

Many Center Pigeon People Attending Church Meetings Summer Resident Here

MRS. WEAVER SHEFFIELD
Mountaineer Reporter

Center Pigeon folk have attended a series of church meetings in the past ten days. On the calendar are the meeting of the Methodist Young Adult Subdistrict meeting and a study course of the W.S.C.S. Past events which drew many people were the District Conference meeting in Sylva, the M.Y.F. Subdistrict meeting, and the Training School at Lake Junaluska.

Haywood County Young Adult Subdistrict meeting will be held Sunday, May 20 at Camp Hope. The meeting gets under way at 2:30 with registration in charge of Hazel Ramsey and the Young Adults of Central Methodist Church, Canton. The Rev. Howell Coleman, Subdistrict director, will preside. The Rev. Thad McDonald will speak on "Teaching Adults" and Rev. Horace McSwain will speak on "The Young Adult's Place in the Church and Community". There will be a fellowship and recreation hour under the direction of the Rev. Paul H. Duckwall and the Young Adults of Long's Chapel. A picnic supper will be held at 6 o'clock. Each one is asked to bring sandwiches, potato salad, slaw, pickles, etc., with drinks being furnished. Mrs. W. T. Medlin and the Young Adults of the Clyde Church will serve the supper. Drinks are in charge of Mrs. H. W. Styles and the young Adults of the First Methodist Church, Canton.

The worship hour is at 7 o'clock with Paul Fowler of Morning Star Church in charge. The Rev. W. Jackson Huneycutt will be the speaker of the hour, his subject: "The Methodist Church in War and Peace". Camp Hope is a nice place for the children to play outside, so bring them along. The ministers of the county will supervise the children's recreation. Each member of every church is cordially invited to attend this meeting on Sunday.

The W.S.C.S. of Morning Star and Long's Church will hold a joint study course on Friday at Morning Star Church. The book, "Christian Vocation," will be the subject. Each member is asked to bring a covered dish. The meeting will convene at 10 o'clock.

The Center Pigeon folk attending the District Conference meeting in Sylva last Friday were Mrs. Mattie Abel, Mrs. Bill Kinsland, Roy Morgan and son and daughter, Mark and Aurelia, are visiting relatives in Hamilton, Ohio.

Plants Evergreens For Future Security

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—A young Pittsburgh minister thinks the 40,000 evergreen trees he has planted will keep him in his old age.

The Rev. Stewart P. Robinson, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and his wife planted 20,000 of the trees themselves on a farm the couple owns near Delhi, N. Y. The other 20,000 were planted by a professional.

Robinson hopes to plant another 100,000 evergreens in coming years. Although he doesn't expect to get rich, he says the trees are a good investment for the future. He adds: "If this inflation keeps on, I can be sure my investment is growing anyway."

Mrs. Ralph Evans and Mrs. Fred Hyatt.

The Methodist M.Y.F. Subdistrict meeting was held at Fincher's Chapel, Hyder Mountain on Monday night. An interesting program was given by Crabtree Church. New officers were installed with the Rev. Paul A. Duckwall of Long's Chapel, Lake Junaluska, voted as adult advisor. Bethel Methodist won the banner with 27 members present.

Mrs. Helen Hyatt, Mrs. Mary Edwards, Mrs. Marie Prady, Mrs. Mabel Cagle, Mrs. Hazel Rollins and Mrs. Maule Evans attended the Training School at Long's Chapel, Lake Junaluska, last week.

Mrs. Andrews of Battle Creek, Mich., visited her mother, Mrs. J. B. Medford last week. She is the former Miss Ruth Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Pipes visited J. H. Pipes in Marion, Va., over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kinsland have remodeled their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Long have installed an all-electric kitchen in their home.

Roy Morgan and son and daughter, Mark and Aurelia, are visiting relatives in Hamilton, Ohio.
