

New Hampshire red pullets owned by Joe... This flock of pullets will soon be laying eggs...

edge of the barn at the right is the same building as shown in picture No. 3, on page one. No. 3—The mail boxes of Francis Cove have uniform name plates, as do the roads in the area. No. 4—The private pool at the summer home of

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hugh Massie—the home and lawn is in the background. This pond, fed by a steady stream of spring water, is about 15 feet deep. No. 5—Mrs. Rhoda Rickman is shown in her modern all-electric kitchen. She is standing by her range, with water heater in the corner, a washing machine, and her sink. The electric refrigerator is right back of Mrs. Rickman, but is not shown here. No. 6—Part of the herd of 50 head of cattle owned by Robert McCracken in Pigeon Gap. The cut in the hill above the cattle is where the new survey runs for the new road through Pigeon Gap. This point is not far from where picture No. 4 on page one was made.

Cut Rate Parking Tickets

ULCERS ARE MORE LIKELY TO AFFECT TENSE, ANXIOUS, GO-GETTER PERSONS WITH LOTS OF DRIVE, WHETHER EXECUTIVE, PROMOTER, SALESMAN, BUS DRIVER OR TAXI DRIVER.

CAUSE OF ULCERS IS UNKNOWN, BUT TOO MUCH STOMACH ACIDS IS PARTLY RESPONSIBLE. NERVES AND TENSENESS APPARENTLY STIMULATE OUTPUT OF STOMACH ACIDS.

OPERATION CUTTING VAGUS NERVE LEADING TO STOMACH, OFTEN BRINGS HEALING OF ULCERS. VAGUS IS A NERVE PATHWAY TO ABDOMINAL ORGANS AND IS INVOLVED IN ACID SECRETIONS.

TREATMENTS INCLUDE ANTI-ACID PILLS, A DRUG THAT BLOCKS THE VAGUS NERVE LEADING TO THE STOMACH, BLAND DIETS, CERTAIN HORMONES ALSO SHOW PROMISE IN ANIMAL TESTS.

Marvin K. Smathers has been appointed chairman of the Office of Public Safety for the Canton area.

Mr. Smathers received notice from Washington that he has been named local chairman and he plans to set up a local board as soon as the necessary instructions have been furnished him from the national board.

Mr. Smathers stated that when he has received complete information about the set-up here, he would call the Merchants Division and others, advised by the OPS, to a public conference and to plan for the local organization.

GREENVILLE, Pa. (AP) — This little western Pennsylvania town has a police clerk for the first time. The clerk is Mrs. Etta Boudreau whose first responsibility will be to install a new system for handling parking tickets.

Motorists will be required to pay only 10 cents for overtime parking if they report to Mrs. Boudreau within 30 minutes after the tickets have been issued. If they're later than that she'll fine them $1.

Table Tool History

NEW YORK — (AP) — Jean Sulpice, who probably was a Frenchman, had this to say about table manners in 1480:

"It is wrong to grab your food with both hands at once; meat should be taken with three fingers, and too much should not be put in the mouth at the same time."

The quotation comes from a pamphlet prepared by Dan S. Deffenbacher, director of the Walker Art Center, for use with an exhibition showing the evolution of the knife, fork and spoon. The display is open here at the American Museum of Natural History.

Early forks are traced to the Greeks and Romans, and the three-tined fork to a 17th century Italian
