

Virginia Horne Is Guest Speaker At DAR Meeting

Miss Virginia Horne of Wadesboro, regent of the North Carolina Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Dorcus Bell Love Chapter, D. A. R., held Friday afternoon with Mrs. James Harden Howell, Sr., and Mrs. J. H. Howell, Jr., as hostesses in the home of the former.

Miss Horne discussed the accomplishments and objectives of the National Society and told of the organization of the Society in North Carolina more than fifty years ago. She gave a brief history of the first three chapters, which were in Charlotte, Salisbury, and Waynesville, and stated that there are now 77 chapters with more than 4,000 members.

Mrs. Ruth Lyons of Wadesboro, recording secretary of the North Carolina Society, was also a guest at the meeting and announced that the D.A.R. Year Book for 1950-51 has been dedicated to the first three chapters in the state.

Mrs. John Kirkpatrick, Jr., who was in charge of music for the afternoon, sang two solos, "The Birthday Of A King," by Noidlinger and "Jesu Bambina," by Pietro A. Yon. She was accompanied by Mrs. Robert Stretcher.

Mrs. W. E. Swift read the Christmas message of the President General from the D.A.R. Magazine. During the business hour, with Mrs. James B. Boyd, chapter regent, presiding, Mrs. Hugh Leach, chairman of Approved Schools, reported that boxes of clothing, valued at $190.00 had been sent to Crossnore in addition to the annual $50.00 scholarship to Crossnore School.

The regent reported that gifts, donated by the members, had been sent to Oteen Veterans' Hospital.

After the meeting the hostesses entertained at a tea. Christmas decorations were featured throughout the house and the tea table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of holly, flanked by silver candelabra, holding red candles.

Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. J. W. Killian presided in the dining room. Special guests for the meeting included Miss Robina Miller, Mrs. Lula Uzzle, Mrs. Thad Chafin, Miss Nancy Killian, and Mrs. A. J. Fancher.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. George of Waynesville and their three children left recently for Tarpon Springs, Fla., where they will spend the remainder of the winter. They will live at the home of Mrs. George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Sprides during their stay there. They are planning to remain until the end of the school term.
