

Crabtree CDP Has Record Attendance; Hyder Mountain Hosts

Crabtree Community more than reached its fifty-members-present goal at its meeting Monday night. Sixty-five persons attended the session. The meeting was held at the Hyder Mountain Church, and Hyder Mountain led the various sections with twenty in attendance. The center section, led by Mrs. Hugh Noland, came close with eighteen present.

Hyder Mountain's co-chairman, James Kirkpatrick, presided over the meeting. Guest speaker was the Rev. Malcolm Williamson of the Waynesville Presbyterian Church. He was introduced by the Rev. C. O. Newell, who also gave the devotional. The group sang several hymns, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Wilson Kirkpatrick.

Following the program, refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Woodard.

The next Crabtree Community meeting will be held at the Crabtree-Iron Duff school on May 14 at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Hugh Noland's section will be in charge of the program.

Crabtree is proud of its ranking on the Red Cross Blood Donor Recruitment day in Waynesville Saturday. Crabtree furnished the greatest number of donors in the Waynesville district, and the third largest in the county.

Clyde Man Gets Facial Cuts As Car Hits Truck

Gerald Best, 24, was slightly injured when his car collided with a gravel truck near Lake Junaluska early Tuesday morning. Patrolman H. Dayton investigated, and said Best applied his brakes, and the left front brake grabbed too quickly, causing him to hit the truck. The truck, loaded with gravel, was being driven by John Morgan, 30, of Route 3, Canton. The vehicle was a state highway truck.

Best is of Clyde, Route 1, and received a laceration of the forehead, but was discharged after treatment.

Both car and truck suffered damages.

Cruso PTA Plans For May Events

MRS. CHARLES LAYMAN
Mountaineer Reporter

At the regular April meeting of the Cruso PTA on Tuesday night, a number of plans were made for May events. Election of officers is to take place at the regular May meeting; and a minstrel show is planned for sometime during the month. A guest speaker will discuss "What the PTA Really Means to Our School."

Don Reece was appointed to secure the speaker, and a nominating committee for the elections was named. Its members are J.B. Shart, Mrs. Wiggins and Mrs. Marie Taylor.

Mrs. Marshall Beddingfield spoke on "Where Children Come First," and Mrs. Clifton Deaver gave the devotional. Mrs. Taylor's room won the attendance banner. Forty members were present at the meeting.

Home improvements—indoor and out—are in progress in Cruso. Ferdie Greene has had a bulldozer level his yard and make it larger. Eldon Shufford has also had a bulldozer in action.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Henson have had new cabinets built in their kitchen. They have new living room furniture, and have built in book shelves with glass doors. They have also had their floors completely refinished.

Mrs. Bruce Cook from Robinsville has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Marshall Beddingfield.

Mrs. Oder Burnette has just visited her daughter, Mrs. Ira Wiggins, at Enka.

Mr. and Mrs. Florian Henson announce the birth of a son.
