CHURCHILL BOOMED IN CRISIS

WITH THE RESIGNATION of Britain's youngest Cabinet member, Harold Wilson, 35, as President of the Board of Trade, the crisis in England's Labor government becomes more acute. He quit his post shortly after leftist leader Aneurin Bevan made his sensational exit. Unconfirmed rumors indicate that other resignations will follow and that Prime Minister Clement Attlee's government may fall. This would mean a new general election. A boom to bring back Winston Churchill (right) has already been launched by the Conservative Party. (International)

Navy Topper

Gabardine and taffeta.

By VERA WINSTON

WHILE the topper is holding its own it does have quite a bit of competition from the full length coat. But then that was only to be expected with the carry-over of the pyramid silhouette. Geared for spring is this coat of navy gabardine lined in navy taffeta. It pursues a slanting closing line, buttoned all the way down. When worn open the slanted section is turned back to disclose the taffeta lining. Push-up sleeves with cuffed wrists are other details.
