will furnish special music. Claude Hill, Sr. has entered Duke Hospital, Durham, for an operation. Mr. and Mrs. John Trull have moved into their new home on the Balsam Road. Mrs. Frank Brown, school supervisor, spoke on "Readiness For School," at a meeting of the Saunook PTA, Thursday night. A

White Oak Work Postponed Until This Wednesday

MRS. GEORGE BORING Mountaineer Reporter The weatherman played havoc with our working last Wednesday at the Community House. Just can't pain and work when it is snowing and the wind blowing. However, there will be a working this next Wednesday, weather permitting, so let's have a good crowd. The workers will be fed by the women who will serve a covered dish luncheon at noon. Of course we have no control over the weather, but that being the first day of spring we are keeping our fingers crossed and hoping for a nice day.

Lawson Teague is back at his own home now and recuperating.

Floyd Teague is somewhat better after being confined to bed for several days. He was unable to attend the C.D.P. meeting last Saturday night.

Looks like at long last, the White Oak Softball teams will have a place to get in some practice this summer. Joe Davis has offered ground for a diamond.

Teague Williams is grooming one of his prize Angus heifers for show at some of the events this summer, and to use when pictures are taken of this community.

Brown Messer really has himself a project underway. With the assistance of a bulldozer, he is building a large pool approximately 150' x 500' and 40' deep. When completed this will be stocked with fish, and will also be used as a swimming pool. Natural springs will supply the water.

Albert Hunter's home really looks nice since the house has been painted, the yard landscaped, and the drive to the house widened and repaired.

Will those folks that have new mailboxes, please put them up?

Harold Hunter, who is working in Detroit, Mich., is home for a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hunter.

Colorado chose the white and lavender columbine as its state flower in 1899 because—according to local authorities—the blue represents western skies; the white, snowy mountain ranges, and gold, the mineral which first attracted settlers in 1838.

A business meeting of the Saunook Parent-Teacher Association will be held Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Pettigree, president, urges all members to attend.

Will Be 105 June 10

Arnold Murray is the last surviving Confederate veteran in the Carolinas. He will be 105 years old June 10. The lone veteran lives with his son, Lee Murray, on a farm near Orangeburg, S. C. He was in training near Charleston when the Civil War ended and never took part in any shooting. North Carolina's last Confederate veteran, Sam Bennett, 100 years old, died March 8 at his Relief home in Yancey County.

Fines Creek To Select Family Of The Week

MRS. SAM FERGUSON Mountaineer Reporter Tom Brummitt, chairman of Fines Creek Community Development Program, has called a meeting of all the citizens on Tuesday night, March 20. Plans will be made for selecting a Family-of-the-Week for the Mountaineer's pictorial section.

Junior 4-H basketball boys play in the finals Monday, March 19, after winning their two preliminary rounds last week. Fines Creek people are very proud of their various ball teams.

Hominy WSCS Holds Joint Study

MRS. LLOYD R. JONES Mountaineer Reporter The W.S.C.S. of Rockwood Charge held a joint study course Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George Culbreth. Both Rockwood and Plains Church were represented. Mrs. I. M. Culbreth discussed G. Bromley Oxnam's book, "The Christian Vocation". Mrs. Goble McCracken closed the study by prayer. A covered dish lunch was served.

Mrs. John Gibson is improving at her home. She has been ill with bronchial pneumonia. Bobby Scott, son of Rev. and Mrs. I. W. Scott, left last week to join the Navy. Samuel Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roe Mann, will soon leave for Army service. Pfc. John H. Burnette, better known as "Buck," is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hub Burnette. Pvt. Burnette has completed his boot training at Parris Island, and will be stationed at Camp Pendleton, California. Mr. and Mrs. Pardee have painted the interior of their house, and have added a stove and a hot water heater to the kitchen. Mr. and Mrs. Vick sold their tenant house to Mrs. Ernest Reynolds of Combe County. The Reynolds family will shortly move to the new house. The Hominy Community will hold a "Y" day night at the "Y" on Monday night, March 27. Shirley Jones was in town for Hominy with 18 points.
