Golf Club Has Dinner Dance

A dinner-dance was held at the Country Club last Saturday evening by members of the Waynesville Golf Club. This was the first evening event of the season for the club and around forty members attended.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Whitener Prevost and Ralph Prevost.

Serving on the entertainment committee were Bruce Morford of Canton, Mrs. David Hyatt, and Mrs. Harry Bourne.

Tally-Ho Club Names Officers

New officers for the Tally-Ho Club of the Waynesville High School were elected yesterday afternoon.

Those elected were George Dewey Stovall, president; Carolyn Sawyer, vice president; Helen Garrett, secretary; Aileen Williams, treasurer; and Patsy Ezell, historian. All are members of the rising senior class. Miss Alma Jackson was named faculty advisor for the fourth consecutive year.

The Tally-Ho Club is a dramatics group of the school.

Lakeside Club Meets With Co-Hostesses

Mrs. Wayne Franklin, president, and Mrs. Charles Reed were co-hostesses to the Lakeside Club on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Franklin.

Mrs. Reed reported on the work of the Health Committee; and Mrs. Rudolph Carswell on Recreation. Leaders reporting were Mrs. Emil A. Gooch, Jr., Mrs. Carswell, Miss Kate Phillips, Mrs. Joe Liner, Mrs. J. S. Harrell and Mrs. Franklin. Mrs. Franklin also gave a demonstration on sewing machine attachments.

Slightly Ruffled

PERFECTLY poised is model Mary Lou Donnelly, but the elastic fallie swim suit she wears at Miami Beach, Fla. is a bit ruffled. And that, says the designer, is what makes it different. The ruffles appear on the pocket and at top of the attractive suit. (International)

Don Whisenhunt, student at State College, spent the weekend at home.

Seaman Bob Ferguson, who is stationed in Brunswick, Ga., left Monday after spending a few days with his wife, the former Miss Betty Setzer, at Dellwood.

Officers Training Is Planned For Church Groups

Officers Training Day for officers of the Woman's Society and the Wesleyan Service Guild of Long's Chapel Methodist Church will be held at the church Wednesday, May 23 at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Jerry Liner, president of the Woman's Society, has requested all officers of the two organizations to make a special effort to attend.

Mrs. J. E. Yountz of Waynesville will discuss Youth Work.

Canton Homemakers To Hold Special Meeting Next Week

The Canton Homemakers will hold a special-interest meeting next Thursday, May 24, on sewing machine attachments. Mrs. Frank L. Campbell will be hostess.

The group held their regular meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Cowart, Jr., with Mrs. C. A. Smith, Jr., and Mrs. James Hyatt as co-hostesses. Mrs. E. E. Conley presided over the meeting and Mrs. R. J. McCloskey gave the devotional.

During the business session Mrs. Howard Hemphill was named corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Conley reported on Education; and Mrs. Edwin Hyatt on Markets. Book reports were given by Mrs. F. V. Doult and Miss Mary Frances Kirkpatrick. Leaders reporting were Mrs. Gudger Palmer, Mrs. Grant Stewart, Mrs. McCloskey and Mrs. Doult.

A demonstration on "Textile Paintings" was given by the Home Agent.

Homemakers Plan To Attend Craft, Cooking Schools

Plans for attendance at the Handicrafts School and the Cooking School were on the agenda of Tuesday's meeting of the Waynesville Homemakers Club. The Handicrafts School will be held at the 4-H Club Camp May 29, 30 and 31; and the Cooking School at the Champion YMCA June 19, 20 and 21.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Howell Bryson, with Mrs. Carl Ratcliffe, president, in charge. Mrs. Bryson gave the devotional.

Mrs. H. O. Champion reported for her committee on Education; and Mrs. Ben Phillips on Community Service. Others making reports were Mrs. Lawrence Leatherwood and Mrs. Ratcliffe.

Mrs. Champion, Mrs. Leatherwood, Mrs. Marion Bridges and Mrs. Jack Rogers gave book reports.

A demonstration on the use of sewing machine attachments was given by Miss Jean Childers.
