Mink Trimmed Duvelyn Suit

Elegant beige outfit.

By VERA WINSTON

HERE is a suit with an elegant air that uses fur smartly but not opulently. The expensive look is inexpensively achieved by using mink edging for the Peter Pan collar and for outlining the elliptical pockets. The suit is in cafe au lait duvelyn with a slim skirt and softly fitted jacket. With it is a tiny mink hat with mink tails which give a flirtatious air.

Grooming Gifts For That Man

By BETTY CLARKE
AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor

Just because Dad plays Santa Claus at Christmas young members of the family shouldn't overlook him when planning their gifts. Mother and older members of the family should see to it that small fry do right by the man of the family.

Even bottom-of-the-bank pennies can produce unusual little stocking stuffers. Soap in the shape and color of a pigskin football or shaving soap in a little metal bucket are fun presents for Dad. After-shave lotions, comb and brush sets, fingernail or toenail clippers, razors and razor blades are just a few of the items to be found on bargain shelves.

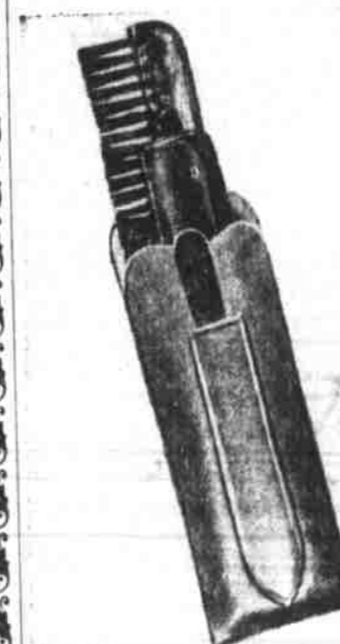

Older members of the family who can afford to splurge will find available such interesting items as good grooming kits containing essential toilet articles, military brush sets and electric razors.

YULE SCENTS . . . Royal fern scent in after-shave lotion makes a hit.

TOP OF THE PACK . . . Military brushes and comb in natural bristles.

HE-MAN GROOMING . . . Pocket size comb, nail file, clothes brush. Budget priced.

HERE'S HOW . . . Miniature cocktail shaker of after-shave lotion or cologne.

The National Geographic Society says the best estimate of Tibet's population is about 3,000,000.
