

THE RISE AND FALL OF ALLIED FORTUNES IN KOREA

WINNING: There was bright promise when the U. S. Marines reached Korea Aug. 2.

ATTACKING: A Marine corporal sloughs through mud in offensive against the enemy.

BOMBING: B-29 Superforts blast North Korean industries.

FIRST AIDING: Allied casualties treated as the offensive went on. Here hospital corpsmen rush wounded GI to safety.

WINNING: Sensing victory, GIs cross 38th Parallel.

RETURNING: Pound to Chinese Red hordes near Manchuria, half-taken and weary soldiers slowly make their way south.

Citizens Responding To Needy Cases In County

County citizens began this year to select needy cases for aid as compiled by the Welfare Department. Several organizations are scheduled to meet to select a large number of cases, according to Mrs. Sam J. Smith, superintendent of Welfare.

The cases past, every listed case has been taken by an individual or organization, and given aid during the holidays.

Case 1—Family not eligible for aid. Home and property recently destroyed; family has replaced many lost items, but income is sorely taxed.

Case 2—Mother has been in hospital for months. One boy, age 14, and one girl, age 12, at home with mother, tenant farmer. Need for clothing, food supplies, and for Christmas cheer.

Case 3—Father, mother, 5 small children, live very meagerly on farm. Not eligible for public assistance. Boy, age 7; girls, ages 6, 4, 3, and 2 years.

Case 4—Boy, age 3 years, died of brain parents, lives in care of grandmother with two other children, boys, ages 8 and 10 years. Plans for child during court decision. Grandmother receives small public assistance grant for two children, but is present for child in question.

Case 5—Family with nine children, ages 11, 5 and 4 years; 10, 14, 13, 9, 8, years and 5 months old. Lions Club helps with clothes for school age children. Low income inadequate to take Christmas a special occasion.

Case 6—Mother, father, five children, minimum living essential. Need supplementation if income is to be a special occasion. Boys, ages 15 and 6 years; girls, ages 11, 9, and 3 years. Father disabled.

Case 7—Boy, age 11, in free home in county. Clothing and extra are needed.

Case 8—Mother, father, grandchild, heart trouble and three children live in tenant home. Progress of family has until recently been severely limited by demands of handicapped child, now institutionalized for special care. Family has minimum living essential.

Case 9—Father, old and disabled.

Case 10—Mother, father, five children, minimum living essential. Need supplementation if income is to be a special occasion. Boys, ages 15 and 6 years; girls, ages 11, 9, and 3 years. Father disabled.

Case 11—Family not eligible for aid. Home and property recently destroyed; family has replaced many lost items, but income is sorely taxed.
