

Mountaineers Defeat Asheville By 6 to 4

Kuykendal's Homer Puts Waynesville Tops Again

Waynesville High's never-say-die baseballers staged a strong comeback Friday afternoon at Mountaineer Stadium and beat Asheville High School, 6-4, in one of the most thrilling games ever seen in this part of the state.

The game was a real storybook finish with Jimmy Kuykendal providing the winning punch by hitting a grand slammer in the 11th inning, Roger Calvin, Maroon Devil lefty, who had pitched a superb game, really blew sky high in that inning.

With Waynesville behind 2-4 Ralph Jenkins started the big inning by walking. Bobby Kuykendal lined to left for the first out, Jenkins holding first. Jenkins strayed too far off on the next pitch to J. C. DeWeese, pinch-hitting for Carol Swanger, and was picked off by Dietz. That made two Mountaineers out. DeWeese worked Calvin for the first of the left-hander's three costly walks. Terry Swanger and Bill Sutton followed suit, loading the sacks. Jimmy Kuykendal had a count of one and one on him, then promptly belted the next pitch into the far right field. He scored easily after his teammates.

Though yielding eight safeties, Ralph Jenkins, Mountaineer curve ball, went all the way, and with some excellent support pitched a fine game.

The game was hit and tuck at the start, with Asheville tallying single runs in the first and third. Waynesville tied things up in their half of the fourth when they marked two tallies on a hit batsman, C. Swanger's sacrifice bunt. Terry Swanger's double, and Jimmy Kuykendal's single.

The game went into extra innings and in the tenth Asheville put two men on, but Jenkins tightened down and held them scoreless. Roger Calvin, Asheville's fine lefty, got the Mountaineers out in their half of the tenth.

The Maroon Devils tore loose in their half of the eleventh. Dietz led off with a ringing single, stole second and scored on Landers' single. Sorrell, who had not had a hit, followed with the third single of the stanza, scoring Landers. The Maroons loomed a big two runs ahead, especially big after the Mountaineers had made two outs in the eleventh. Then came the three straight free tickets and Jimmy Kuykendal's game-winning homer.

The Mountaineers played fine defensive ball, committing only two errors in the long battle. These did no damage, though. The outfield of T. Swanger, and Bobby and Jimmy Kuykendal came through for Jenkins in fine style by pulling in would-be hits from the bats of the power-hitting Maroons. Dietz, the fine backstop, lined out twice to left and center. He and Calvin led the Asheville nine at bat, with 2 for 4 and 2 for 2 respectively.

The Mountaineer infield choked off several Asheville rallies and showed up well. Perk Fugate caught a whale of a game, sparking the team on defense. He did not get a hit, but handled the ball well and drew one walk.

The game was the longest, and easily the best, played this year. The Waynesville squad seemed never to give up, though they were playing against some strong competition. Asheville is by far the most powerful team the Mountaineers have faced this year.

The two teams hook up again next Friday afternoon at Asheville.

Protecting their unbeaten record for the 1951 baseball season will leave Waynesville's Mountaineers no time for a deep breath this week. With one non-conference and three conference games on the ticket, Coach Teague's baseballers figure to need all their hurrying and slugging ability.

Today's home game with Ben Lippen School for Boys could be a mound duel between Carl Chastain and Jimmy Kuykendal. Chastain's pitching has been much in evidence as the Little Deacons stayed on the credit side of the ledger; and Kuykendal will be out to add another to his record of three straight wins, with no losses.

Men Lippen brought home the bacon in the form of the Blue Ridge Conference trophy in 1950; and the Mountaineers' next foe, Christ School, showed the same knack of bagging the groceries in 1949. The Mountaineers take to the road Tuesday to meet the Greenies at Arden, Christ School, coached by Dick Fayssoux, always comes up with a fine baseball squad, and this year's is no exception. Tudor Hill is the Greenies' pitching genius.

On Thursday afternoon, Brevard's Blue Devils will entertain the Mountaineers in what will definitely not be a tea party. This is the second meeting of the season between the two teams, Waynesville having trounced Brevard at Waynesville 10-0 on Jimmy Kuykendal's one-hitter three weeks ago.

The Blue aggregation has improved considerably since the drubbing given them by the Mountaineers. Peterson, ace of the Brevard mound staff, twirled a four-hitter at Tryon, after stopping Cantor High on three hits. The Brevardites have some good hitters in Bob Reid, clever backstop; Graham Grant, fleet outfielder; and Carl Compton, alert third baseman.

Coach Teague, a Brevard product himself, wants this game in the win column for his Mountaineers. Last year his team dropped two Brevard games, and he would like to square matters before his homefolks.

Ralph Jenkins will toe the mound for Waynesville, and Perk Fugate will receive.

Friday's return bout with Asheville High should see both teams ready for some hot action.

Voluntary Price For Antique

DENVER — (AP) — Carl Hayes, Denver grocery manager, who has been collecting ancient guns for nine years, says he found one of his prize firearms in a church. The minister told him to go ahead and take the gun and drop into the collection plate whatever he thought it was worth.

Jerseys Presented To Beaverdam Boys' Team; Girls' Coach Elected

MRS. GEORGE WORLEY Mountaineer Reporter

Plans for Beaverdam's ball team are progressing rapidly. The community wishes to thank the persons who donated jerseys for members of the boys' team. The patrons are Dr. J. L. Reeves, James Wells, and Mr. Palmer. Caps have been bought from the proceeds of a variety show given some time ago.

A committee composed of Mrs. Stella Best, Ed Bell, Bill Driver, T. C. Allen, and Miss Eva Jane Worley has been elected to procure jerseys for the girls. Mrs. Best was elected coach for the girls at the last meeting.

Persons who are interested in the group hospitalization insurance plan for rural citizens are urged to contact Miss Georgie Worley immediately. Residents have only a few days more to take advantage of the initial solicitation for the program.

All members are urged to be present at the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Beaverdam Methodist Church. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Bill Boone on Wednesday, May 9, at 7:30 p.m.

The women of the society met last Thursday at the church for a study course taught by Mrs. George Culbreth of the Rockwood Charge. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

All persons interested in the cemetery at the Beaverdam Methodist Church are asked to meet there on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. All the women who can are asked to bring lunch for the workers.

The Service Club met with Mrs. Vonno Sorrells last Friday evening with over a dozen members present. Mrs. D. J. Kerr, grandmother of Mrs. Dorothy Driver, was a visitor.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Gracie Worley, and reports from the various committees were given.

A gift was presented to the mother of the club, "Aunt" Leila Robinson, who was unable to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Mamie West and Mrs. Kerr won a quiz program on famous women. Program leader was Mrs. Marion Higgs.

During the social hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Winnie Worley and Miss Eva Jane Worley in serving refreshments.

The North Canton Baptist Church is observing Family Week May 7-13. On Sunday, May 13, members will recognize ages and sizes of families. Members asked to make an effort to bring every member of every family.

The congregation is also asked to make a point of being at the mid-week prayer service on Wednesday.

Shower And Birthday Party Given At S. Clyde

MRS. MAUDE OSBORNE Mountaineer Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chambers were honored at a household shower last Thursday evening at their home in South Clyde. Mrs. C. E. Chambers and Mrs. Grover Francis were hostesses.

Guests included Mrs. Lloyd Justice, Mrs. Lou Justice, Mrs. Johnnie Sellers, Mrs. Onlee Smith, Mrs. Troy Rhinehart, Miss Dorothy Smith, Miss Jean Chambers, Mrs. Frank Stamey, Mrs. Maude Osborne, Miss Katherine Osborne, Mrs. Ed Gregory, Mrs. Lizzie Smith and Mrs. James King.

Games were played and refreshments were served.

Two birthdays falling on April 28 were the occasion of a party given by Mrs. Billy Stamey. Her daughter, Miss Shirley Mae Stamey, celebrated her 14th birthday, and Miss Maxine O'Dear her 18th.

Attending the party were Miss Evelyn Jenkins, Miss Mary Sutton, Miss Mary Sue Gance, Miss Della O'Dear, Miss Mary Lou Case, Roy and Troy Jenkins, and Bobby and Edward Case. A visitor from Atlanta, Ga., Miss Nancy Stamey, was also present.

Refreshments were served Friday at 7 o'clock.

Dr. J. L. Reeves, who owns the Walnut Knoll farm and the Henderson mountain farm, has a remarkable way of transferring his cows and their small calves from one farm to the other. The calves are placed in a large truck and the cows follow along behind. It has been remarked that he has some of the fattest cattle ever put on pasture at this time of year in this community.

If you don't believe there's lots of money in raising beef cattle, ask Vonno Sorrells, who sold part of his the other day.

Preschool, Typhoid Clinic In Final Week

Changes have been made in the Health Department preschool and typhoid clinic for the final week. On May 9, an all-day clinic preschool and typhoid immunizations will be held at Mt. Sterling only.

On Friday, May 11, there will give typhoid immunization at St. John's school, Waynesville, 9 a. m.

The last regularly scheduled clinic will be held at the Presbyterian church on Thursday, May 17, and typhoid immunizations given beginning at 9 a. m.

A general immunization clinic will be held at the Health Office, Court House every Friday afternoon from 2 to 4:30 p. m. who miss the preschool visits, or adults who want immunizations of any type, may take this regular clinic.

Truck Driver In Wild Run, Crosses Red Lights, Feels

Finding himself in the rejected suitor, a Waynesville driver tried to "drown" his troubles in a 17-hour trip to the highway.

After crashing two miles from the town, the driver ignored the siren from the Chief Ossi Sutton of Hazelwood, crashed the truck twice, crashed the fence, and into a parked car.

Chief Sutton said he is traveling about 75 miles through congested traffic. The driver faces a charge of while under the influence of toxicants before Mayor Oyster, in Hazelwood. This afternoon the playing of piano.

The South Clyde 4-H Club with Mary Sue and William on April 27. In the absence of club's leader, Mrs. Lay, the president, Ernestine, took charge of the meeting. Program were Aza Lea Fawcett and Joyce Fowler.

The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Fawcett.
