

Haywood Cagers Face Full Court Slate This Week

Haywood County's basketball fans should find plenty on this week's scholastic menu to satisfy their appetites.

And they won't have to go out of the county to find it.

Tuesday night's schedule shows five fat double-headers.

Cherokee plays at Crabtree-Iron Duff, Bethel at Waynesville, Sand Hill at Canton, Marshall at Clyde, and Spring Creek at Fines Creek.

Top games shape up as the Canton-Sand Hill boys' contest, and the Bethel-Waynesville girls' set-to.

Sand Hill ruined Canton's early-season record by pinning the first defeat after four straight victories on the Bears.

This time, however, things probably will be different. The Bears will be playing on their own court, and they will be in much better shape than they were the first week of January.

The Canton boys went through a rugged battle with Hendersonville's fine Bearcats.

But by tomorrow night they will have had three full days in which to relax from any ill effects resulting from it.

The Bethel-Waynesville game shapes up as a stiff one for both squads.

Bethel doesn't have high-scoring Virginia Mease any more, and Waynesville misses Betty Sheehan.

But Bethel has Doris Hyatt and Norma Lou Jones, shorter than Virginia but expert ball-handlers, and Waynesville has Marjorie Cogdill and Hazel Farmer, two of the finest forwards in the west.

Waynesville rates the favorite's roll on the strength of more potent scoring strength.

The differences between the guards, however, will tell the story in the final analysis. Just who's got the best, we can't say.

But Bethel's defense has had seasoning in a tougher school so far this winter.

Canton's Black Bears take on another Blue Ridge Conference foe

Two Waynesville Girls Honored At Meredith

Misses Catherine James and Bess Francis, students at Meredith College from Waynesville, are among eleven speedball players elected Thursday to the honorary speedball varsity at the end of the playing season for the popular winter sport.

Chosen on the basis of their playing skill and participation in intramural competition, the students were recognized in student assembly Thursday morning by Miss Phyllis Cunningham of the department of physical education.

Both Waynesville students are members of the student Athletic Association Board this year. Miss James is speedball manager; Miss Francis, treasurer of the Association.

On Friday night, they'll swing into action against another toughie when they entertain powerful Waynesville, rated as the finest Mountaineer quintet in several years.

The Canton girls, who surprised Fines Creek's sextet last January 5, will be primed for another upset that night. They've shown steady improvement after a faltering start this season, and are rated as capable of turning the trick.

Crabtree tangles with Bethel at the Bethel gym in another interesting double-header Friday night.

Any way you look at it, there will be plenty of recreation in Haywood County this week.

Sugar, wine, starch, oil wax and resins are among the products obtained from palm trees of various species.

Crabtree Takes 2 From Spring Creek

Crabtree-Iron Duff's quintet rolled up the highest team score for a single game in the past five seasons as they smothered the Spring Creek boys, 81-21, at the Crabtree gym Friday night.

The lop-sided victory, the Crabtree boys' fourth in seven games this campaign, gave the local cagers a clean sweep of the evening's program.

The girls had edged the visiting Buncombe County sextet, 35-33, in the opener.

The boys' astronomical score was tallied by ten of the 12 Crabtree players who saw action.

M. L. Beasley, playing the role of reserve, connected for 30 points to lead all the boy performers for the evening.

Willett's nine points was best for Spring Creek.

In the girls' game, Lois McCracken set the winning pace with a 23-point performance.

Another Beasley, this one in the visiting lineup, took high-scoring honors in the girls' game.

The Spring Creek star scored all but one of the losers' points.

Miss Willett scored the other.

Fines Creek Girls, Bethel Boys Win In Twin Bill

Bethel's boys edged the Fines Creek quintet, 40-39, and the Fines Creek girls whipped the Bethel girls, 50-43, in a spirited double-header at the Bethel gym Friday night.

It was the second straight win for the Bethel boys, who had worked out their first victory of the season only two nights before.

It also was the second straight loss for the Bethel girls.

Forward Kenneth Jones and Center Ted Owen, connecting for 14 points each, led the Bethel cagers to their last-minute victory.

Bethel had held a 22-18 lead at half time.

Bruce Kirkpatrick's 18 points for Fines Creek, however, took the game's individual scoring honors.

In the opener, Norma Lou Jones of Bethel caught fire for 28 points to make it a close ball game all the way through.

But the Fines Creek girls had too much scoring punch, with Edith Rathbone hitting for 26 points and Regina Ferguson contributing 18.

Strength in reserves spelled the difference, as two of Fines Creek's relief forwards hit the scoring column for nine points between them.

The result brought the Fines Creek girls' record to six victories in eight games for the season to date.

Their only set-backs have been at the hands of the Canton and Waynesville sextets.

WTHS Cage Team On Undefeated List

Mountaineers Trounce Clyde in Doubleheader Here On Friday Night

Waynesville High School's undefeated boys and girls Friday night won their sixth straight double-header of the season, and became the county's only teams left with perfect records.

The boys came from behind a three-point intermission disadvantage to knock off previously undefeated Clyde, 56-46.

The girls, undefeated since the end of the 1948-49 season, had a lot less trouble staying that way as they rolled over the Clyde sextet, 56-25, in the opener.

Hazel Farmer and Marjorie Cogdill, with 22 and 16 points respectively, led the girls through their 45th game without a defeat, and their 24th straight victory.

Hazel took high-scoring honors for the contest, and Marjorie was runnerup.

Miss Schuler's 13 points was the best individual performance for the losers.

Center Bill Sutton and Forward Bobby Kuykendall led the last-half rally that snatched victory from defeat in the nightcap. Clyde had forged to a 23-20 lead seconds before the first half ended.

In the course of the contest, Kuykendall blistered the hoop for 20 points, as Sutton supported the offensive with 17.

Shook of Clyde ran third for individual scoring honors with 16 points, while Cecil Stevenson bucketed 13 in the losing cause.
