

Hominy Community Meets May 28; Church Dedication Draws Many

MRS. LLOYD R. JONES
Mountaineer Reporter

The Hominy Community Development Program will meet at Old Harmony Grove Church on May 28 at 7 o'clock.

It is hoped that the Friendly Five and other singers will be present.

A number of people joined the church at the formal opening service of the new Plains Methodist Church in Hominy. Dr. C. N. Clark, former District Superintendent, assisted the pastor, the Rev. George Culbreth, in conducting the services.

Yoder Clark was in charge of music, with special numbers given by the M.Y.F. choir, the Friendly Five, and the Gospel Five.

The following young people joined the church on profession of faith: Michael Clark, Horace Yates, Rex Shepard, Harold Shepard, Gail Cogburn, Martha Swain, Colleen Dewese, Roba Dean Dewese, Clara Jean Anderson and Norma Jeanne Broyles.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley joined by transfer from the First Methodist Church of Canton.

The service closed with Holy Communion.

The church received many messages and expressions of congratulation from friends and former members.

GOING TO TOWN

Mr. D. O. Pearson, Route 2, Spartanburg, S. C., writes: "I suffered ten years from spells of gaseous stomach trouble, causing nervousness and heartburn so bad it made me cough. I had no appetite and even light foods hurt my stomach. I was not able to work and felt so weak I was unable to be up much of the time and could not walk about. I have taken fifteen bottles of Scott's Indian River Medicine and now I eat heartily, sleep well and have put on twenty-five pounds of much needed weight. I am able to walk to town again. There is nothing like Scott's."

The first bottle of Scott's must satisfy or your money back. Try it today.

Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Clark and R. and Mrs. W. Dillon Chambers were dinner guests of the George Culbreth's Sunday.

Some 25 members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship had an all-day outing at Bent Creek Saturday. They carried a picnic lunch, and a committee arranged for a cook-out supper.

The Rev. and Mrs. George Culbreth and Miss Vera Star Culbreth joined the group for supper and the worship service which climaxed the day.

Joe Dale McCracken is president of the group. Mrs. Bruce Alexander and Mrs. Yoder Clark are counselors.

Mrs. Wiley Donaldson of Hominy is slowly improving. She is a patient at the Victoria Hospital in Asheville.

Mrs. J. P. Holland is ill at her home in Hominy.

Friends of Mrs. Joyce Owen are glad to learn that she is now able to walk without crutches. She was knocked down by a car about a year ago.

Another resident confined to his home is Bill Morris.

Charles Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mann of Hominy, cracked his fist while practicing boxing at school last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Holland of Asheville visited relatives on Hominy last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Medford of Dallas visited friends here last week. Mrs. Destie Medford and grandson Jimmy returned to Hominy after a two-weeks visit in Dallas and Gastonia.

Miss Louise Nichols of Hominy spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Dock Nichols, in Whittier.

Mrs. Sallie Mann has returned home after spending a week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Torpy, in Alexandria, Va.

Mrs. Mary Moore of Whittier is visiting friends and relatives on Hominy.

Mr. and Mrs. Pink Cook, Miss Louise Cook and Edward Gibson Cook spent Saturday on an all-day fishing trip to Fontana.
