Light Fare for Supper Menus

By ALICE DENROFF

OFFERED for your consideration today, are two nice suggestions for light luncheon or supper menus, recipes that while they are a bit lighter than the regulation winter fare, are just as satisfying and geared right as spring decides to give us a break and get under way. As a change from the usual rabbit, how about a delicious Mushroom Rarebit?

To serve 6, melt 1/2 cup butter in top of double boiler. Blend in 2 tsp. flour, 1/2 tsp. salt, dash of cayenne, 1/4 tsp. dry mustard and 1/2 tsp. Worcestershire sauce. Add one c. milk; cook until thick, stirring constantly. Add 1 1/2 c. grated American cheese; stir until cheese melts. Melt 1/2 cup butter in a skillet, then add a 4-oz. can sliced or button mushrooms; saute for 5 min. Add the sauteed mushrooms to the cheese sauce and serve mixture on hot toast slices.

Tomato Surprise
Baked Tomato Surprise is a real surprise!
For 8 servings (3 to a serving) combine 2 3-oz. packages cream cheese and 3 tsp. milk; add tsp. garlic salt and 2 tsp. celery salt. Add 4 tsp. salt to 4 slightly beaten eggs. Place 2 c. dry bread crumbs in a pie plate. Using 8 medium tomatoes, slice each tomato crosswise into fourths. Place 1/2 cup of cheese mixture on half of the tomato slices, then top each with the other tomato slices, placing toothpick in each to hold sandwiched slices together. Roll the tomato sandwich in the dry bread crumbs, then dip in the beaten eggs, and roll again in dry bread crumbs. Bake on a well-greased cookie sheet in 400 F. for 20 min.
