy of lace. Both patterns have "Third Dimension Beauty"... a quality created by carving the design deeply on the back as well as on the front of each piece of silver. Come see our display of Rose Point and Stradivari... notice their "Third Dimension Beauty."

Jean Alice Tully Weds Charles Eugene Medford

Miss Jean Alice Tully, daughter of Mrs. William Clyde McCormick of Alexandria, Virginia, and the late Ralph Harold Tully, was married to Charles Eugene Medford, son of Fred Boone Medford of Alexandria and Mrs. D. L. Rigby of Clearwater, Florida, in a double ring ceremony in Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Alexandria, on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Rev. J. J. Ambler pronounced the vows.

The altar was decorated with floor vases of lilies and branched candelabra against a background of ferns and palms.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Irvin Philman, cousin of the bridegroom, vocalist, and the church organist. Mrs. Philman sang "Because," "O, Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used as processional and recessional.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of white satin with fitted bodice, fashioned with a yoke of sheer illusion. The full gathered skirt ended in a long circular train and her finger tip veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Mary Joyce Tully was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of toast satin with matching cloche and carried an arm bouquet of tulle roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Rosa Jane Allen of Washington, Mrs. Virginia Haley of Arlington, Virginia, Miss Lydia Shroff of Washington, and Miss Genevieve Sonnier of Louisiana. They wore identical dresses of moss green satin and carried arm bouquets of red roses.

Carol Grahl of Waynesville, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Pete Haley, Robert Via, Harry Magee, John Morgan, and Pete Walther, all of the University of Virginia, and Ralph Tully, brother of the bride.

Mrs. McCormick, mother of the bride, wore a gown of green tulle and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Rigby, mother of the bridegroom, wore a fuchsia lace over tulle and an orchid corsage.

Following the wedding the bride's mother entertained with a reception, after which the couple left for a wedding trip through the Pocono Mountains and New York State.

The bride was graduated last spring from George Washington University and since that time has held a secretarial position.

Mr. Medford, formerly of Waynesville, is employed by the Department of the Army and is residing in Alexandria, Virginia. He is a grandson of Mrs. Horace Ferguson and the late Mr. Ferguson of Waynesville and was graduated in June from the University of Virginia.

The couple will be at home after January 1 in Alexandria.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Horace Ferguson and Haywood Platt of Waynesville.

Charlie Hendry Has Party On 5th Birthday
