Linen Suit

Handsome summer outfit.

VERA WINSTON

NATURAL linen is the material of a handsomely tailored suit that should play a starring role this season. A three-button closing forms a triangle below wide revers. Stitching outlines all the edges including the pockets on the short peplum. Worn with it is an orange and beige ascot to match the coat lining, and matching gloves.

Mary Medford Is Re-Elected Head Of Secretaries

Miss Mary Medford was re-elected president of the Waynesville Chapter of the National Secretaries Association at a meeting at The Lodge last night.

Other officers elected were Miss Mary Sue Crocker, vice president; Miss Jimmie Watts, recording secretary; Miss Patsy Rogers, corresponding secretary; and Miss Louise Gaddy, treasurer.

Miss Medford was named as a delegate to the National Convention of Secretaries to be held in Houston, Texas in June. Miss Jimmie Watts and Miss Rufina Bright were named alternates.

New members welcomed were Miss Evelyn Siler, Mrs. Nancy Medford, and Mrs. Harriet Tutwiler.

During the social hour a gift was presented to Miss Clara Dotson, whose wedding will take place next month.

Mrs. Patty McCracken was a guest at the meeting.

Taylor M. Price Celebrates 77th Birthday

Taylor M. Price celebrated his 77th birthday with a dinner at his home in the Spring Creek section last Sunday.

The occasion also marked the first time in thirty years that Mr. Price and his eight children had been together.

Around sixty relatives and friends attended the dinner.

Miss McElroy Is Honored At Party

Miss Patricia McElroy, whose marriage to J. B. Ledford will take place tomorrow at Ft. Benning, Georgia, was honored at a buffet supper and miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening at Skyland Tea Room. Mrs. Joe Liner and Mrs. Harold Frye were hostesses for the event.

Member of Month

Mrs. Henry Garner has been chosen the "Member of the Month" for May by West Pigeon Community.

W. Pigeon Member Mrs. Henry Garner 'Gets Things Done'

"Put Florence Garner down for that," they say over in West Pigeon, "she always does what she sets out to do." Because of her many abilities and her knack of getting things done, Mrs. Henry Garner has been chosen as West Pigeon's "Member of the Month."

Mrs. Garner is now chairman of West Pigeon's Community Development Program. She has been active in community affairs for the past eighteen years.

She worked with the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church for many years; and since the organization of the missionary work in the Presbyterian Church has devoted a great deal of time to that. She teaches an Intermediate Sunday School class. She is past president of the Presbyterian Missionary Society.

When the first Girl Scout troop was organized at Bethel, Mrs. Garner was one of its leaders.

Mrs. Garner is an active member of Sonoma Lodge No. 254, Order of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Garner goes fishing for relaxation from her many duties. She enjoys sewing, and likes to entertain people. "Young people" are a hobby which benefits others as well as herself.

The former Miss Florence Russell, Mrs. Garner is the daughter of the late J. Turner Russell and Mrs. Russell of East Street, Waynesville.

Miss Dotson Is Honored At Tea

Miss Clara Dotson, bride-elect of James Davis, was honored at a tea given Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Sebe Bryson, Mrs. Charles McDarris, Mrs. Tom Campbell, Sr. as hostesses in the home of Mrs. McDarris.

The rooms were decorated with spring flowers and the tea table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of white iris and spirea. Guests were presented corsages which were tied with white satin ribbons marked with the names of the bride and bridegroom-elect.

The honor guest was presented a gift of china.

Assisting the hostesses were Miss Louise Francis, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. Kenneth Stahl, and Mrs. Raymond Caldwell.

Around forty guests called during the hours from three to five o'clock.

Cops 'Nancy O' Contest

Kathryn (Kitty) Lee Pankey, winner of the nation-wide Nancy O contest of Al Capp's comic strip, "Li'l Abner," is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Pankey who have a summer home on Country Club Drive in Waynesville.

Kitty, a 20-year-old Southern beauty of Miami, Fla., and a junior at the University of Florida was selected from a photograph that won in the local contest sponsored by The Miami Herald. It was the same photograph that Miss Pankey had published in The Herald with the announcement of her engagement to Frank Dawson Hall, also of Miami, whom she will wed in July.

Two weeks after winning The Herald contest she was named Queen of the Spring Frolic at the University of Florida over a field of 32 other contestants.

While a student at Ward-Belmont Junior College in Tennessee she was named May Queen.

For the past few summers, Kitty has been coming to Camp Junaluska and last year she served as counselor in the horseback riding division.

At the University of Florida she was selected as the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi and also as Miss University of Florida.
