Red fleecy woolen coat.

By VERA WINSTON

HERE is a coat that has what it takes on several counts. First of all, it has surface interest, for it is of fleecy woolen. Then it is in red, a color that is gaining mementum as the season waxes. It has pyramid lines, which is the big coat line this season. Lastly it has lining contrast, for the lining is black. For the rest, hand stitching edges the four flapped patch pockets, and the collar. Four self buttons close the front.
