TRACKS ON THE RIVER

There was a day when the railroad ended at the river. Cars were unloaded, freight was transferred to the river boats. Then across stream, cars were reloaded and the railroad continued its trek to the next river.

But man discovered how to lay tracks on the river. With the coming of the train barge, freight stayed on the rails and was guided across the river.

In everyday life there are countless obstacles which seem to defy human ingenuity. A man is tempted to abandon the "tracks" he has followed, believing he cannot go on.

But usually the solution to these problems is just as simple as "laying tracks on the river." Stay on the rails and be guided across.

The Church will help you live by Christian principles. And in the face of a crisis, be true to those principles and depend on the guidance of God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in building the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: (1) For his own sake; (2) For his children's sake; (3) For the sake of his community and nation; (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sunday School Lesson

THE PERIOD OF MOSES

Scripture—Exodus 14-15; Deuteronomy 5-6; Psalm 136.

NEWMAN CAMPBELL
TODAY'S lesson jumps from Moses to the wonder why the Is-were in Egypt, if they were with that story.
The tale of Joseph sold by his brothers, of his visiting him in that land of famine in the homeland, the Hebrews won honor in the land, becoming powerful that, after Joseph's they gradually were made to the Egyptians. How was chosen by God to bring out from bondage to a land.
The plagues with which Egyptians were harassed until Moses agreed to let them go; to go on with the lesson.
Moses told Moses to lead his to the shore of the Red Sea. There they camped there for three days. In the the Pharaoh and many regretted that they had let slaves escape, in spite of that the last plague had on the lives of their first-born. The angel of death struck the homes of the Israelites so that none of their children slaughtered. This was the Passover, as the angel over the Hebrew homes.

MEMORY VERSE

"Thou shalt love Jehovah thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might."—Deuteronomy 6:5.

Pharaoh heard the complaint:
"Have we done this, that we go on with serving us?" He ordered a great army to bring them back.
The Israelites saw the Egyptian army coming toward them and were sore afraid. They complained bitterly to Moses, saying, "It is better for us to serve Egyptians than we should die in the wilderness." Moses said: "Fear ye not, stand firm, for ye shall see the salvation of the Lord, which He will show to you for the Egyptians ye have today, ye shall see them again."
The Israelites camped on the east side of a pillar of cloud that went in front of them, stood before them and shielded them from the enemy. All night a east wind blew and they were undisturbed. In the morning Pharaoh stretched out his hand over the sea, and the Lord caused the sea to go back and made the sea bed, and the waters were dried up, and the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea dry ground; and the waters shall wall unto them on their right, and on their left."
The Egyptians pursued them unto the sea where the waters had passed safely, but the Lord overthrew them, and the Lord scattered the Egyptians before them, and they were driven into the sea. The Lord said to Moses: "The Lord hath delivered thee from the hand of all thy enemies. The Lord hath done for thee as He hath promised thee, and thou shalt know that the Lord is God." Moses and the children of Israel
sang this song unto the Lord:
"The Lord is our God, the Lord is one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is
one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is one."
Moses and the children of Israel
sang this song unto the Lord:
"The Lord is our God, the Lord
is one. The Lord is our God,
the Lord is one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is
one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is one. The Lord is our
God, the Lord is one. The Lord
is our God, the Lord is one."
Moses and the children of Israel
sang this song unto the Lord:
"The Lord is our God, the Lord
is one. The Lord is our God,
the Lord is one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is
one. The Lord is our God, the Lord is one. The Lord is our
God, the Lord is one. The Lord
is our God, the Lord is one."
