Cruso PTA Elects Officers; Speed Sign Proposed

MRS. CHARLES LAYMAN Mountaineer Reporter

Officers were elected at a meeting of the Cruso, P. T. A. on Tuesday night. New president is Mrs. Clifton Deaver, who has been serving as treasurer. Mrs. M. Beddingfield was elected vice president. Mrs. Gladys Sharp, acting secretary, was formally named secretary, and Mrs. Wiggins replaced Mrs. Deaver as treasurer.

A "Speed Zone" sign for the road was suggested by Mrs. Himes, first grade teacher.

Mrs. Abbott's second grade room won the attendance banner.

The devotionals were given by Mrs. Beddingfield, and Mrs. Deaver presented the treasurer's yearly report.

Plans for the coming year at the East Fork Baptist church were set up at a recent meeting. The Rev. O. B. Burnett, pastor, was re-elected for another term, with a salary increase.

Warm Welcome

STERLING, Colo. — (AP) — Albert Bangs got a warm introduction to his job as a vocational agricultural instructor at Sterling High School. In his first day, Bangs stung his hair in helping students put out a gasoline fire in a school shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther West have received a telegram notifying them that their son, Junior, has been wounded in Korea.

Mrs. Nina Mae Clark has returned to her home from the Haywood County Hospital.

Mrs. Ella Pless is making some interior improvements in her home.

Mrs. Higdon of Jackson County New HDC Dist. Pres.

Mrs. D. C. Higdon of Jackson County was elected president of District 2, Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs at the annual meeting Tuesday in the First Methodist Church here.

Other district officers are Mrs. L. B. Cooper of Swain County, 1st vice president; Mrs. L. J. Cannon of Haywood, second vice president; Mrs. J. R. Ray of Macon, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Hiram McCracken of Haywood, historian. Installation of the officers was conducted by Mrs. Carl Stagle of Macon County, first president of District 1.

Mrs. Higdon, who served as vice-chairman last year, presided during the day-long session. Around 375 club members from Jackson, Swain, Macon, and Haywood Counties attended.

Mrs. Carl Ratelle of the Waynesville Homemakers Club made the address of welcome and Mrs. C. O. Newell of the Crabtree-Iron Duff Club, conducted the opening devotionals.

Charlie Francis, chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Haywood County, and Mrs. Noah Swafford, president of the Western District of the Federation of Women's Clubs, extended greetings and special guests were introduced by Mrs. Paul Hyatt, president of the Haywood County Council.

Mrs. Tom Moxley of Laurel Springs, N. C., delegate to the International Convention of Associated Country Women of the World, was the principal speaker and was introduced by Miss Nell Kennett, Western District Home Agent.

Mrs. Moxley told the highlights of her trip to Denmark and showed slides of the country.

The afternoon session was devoted to inspection of handicraft exhibits from the four counties and reports of committees. County achievements reports were made in the form of a skit, "Hill All Come Out in the Wash," with Mrs. Ralph Bradley of Macon County as narrator. Others taking part were Mrs. Paul Hyatt of Haywood, Mrs. Frank H. Brown of Jackson, Mrs. Harold Cabe of Macon, and Mrs. Fairie Moore of Swain.

Soloists on the program were Mrs. John H. Kirkpatrick, Jr., of the Crabtree-Hyder Mountain Club and Hugh K. Terrell, Jr., of Bethel High School. The latter was accompanied by Grace Erwin, also of Bethel High School. Mrs. R. J. C. Muench of the Beaverdam Club presented a program of organ melodies during the coffee hour following registration.

Mrs. J. S. Gray of Macon County gave a report on the National Meeting held in Biloxi, Miss.

The gavel for the most members traveling the greatest distance to the meeting was awarded to Swain County.

Luncheon was served at noon by the women of the Methodist Church.

Library Notes

MARGARET JOHNSTON COUNTY LIBRARIAN

Notable Books of 1950

Appleton, LeRoy H. Indian Art of the Americas.

A notable compilation of the Indian arts which have an important place in art history.

Boswell, James London Journal. This major literary discovery is outstanding for its portrayal of the personal life of a man who has influenced English letters since his own times, and for its description of the life and customs of his day.

Bowen, Catherine D. John Adams and the American Revolution. A story of a great man against a background of a crucial time in our history. Gives the reader an awareness of "our precious heritage of freedom".

Christensen, Erwin O. Index of American Design. The most complete record of folk arts and early crafts of America, an important part of American cultural heritage.

Churchill, Winston S. Grand Alliance; Hinge of Fate. Personal memoirs of England's great war Prime Minister, which contribute to an understanding of World War II.

Chute, Marchette G. Shakespeare of London. A simple and eloquent exposition of life in Shakespeare's London which fosters an appreciation of the literature of the period and an understanding of part of our social heritage.

Douglas, William O. Of Men and Mountains. Through his love of the mountains the author shows the effect of nature in the development of man's philosophy and character.

Gebler, Ernest Plymouth Adventure. A readable novel which presents a realistic and factual picture of the Pilgrim Fathers. Restores the mood of the times and the spirit of the American heritage.

Hershey, John R. The Wall. A novel having those qualities of timelessness and universality which distinguish the genuine work of art. Presents the human spirit triumphant in the face of physical destruction — a theme much needed in our troubled world.

Heverdahl, Thor Kon-Tiki. A fascinating adventure story of great sacrifice on the high seas to prove a scientific theory.

Hight, Gilbert Art of Teaching. Since we are all constantly teaching or being taught, this is a stimulating book for thinking laymen as well as for teachers.

Johnson, Gerald W. Incredible Tale. Presents with penetrating insight the men and events of the last half century. Aids the average American in interpreting the effect of past history on the present and future.

Perkins, Maxwell E. Editor to Author. Shows the influence of an able editor in developing authors and creating books that have helped shape the characters of our time.

Schulberg, Budd W. The Disenchanted. A vivid picture of the 1920's presenting realistically a gifted novelist who, both as a person and as a writer, was a symbol of his era.

Sharp, Louise H. Peabody Sisters of Salem. Biography of three sisters prominent in the fields of education and literature in 19th century New England. Recreates the life of the times and the social movements which have had a profound influence on American culture.

Welfare Department To Present Radio Program Friday

The second of a series of radio programs on the work of the Welfare Department will be presented this Friday evening at 7:30 over Station WHCC. "Old Age Assistance" will be discussed by Mrs. Sam Queen, superintendent of the department; and "Aid to Dependent Children" will be the topic of Mrs. Clara F. Rippelee, a staff member.

Light Diet

ARCADIA, Calif. — (AP) — A small night light bulb looked better than it tasted to 26-month-old Kenneth Gronenthal.

His parents said he pulled the bulb from a socket and popped it into his mouth. It exploded when he bit it.

Kenneth was pronounced O. K. at an emergency hospital where they plucked the fragments from his mouth and throat—but he went on a special diet for a few days.
