The Last Supper

AP Newsfeatures
Jesus said unto His disciples, Ye know that after two days is the feast of the Passover, and the Son of Man is betrayed to be crucified.
Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, Caiaphas, and consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.
Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, and said, What will ye give me, and I will deliver Him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. And from that time he sought opportunity to betray Him.
Now the first of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus saying, Where wilt thou that we prepared for Thee to eat the Passover?
He said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with My disciples.
The disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and when the even was come, He sat down with the twelve. And as they did eat, He said, He that dipeth his hand with Me in the dish, the same shall betray Me. The Son of Man goeth as it is written of Him; but woe unto the man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It had been good for that man if he had not been born.

Then Judas said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.
And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is My Body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; For this is My Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.
But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's Kingdom.

White Oak CDP Thanks Beaverdam

MRS. GEORGE BORING
Mountaineer Reporter

The report on the trip to Beaverdam Community Development Program, March 6th, and the reminiscing over the good time and the royal welcome extended to us by the people of that community, proved worth listening to. Those that couldn't go expressed regret that they hadn't made more of an effort to go, but at that there must have been around fifty that went. It is good to meet and know people who enjoy a good laugh and show a friendly and neighborly spirit. Chairman Jack Chapman surely proved a good sport by acting out his surprise part in the final skit. Incidentally the "Key to White Oak" presented to Chairman Chapman and the Beaverdam Community, was hand carved by Mrs. Monitee Gaylon. An invitation to visit with us sometime in the future went with the key.

Haywood Man In Group Opposing Tobacco Tax

Five representatives of the burley growers of Western Carolina have returned from Washington, D. C., where they testified before the Ways and Means Committee in opposition to the proposed Federal tax increase on cigarettes. The delegation was composed of W. O. Briggs, former vice president of the Yancey County Farm Bureau; Charles Clay, president of the Watauga County Farm Bureau; Alfred Weaver, assistant County Agent of Madison County; William Osborne, secretary and treasurer of the Haywood County Farm Bureau; and George Fathering, Farm Bureau field representative of Asheville.

Several items of business of importance to the community were discussed. Among them being the naming of farms, and the work day Wednesday. By the time this goes to press, we hope the Community House will have a new coat of paint, and the newly graded yard will be seeded with grass. Various committees also gave reports of their activities. Mrs. Boring urged the folks not to let their subscriptions to the Mountaineer expire, and to be sure and turn in any news to her.
It seemed good to have our new song books so that everyone could join in the group singing. The quartet sang "My Lord Keeps A Record," and "Springtime in Gloryland." Other features of the program were two quizzes, "Acting Proverbs" and "Questions and Nonsensical Answers."
Refreshments of sandwiches and hot coffee were served to all by the ladies. It was a very rainy night and the eats went mighty good.
The next meeting will be March 24th, and the program committee is working on an Easter program.
