Civil Court Term To Open Jan. 8

Court officers this week are completing arrangements for the January civil term of Haywood Superior Court.

Judge J. A. Rousseau of North Wilkesboro will preside over the two week term which will open January 8.

The Haywood County Bar Association earlier had drawn up the calendar of cases, in their pre-Christmas meeting.

The calendar remained open for revision during the following week.

The jurors selected at a public drawing early in December are as follows:

First Week:

Harry Haynes, Beaverdam; F. M. Noland, Frazier Price, Fines Creek; Robert L. Rich, Ivy Hill; W. R. Cramer, Beaverdam; C. E. Williams, Beaverdam;

Frank Chambers, Clyde; Lura Burns, Beaverdam; Mrs. Virgil Henry, Waynesville; T. H. Womack, Jr., Waynesville; Pink Rich, Ivy Hill;

Charles I. Smathers, J. M. West, Beaverdam; L. E. Ensley, Clyde; Wiley Williams, Jack Allison, W. T. Queen, Waynesville; E. G. Smathers, Beaverdam; Charles F. Osborne, Clyde; Woody W. Jones, Waynesville; Mrs. J. A. Stamey, Pigeon; Walter C. Lowe, White Oak; Fred L. Trull, Pigeon; Harold Hanson, Beaverdam;

Second Week:

R. T. Reynolds, Beaverdam; Mrs. V. L. Harkins, Waynesville; H. T. Rogers, Crabtree; T. V. Allen, Beaverdam; Sallie West, Waynesville; E. B. Watson, Beaverdam;

Claude Norman, Waynesville; J. C. Burnett, T. E. Reed, Beaverdam; Foster Hargrove, East Fork; Basson Thompson, Pigeon; Ben James, Crabtree; Don Henderson, Beaverdam; Bob Williams, Beaverdam; Glen Hunter, White Oak; Robert Chambers, Beaverdam; I. L. Sutton, Crabtree; and Alvin T. Ward, Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Nally of Easley, S. C. spent the holidays with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hollingsworth.

Miss Ruth Inman, who is taking nurse's training in Asheville, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Francis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell reported his deputies had to arrest only two drunks up to midnight yesterday in the rural areas.

Only one man in Waynesville was arrested to the Court House all day yesterday for walking too close to the ground.

State Highway Patrolmen arrested only four persons — three for being drunk, one for drunk driving.

First arrest in Haywood for the New Year, however, came only three hours after 1950 died.

Sheriff's officers took a man into custody in the Camp Branch section on a drunkenness charge.

In general, officers described it as "one of the most quiet" New Year's Eves on the books.

Francis Cove To Have CDP Meeting

A special meeting of the Community Development group of Francis Cove will be held at the church Thursday, at 7:30 p.m.

All citizens of the community are invited to attend.

He have ample curing capacity.

Local Police Arrest Only 6 Over Weekend

Only six persons were arrested in Waynesville over the weekend, and only one of these was arrested on New Year's Eve.

The Police Department reported that officers took only six drunks into custody between Friday night and last night.

New Year's Eve revelers comported themselves rather sedately, officers indicated.

At midnight traffic increased only slightly more than usual.

The old year was ushered out to the melody of the usual explosions of firecrackers and the honking of auto horns.

But even this volume of appropriate sound was lighter than usual for New Year's Eve.

The event was held at the Allens Creek School.

Supper Raises Funds For Allens Creek

The chicken supper held by the Allens Creek Community Development Program Saturday night contributed $22.00 to the community treasury.

The event was held at the Allens Creek School.

Haywood Citizens See New Year In Quietly

Haywood Schools Reopening

Canton school children returned to their books today following the annual Christmas holiday.

But pupils of the Haywood County district schools still had two days left for vacation when the Canton school bells sounded shortly after breakfast this morning.

County school workers, however, had little holiday beyond the three-day Christmas weekend, as they took advantage of the long recess to catch up on their repair jobs.

BP&W Names Civil Defense Representative

Mrs. Doyle Alley, president of the Waynesville Business and Professional Women's Club announces the appointment of Mrs. Lettie Schenck as Chairman of Civil Defense to represent the local BP&W Club with respect to plans and activities in the community Civil Defense program.

Mrs. Schenck will coordinate efforts of the BP&W Club members with that of other civic groups and local authorities.

Mrs. Clara L. Longstreth of Washington, D. C., was recently appointed Chairman, Civil Defense, for The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Schenck is Secretary to the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the committee on Public Affairs of the Waynesville BP&W Club. Mrs. Alley states that the club will cooperate 100% with local authorities in the program of Civil Defense for our community.
