Ratcliffe Cove Club Meets At Community House

A regular meeting of the Ratcliffe Cove Home Demonstration Club was held Monday night in the Community House with Mrs. Hilliard Jones, Mrs. Ward Kirkpatrick, and Mrs. Jesse James as hostesses. Mrs. Will Ratcliffe presided and Mrs. Grace Camp gave the devotional. Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent, presented a demonstration on Textile Painting. John Eagles, representative of the State Farm Bureau, spoke to the group on the work of that organization. Mrs. Carl Jones, treasurer, reported $31.80 received from a benefit program held by the club. Leaders' reports were given by Mrs. D. Reeves Noland, Mrs. Hilliard Jones, Mrs. R. C. Francis, Mrs. James Medford, Mrs. John Morrow, and Mrs. Hugh Ratcliffe. Mrs. Hugh Ratcliffe and Mrs. Hilliard Jones also gave book reports.

Recent Bride

Mrs. Furman Stinnett is the former Miss Fannie Howell. She was married in the home of Dr. Leon M. Latimer, pastor of the First Baptist church at Greenville, S. C., Saturday afternoon.

Patricia McElroy Is Married In Post Chapel

Miss Patricia Jean McElroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett A. McElroy of Waynesville, was married to Pvt. J. B. Ledford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rolan B. Ledford of Hiawassee, Georgia, in the Post Chapel at Fort Benning, Georgia, Friday, May 18, at 7 p. m. Chaplain Aaron Walton pronounced the vows, using the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with baskets of red roses and seven-branched candelabra. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of white embossed nylon over taffeta with matching gloves and a white lace hat with shoulder length veil. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and wore a strand of pearls and pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. Mrs. Harold E. Frye of Oak Ridge, Tennessee, aunt of the bride, wore a street length dress of embossed beige organdy over taffeta with matching gloves and a straw hat trimmed with flowers. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Bruce C. Stamey of Pensacola, Florida, served as best man. Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a dinner in the Gold Room of the Ralston Hotel in Columbus, Georgia. A three-tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table and guests included members of the wedding party and close friends. Mrs. McElroy, mother of the bride, wore a dress of navy blue embossed organdy over taffeta with white accessories and a purple orchid corsage. Mrs. Ledford is a member of the senior class of the Waynesville High School. Mr. Ledford was graduated from the Hayesville High School and is now with the Airborne Division of the Army, stationed at Fort Benning. The bride will receive her high school diploma on May 29, the same day that the bridegroom receives his wings at Fort Benning. Following these events the couple will leave for a wedding trip to Florida and upon their return will reside at Fort Benning. Greenland is as large as the United States and of the Mississippi River.
