Miss Hyatt Is Engaged To F. R. Richardson

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Hyatt of Waynesville announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty Jean Hyatt, to Frank Raymond Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart Richardson, of Lawrenceville, N. J.

A June wedding is planned. The bride-elect was graduated from Waynesville High School and Peace Junior College, Raleigh, where she was a member of Sigma Phi Kappa Sorority. Following graduation from the latter, she served as secretary to Dr. William C. Pressley, president of the college and is now employed as secretary to the Lakeside Apartment Colony in St. Petersburg, Fla. She will return home in May.

Mr. Richardson, a member of the senior class of North Carolina State College, will receive a B.S. degree in June. He is a graduate of Princeton High School, Princeton, N. J., and attended Rutgers University prior to serving with the Medical Corps of the U. S. Navy during World War II. He is a member of the Leopold Wildlife Society at State.

Training School Planned For HDC Leaders

A training school for clothing leaders of Haywood County Home Demonstration Clubs will be held Monday, April 9, at 2 p. m. in the Home Demonstration Kitchen in Waynesville.

Miss Julia McIver, clothing specialist from State College, will conduct the course.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fañcher of Hazelwood, will leave today for Augusta, Georgia to attend the Masters' Golf Tournament. From there they will go to Savannah to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Crane, and their granddaughter, Patsy. They will also make a short visit to Florida, stopping in Deland and Sebring, before returning home about April 17.
