

CLUBS

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

ACTIVITIES

Office Phone 700 - MRS. BEN SLOAN, Editor - Home Phone 462-J

Sigma Phi Annual Dinner

The annual Mother's Day dinner by members of the Sigma Phi Sorority in honor of their mothers, took place at The Mountain Club on Friday evening.

After the opening, president Mrs. Corpening, president of the group presided and the mothers. Response was made by Mrs. McElroy.

Entertainment included a "Lullaby," sung by Mrs. Klapp and a vocal solo, "There," by Mrs. Harry Klapp and Mrs. Klapp.

A memorial service was held for Mrs. Virgil Smith, who was decorated for her work with arrangements of flowers and yellow and white.

Forty sorority members attended the dinner. Mrs. Victor V. Kadane and children are in Waynesville for a few weeks' visit. They are making their home in Springs, Colo.

FREE! FUMOL WITH PROTECTION... DOVER CLEANING SERVICE

Mrs. Phillips Is Honored At Party - Shower

Mrs. Raymond Phillips, the former Miss Patricia Harris, was honored at a party and miscellaneous shower Friday night in the home of Mrs. Roy Floyd at Lake Junaluska.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Gene Yarborough and Mrs. William McRae, Jr.

The bridal motif was observed in the appointments and the dining table was centered with an arrangement of white flowers and white candles.

The guests, in addition to the honoree, were Mrs. A. V. Phillips, Mrs. James Phillips, Mrs. Ben Phillips, Mrs. H. N. Phillips, Miss Lillian Phillips, Miss Katherine Phillips, Mrs. Ben Sutton, Mrs. Boone Davis, Mrs. Lawrence Underwood, Mrs. Roy Phillips, Miss Judy Goodin, Mrs. Hugh James, Mrs. Herman Francis, Mrs. Pearl Owen, Mrs. Hubert Hoglan.

Mrs. George Mehaffey, Mrs. E. A. McElroy, Mrs. Alma Head, Mrs. Virgil Sizemore, Mrs. Robert Shook, Miss Kate Phillips, Mrs. Raymond Blanton, Mrs. John Ruff, Mrs. Carl Mundy, Mrs. Hugh Leach, Miss Louise Leach, Mrs. W. M. Robbins, Mrs. Roland Hill.

Mrs. C. J. Davis, Mrs. Anne S. Paschall, Mrs. H. G. Allen, Mrs. Dick Moody, Mrs. C. M. Moody, Mrs. Leland Garnett, Mrs. Ray Hightower, Mrs. Hardin Franklin, Mrs. Grady Burgess, Mrs. Mabel Brown Abel, Mrs. Carl Cunningham, Mrs. Clayton Howell, Miss Fannie Howell, Miss Clair Howell, and Mrs. Channing Burgess.

Mrs. Lawrence W. Mathis

Mrs. Mathis is the former Miss Dallas Holland. Her wedding was solemnized in the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at five o'clock. (Photo by Lyle Henderson)

Dallas Holland Is Bride Of Lawrence W. Mathis

Miss Dallas Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Holland of Hazelwood, became the bride of Lawrence W. Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Mathis of Rutherfordton, in a candlelight service Sunday afternoon at five o'clock in the First Baptist Church here.

The Rev. B. E. Wall, pastor, performed the ceremony. The altar was banked with greenery and the vows were spoken before an arch entwined with ivy and flanked with floor standards of white gladioli and calla lilies.

Seven-branched candelabra holding white candles were also used. A program of music was presented by Miss Florrie Patrick, organist, and Charles Isley, soloist. Prior to the ceremony Mr. Isley sang, "I Love You Truly," and as a benediction sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle-length gown of Chantilly lace and marquisette over white satin. Her veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a tara of white satin trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Charles Rhinehart of Maggie, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a turquoise ankle length dress of Chantilly lace and marquisette with a heart-shaped headdress of matching marquisette and flowers. She carried a garden bouquet in pastel shades.

Miss Rebecca Smith of Asheville was maid of honor. Her dress was of orchid Chantilly lace and marquisette, identical in design to that of the matron of honor and she also wore a heart-shaped headdress and carried a garden bouquet.

Little Miss Patricia Holland, niece of the bride, carried the ring on a white satin pillow. Her dress was of yellow marquisette.

Grady Mathis, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Johnny Caldwell of Bryson City was an usher.

The bride's mother wore a street length dress of wood violet silk with white accessories and a lavender orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue dress with navy accessories and a lavender orchid corsage.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents. Guests

Bride-Elect Is Honored At Surprise Shower

Miss Patricia McElroy, bride-elect of J. B. Ledford, was given a surprise shower at her home on the Dellwood Road Friday afternoon, with Mrs. John B. Platt and Mrs. Bennie Morrow as hostesses.

Refreshments were served and the honor guest was presented miscellaneous gifts.

Around thirty guests were included in the affair.

Miss McElroy Announces Wedding Plans

Miss Patricia McElroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett A. McElroy, has announced the plans for her marriage to J. B. Ledford.

The ceremony will take place in the post chapel at Fort Benning, Georgia, Friday, May 18, at 7 p. m.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father and will be attended by her sister, Mrs. B. J. Morrow, as matron of honor.

Bruce Stamey will serve as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony the parents of the bride will entertain with a reception in the Officers Club at Ft. Benning.

Miss Cornwell Gives Program At Iron Duff Club

A demonstration on the use of sewing machine attachments was given by Miss Mary Cornwell at the May meeting of the Iron Duff Home Demonstration Club Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. V. R. Davis.

Mrs. J. R. Caldwell presided during the business session and reports were heard on the district meeting and the cake and fish demonstrations.

Mrs. T. C. Davis, foods and nutrition leader, and Mrs. Frank Davis, home management leader, gave reports.

Mrs. French Davis, former member, was welcomed back into the club and Mrs. Ray Milner was welcomed as a new member, Mrs. W. R. Boyd was a guest.

O.E.S. Chapter Plans Meeting

The Waynesville Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold a regular meeting in the Masonic Hall in the First National Bank Building Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Nellie Clark, worthy matron, has requested all officers and other members to attend.

Sheriff McCracken Returns To Idaho

Sheriff Charles T. McCracken left yesterday for his home in Soda Springs, Idaho, after a visit with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. R. P. McCracken, and other relatives here. He was accompanied as far as Knoxville by his brothers, Wayne McCracken of Hazelwood, Carey McCracken of Lake Junaluska, and Steve McCracken of Clyde.

A native of the Crabtree section, McCracken was elected sheriff of Caribou County, Idaho, some ten years ago. Now chairman of the Sheriff's Association of the State of Idaho, he represented the state at a convention in Atlanta last week.

Sunday School Classes Plan Joint Meeting

A joint meeting of the T. E. L. Class and the Friendship Class of the First Baptist Church will be held in the social hall of the church Friday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Christy and daughter, Mrs. Nancy Christy Neber, of Chicago, are here for a visit to Mrs. Christy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Matney. Mrs. Christy is the former Miss Louise Matney.

Journalism's Loss

Cindy Garner (above) once had ambitions to be a newspaper woman. She studied journalism at High Point, her home town, and worked on the weekly High Point Beacon. But the lure of Hollywood overcame that of a typewriter. On Monday she signed a seven-year contract to be a movie actress for Universal - International studios. She'll make her screen debut soon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Reeves Noland left last week to visit their daughter, Miss Peggy Noland, who is a student at Iowa College.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Shultz and son, Jerome, of Avon Park, Florida arrived Saturday to spend a month at the Taylor Apartments.

RELIABLE JEWELERS advertisement featuring Bulova watches and graduation watches. Includes prices like $27.50 and $35.75.

Sheppe's advertisement for graduation dresses. Features illustrations of two women in dresses and text: 'She's Graduating IN FASHION WHITE DRESSES 5.95'.

Mrs. Barber Is D.A.R. Hostess

Mrs. R. N. Barber, Sr., was hostess for the D.A.R. Continental Congress which she attended in Washington, D. C., last month.

Mrs. James E. Henderson of Canton had the program of the afternoon and gave a history of the City of New Orleans. She also discussed various points of interest to visitors in the city.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Boyd Owen and Mrs. Roy Francis.

Mrs. Matney's Piano Pupils Will Give Recitals

Piano pupils of Mrs. W. L. Matney will be presented in a recital at the East Waynesville School auditorium Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

Hazelwood music students will be presented at the Hazelwood School, Friday night at 8 o'clock.

included the wedding party, members of the two families, and close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathis left after the reception for a wedding trip after which they will make their home at Bradley's Motel on the Soco Gap Road at Maggie.

For traveling the bride wore a suit of wood violet silk gabardine with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal arrangement.

Mrs. Mathis, who is a registered nurse, has been affiliated with Highland Hospital, Asheville.

Mr. Mathis attended the Rutherfordton schools and is now associated in the management of Bradley's Motel.

Camel cigarette advertisement. Text: 'After all the MILDNESS Tests... PUBLISHED FIGURES SHOW: Camel is America's most popular cigarette by still more billions!' Includes illustration of a Camel cigarette pack.

Laff-a-Day advertisement. Text: 'Laff-a-Day' and 'I'm sorry, I didn't know it was a caramel.' Includes illustration of a woman sitting at a table.

Belk-Hudson advertisement for men's suits and Venetian blinds. Text: 'Proving Again That BELK-HUDSON SELLS FOR LESS' and 'VENETIAN BLINDS 2.75'. Includes illustrations of a man in a suit and Venetian blinds.