Girl Scouts Will Start Cookie Sale This Week

The first sale of official Girl Scout Cookies in this community will get under way Friday afternoon when Girl Scouts and Brownies of the Hazelwood-Waynesville Girl Scout Council will launch a two weeks selling campaign.

The cookies will be sold from door to door and from booths at Belks, The Toggery, Ray's Store, The First National Bank, and The Court House. Each girl hopes to sell at least one carton of twelve boxes of cookies, since the profit will go to her troop.

Distribution headquarters are at Watkins Chevrolet Company.

The girls are being assisted by troop leaders and council members. Mrs. Rankin Ferguson is serving as general chairman of the sale with Mrs. Howard Hyatt as distribution chairman, Mrs. Jonathan Woody as finance chairman, and Mrs. Harry Bourne as publicity chairman.

Anne Bischoff Is Winner Of Essay Contest

Anne Bischoff won first place in the annual essay contest held Tuesday morning in the Waynesville Township High School auditorium, under the sponsorship of the Waynesville Woman's Club. She was awarded a World Peace Gold Medal.

Other contestants were Anne Rector, Joyce Carter, and Dorothy Caldwell.

The contest, which was open to all members of the senior class, was a feature of the annual High School World Peace Study and Speaking Program and all essays were written on the subject, "How Can We Help Build World Peace in The Atomic Age."

Papers were written by a group of senior English students and were sent to Western Carolina Teachers College where the four final contestants were selected.

Presentation of the medal to Miss Bischoff was made by Mrs. Raymond Lane of the Woman's Club. M. H. Bowles, superintendent of the school, presided during the program.
