Judah is Captive in Babylon

Scripture—II Chronicles 36:11-21; Psalm 137; Jeremiah 29:1-14; Ezekiel 1:1-3; 11:14-21; Daniel 1.

Nebuchadnezzar sent an army to destroy Jerusalem, "and they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire," and carried away the people into captivity.

Captives in Babylon, the Jews were asked by their conquerors to sing to them the songs of Zion, but they hung their harps upon the willows and sat down and wept when they remembered their homeland.

The prophet, Jeremiah, stayed with the despoiled people who were allowed to remain in Jerusalem, and he wrote a letter to the captives in Babylon, advising them to settle down, plant vineyards, marry and have families.

The king of Babylon told his master of eunuchs to bring him some high-born children of the captives of Judah, and the man brought Daniel and three companions to the king. MEMORY VERSE—Jeremiah 29:13.
