White Oak Pictures Set For Tuesday; Party Honors Multiple Anniversaries

MRS. GEORGE BORING
Mountaineer Reporter

Like to call attention again to the date that the Mountaineer photographer will take pictures of White Oak Community. Tuesday, May 22, is the date to remember, so let's all be ready. Of course, if it should be a rainy day, another day will have to be set. It is necessary to have clear weather for taking the many pictures.

Fifty-five people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis on White Oak last Sunday to celebrate three occasions. Mother's Day, five birthdays, and one wedding anniversary were the dates honored.

Those having birthdays were Mrs. Bob Davis of Cove Creek, Mrs. Carl Bryson of Iron Duff, Mrs. George Boring, Joe Davis and Robert Davis of White Oak. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe Ledford were celebrating their fifth wedding anniversary.

A long table in the yard was filled with good things to eat, including roast, duck, chicken and baked ham. A large birthday cake was cut.

Besides the honorees, the guests were Bob Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Davis, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Davis and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd and family, all from Cove Creek, Carl Bryson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Bryson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hobert Green and family, all from Iron Duff; Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Warren and family from Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. Grover Davis and family, and Mrs. Troy Boyd and son from Waynesville; Mrs. Joe Davis and family, the Rowe Ledford's small son; George Boring, Mrs. Bill Williams, Miss Roslyn Messer, and Brown Messer, all of White Oak.

Mrs. Sam Ledford found on Mother's Day that she had three thoughtful daughters. Mrs. Hilliard Jones, Mrs. Jack James, and Mrs. Charlie Derick not only spent the day with their mother, but prepared the entire dinner at their homes and took it out to Mrs. Ledford's so that she could just enjoy her day.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Yoder Messer, who were married May 12 at Spartanburg, S. C. Mrs. Messer is the former Miss Nell Rose of Canton.

We have just learned that Norman Duckett is ill at his home.

Roofs are beginning to shine now in this community. Joe Davis has put aluminum paint on the roofs of his house, barn and smoke house; and Taylor Rogers and Dibe Duckett have painted the roofs of their barns.

Annual Awards Are Given To Music Students

Sixteen members of the junior class and seventeen members of the senior class of Waynesville High School were awarded school letters and pins for their outstanding work in the Music Department of the school, during the past school year.

Director of Music Charles L. Isley, Jr., presented the awards in school assembly Tuesday morning to the students meeting the requirements set up by the Student Music Council of which Mark Rogers is Student Director.

Juniors receiving letters for chorus work were: Catherine Bell, Carolyn Sayer, Ann Green, Nancy Francis, and Sara Jane Garrison.

The senior students were given gold pins with a music bar and "WHS Band" or "WHS Chorus" on them. Band members getting pins were Mary Jane Rogers, Joyce Carter, Lillian Medford, Mark Rogers, Jay Dee Stanley, Robert Massie, Dot Caldwell, Barbara Chase, Eugene Moody, Betty Noland, and Joan Ratcliffe.

Senior chorus students receiving awards were: Betty Franklin, Johnny Green, Margaret Reese, Mark Hoglan, Mary Evelyn Plemmons, and Mary Frances Ray.

Morning Star Residents Make Trips, Have Guests

MRS. WAYNE BURNETTE
Mountaineer Reporter

Several Morning Star residents have had guests recently and others are visiting friends elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. Iro Medford leave today for a short visit in Charlotte. A party of five is to return tomorrow from a week's trip to Illinois. Miss Nell Burnette, Mrs. Ruth Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Val B. Bramlett and Miss Ruthella Queen have been in Savanna, Ill., as the guests of Arthur Bramlett and Sgt. Ralph Bramlett.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Coble and son Mick from Spartanburg, S. C. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rhinehart last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Wilson enjoyed a surprise visit last Friday from Mrs. Wilson's nephew, Paul Reeves Harrison. Harrison is stationed in Washington as the pilot of J. Edgar Hoover. He is the son of the late J. M. C. Harrison.

Pvt. Paul Setzer, stationed at Fort Lee, Va., spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Setzer, and friends in Morning Star Community.

Attending the W. S. C. S. District conference at Sylva last week were Mrs. A. A. Cody, Mrs. Fred Trull, Mrs. Noel Fisher, Mrs. Gordon Sharp and Mrs. Asmond Maxwell.

Celebrating birthdays the last of May are Mrs. Luther Smathers, Turner Smathers, Mrs. Ben Fisher, Miss Anna Bell Smathers, Charles Fisher and Joe Kirby, Jr.

Several people from Morning Star attended the Bible Clinic at the First Baptist Church in Clyde last Thursday. Among them were Mrs. Dee Hall, Mrs. Fred Setzer, Mr. and Mrs. Chad Case, Mrs. Johnny Jenkins, Mrs. Ray Trantham, Mrs. Forest Carr, Mrs. Jack Medford, Mrs. Fred Trantham, Mrs. Lewin Medford, Mrs. R. L. Rhinehart and Mrs. Mary Jane Davis.

Shakespearean Festivals have been held in Stratford-on-Avon, The Bard's birthplace, since 1769 when actor David Garrick sponsored the first jubilee.

Walt Disney, the cartoon motion picture producer, once sold magazines, newspapers and other things as a "butcher" on trains between Chicago and St. Louis.

In an unprecedented happening in North American horse racing, French-bred horses finished one-two-three in the same race this season at Hialeah.
