Plans for the year's activities will be formulated and all members are requested to attend.

Student of the Week

By ANNE BISCHOFF

Stepping into the spotlight today we have that versatile 18-year-old Rex Owen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Owen, of Canton.

Rex is a senior at Canton High School this year where his name appears on the High School Honor Roll.

His subjects this year are English IV, History IV, Physics, and typing. It must be hard to stay on the honor roll with four difficult subjects like that, but Rex does it.

For the past four years, Rex has been a member of the Student Council. This year he is also a member of the Executive Council of the Student Council.

In his freshman, sophomore, and junior years he received the Best Citizen award, and is probably a candidate for this honor, this year.

In the Canton High senior superlatives he was selected as the most versatile boy in the senior class.

Rex has led his class for two consecutive years. Last year he was president of the junior class and this year he is president of the seniors.

As a member of the Calvary Baptist Church he is quite active.

For the past three years he has been a member of the Junior Civitan Club and also the Monogram Club.

His hobby is string music and he picks "Shotgun Boogie" as his favorite song—quite a combination.

He selects basketball as his favorite sport. He likes to watch it and he also likes to play.

Rex also served as Chief Marshal in his junior year.

His plans for next year, and I quote, are: "College if possible; army if necessary".

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Floyd left last week for a two weeks vacation at Key West and other Florida points.

Mrs. R. L. Coin is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Isenhour, in Charlotte.

Bride-Elect Is Honored By Beta Sigma Phi

A regular meeting of the Sigma Phi society was held Thursday in the form of a dinner at the home of Thelma Anne Jones, a member of the sorority who will be elected February.

The table was centered around arrangement of mixed appetizers, flanked by pink corsages were presented by Jones and her mother, Mrs. Jones, who was a special guest.

Miss Edna Summers during the business program was presented by Charles Edwards and Mrs. Gibson, Jr.

A Beta Sigma Phi pin was given to the bride-elect.

Officers Are Named For Hominy CDP

Officers for the Hominy Community Development Program have been elected as follows: Hershel Hipps, vice-president; Porter Broyles, treasurer; Robert Holland, reporter; Lloyd R. Jones.

Mrs. Hershel Hipps and Porter Broyles are members of the scrapbook committee.

Residents of the Hominy community meet on the fourth night of each month.
