Mrs. Wilson Clark Medford

Mrs. Medford is the former Miss Billie Faye Bramlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Vaughn Bramlett, Sr., of Canton. Her wedding took place in the West Canton Baptist Church, Sunday afternoon, January 28.

Miss Billie Faye Bramlett Weds Wilson C. Medford

Miss Billie Faye Bramlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Vaughn Bramlett, Sr., of Canton, became the bride of Wilson Clark Medford, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clark Medford of Waynesville, Sunday afternoon, January 28, at 3:00 o'clock in the West Canton Baptist Church.

The Rev. Gay Chambers, pastor of the Spring Hill Baptist Church of Canton, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Peggy McCracken, pianist. The traditional wedding marches were used, and "To A Wild Rose" was played during the ceremony. Miss Norma French Bramlett, sister of the bride, and Carl Painter, Jr., of Canton, sang "All The Things You Are" and "Always." Mr. Painter sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The altar was decorated with fern and white carnations and flanked by candelabra intertwined with ivy and floor baskets of white gladioli.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with nylon net yoke, and fitted bodice of alencon lace. The full circular skirt was covered with alencon lace and ended in a court train and her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls belonging to her maternal grandmother. She carried a white prayer book, topped with white orchids and satin streamers.

Mrs. Claude Frady was matron of honor. She wore a gown of mint green taffeta, with an off-the-shoulder neckline and a full circular skirt. Her headdress was a matching bonnet, and she carried a cascade bouquet of lemon yellow carnations, yellow snapdragons, and lilies-of-the-valley.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Cromer Crisp and Mrs. Floyd Fullbright, sisters of the bride, of Canton; Mrs. M. V. Bramlett, Jr., of Waynesville, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Mary Medford, of Waynesville, sister of the bridegroom; and Miss Frieda Hall of Canton. They wore gowns of mint green taffeta and net, with matching capes and half-circlet halos of net and lilies-of-the-valley. They carried cascade bouquets of lemon yellow carnations and lilies-of-the-valley.

Little Miss Anne Bramlett, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a gown of white dotted Swiss with matching bonnet, and carried a nosegay of lemon yellow carnations scattered with lilies-of-the-valley and tied with matching satin ribbons.

The flower girls, little Misses Mitzie Jean Hill and Carolyn Fullbright, wore similar gowns and carried white satin-covered baskets filled with rose petals.

Mr. Medford had as his best man, M. V. Bramlett, Jr., brother of the bride. The ushers were Noble Garrett, Jr., Joe Calhoun, Bill Cochran, Earl Gribble, Fred E. Martin, Jr., and Robert Hall of Waynesville; and Floyd Fullbright and Cromer Crisp of Canton.

The ring-bearer was Master John McCracken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll McCracken of Lake Junaluska.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the wedding party and immediate families. Those assisting in serving were: Mrs. D. C. Cole, Mrs. A. L. Bramlett, and Mrs. Thomas Best.

Mrs. Bramlett, mother of the bride, wore gray with navy blue accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore black with a corsage of red rosebuds.

After the reception the couple left by motor for the wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a pink wool jersey dress with black accessories and the orchids from her prayer book. The couple will be at home to their friends in the Kirkpatrick Apartments in Waynesville.

Mrs. Medford is a graduate of Canton High School and Cecil's Business College. She also attended Brevard College, and at present is employed in the office of the Champion Paper & Fibre Company in Canton.

Mr. Medford is a graduate of Waynesville High School. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the European Theatre. At present he is employed by Pet Dairy Products Company of Waynesville.

Out-of-county guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cole of Forest City; Mr. and Mrs. John Best, Jr., Mrs. Ralph Cartwright, and Mrs. Teague Williams of Asheville; Dr. and Mrs. A. L.

Beaverdam Club Meets With Mrs. C. E. Cole

The Beaverdam Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. E. Cole with Mrs. Mark Swain as co-hostess. Mrs. Ernest Jones presided and Mrs. Wiley Donaldson gave the devotional.

Project leader's reports were featured by an exhibit of home rendered lard, shown by Mrs. Paul Robinson, who suggested methods of keeping lard fresh throughout the year. Mrs. C. C. Willis, clothing leader, showed aprons and a sun-bonnet, made from the scrap bag, and a beautifully styled and constructed wool-rayon tailored garment made from a remnant at a cost of $2.50. Mrs. George Culbreth, arts and crafts leader, demonstrated a cover-all bib and crocheted cap for a child. Other reports were given by Mrs. Joe Cogburn on foods and nutrition, Mrs. Troy Davis on gardens, Mrs. Mark Swain on poultry, Mrs. Roy Robinson on home management and family life, and Mrs. George Frady on home beautification.

A committee composed of Mrs. George Culbreth, chairman, Mrs. Herbert Cody, and Mrs. Tom Hipps, was appointed to consider plans for the club's Achievement Day exhibit.

Miss Mary Cornwell discussed "Family Finances" and twenty-five club members answered roll call with a thrift hint.

A social hour followed the meeting.
