

8 Fines Creek Seniors To Get Diplomas Monday

Plans have been announced for the commencement exercises of the elementary grades at the Fines Creek school as well as for the High School.

The elementary grades will present two plays tonight as part of their exercises. The primary grades will give "Down on Old MacDonald's Farm," and the grammar grades will present "No Suit for Bill."

At the High School Commencement, the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by the Rev. W. Jackson Huneycutt, superintendent of the Waynesville district of the Methodist Church. Other speakers will be the Rev. O. E. Evans and Thomas Hood, principal. The program will include special music. The baccalaureate will take place Sunday at 3 p.m.

High School commencement exercises are set for the following night, May 28, at 8 o'clock. Principal speaker will be Dr. W. B. Harrell, staff officer of Western Carolina Teachers College.

Valedictory and salutatory addresses will be given by Miss Mable Rathbone and J. C. Ledford. An unusual feature in this instance is that Bruce Kirkpatrick, top honor student, surrendered his place as valedictorian to Miss Rathbone. She, in turn, gave the honor of salutatorian to J. C. Ledford.

Several awards are to be presented, according to Mr. Hood, including one from the Vocational Agriculture department, one from the Home Economics department, two in athletics, one in citizenship, and a special medal for one of the school bus drivers.

Members of the senior class are Miss Rathbone, Junior Ledford, Earl Ledford, Crawford Fisher, Lillian Price, Bruce Kirkpatrick, J. C. Ledford and Bennett Rogers. Class mascots are Carol Rathbone and Joan Hood.

Marshals selected from the ninth, tenth and eleventh grades on the basis of scholarship are Christine Ledford, chief marshal; and Mary Moore, Joyce Clark, Janet Ledford, Roslyn Messer, Regina Ferguson, Doris Ann Rathbone, Katie Russell and Milas McCracken.

A half teaspoon of lemon juice, a pinch of sugar and a dash of salt add zest to a cup of tomato juice. This amount will make two appetizer portions; serve with crisp crackers.

Characters For College

ANNANDALE-ON-HUDSON, N. Y.—(AP)—Two psychologists and a sociologist at Bard College set out to find out what characteristics a college should give its students. After an extensive survey they came up with what they think are the answers. Here are the 10 they list as the most important:

Eagerness for learning; integrity—moral and intellectual honesty; use of knowledge—the ability to apply it; maturity—adult behavior and attitudes; self-reliance; interest in major field; intelligence; progress—individual improvement; emotional stability and open-mindedness.

Grilled cheese sandwiches teamed with apple, celery and date salad offer a fine flavor combination for a luncheon menu. Moistened the salad with mayonnaise and serve on salad greens.

TODAYS Menu

Three Extra-Special Desserts

By ALICE DENHOFF
SOME more of that sweet talk today which you are kind enough to tell us you enjoy so much! Some of our friends make no secret of the fact that while they of course do the best they know how with the main dish, they really like to go to town for a special dessert, giving its preparation plenty of time and effort.

So for those that love to cook, here's one worthy of their efforts. Banana Pecan Butterscotch Pie. Sift together 1 1/2 c. sifted cake flour, 1 1/2 tsp. baking powder and 1/4 tsp. salt. Beat 5 egg whites until foamy, add 1 1/2 c. sugar gradually, beating constantly until mixture is stiff and shiny. Beat 5 egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored and fold into egg whites. Add 2 tsp. cold water, then lemon juice, tsp. grated lemon rind; mix lightly. Fold in flour mixture. Fold in 1/2 c. melted butter, cooled until slightly thickened. Then melt 3 tsp. more butter in a cake pan (8x2x2 inches), add 1/4 c. firmly-packed brown sugar, stirring over low heat until sugar is dissolved. Peel 3 ripe, firm bananas and cut into lengthwise halves. Arrange bananas, cut side down, in syrup in cake pan, and sprinkle 1/2 c. pecans around bananas. Bake at 325 F. for one hour and 20 min., or until cake is done. Loosen cake carefully from the sides of the pan. Invert on serving plate. Serve warm. Garnish with whipped cream or, for something special, with ice cream.

Plain Gelatin
The many folks who enjoy coffee-flavored desserts, here's a good one. Soften one envelope plain, unflavored gelatin in 2 tbsp. cold coffee; add 3/4 sugar, 1/4 tsp. salt, and 3 egg yolks, mixing slightly. Add one c. strong, hot coffee gradually to egg-gelatin mixture, and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Chill. When slightly thickened, beat until light and foamy. Fold in 3 stiffly-beaten egg whites. Turn into one baked 9-inch pie shell; chill until firm. Serve with a whipped cream garnish.

Sgt. Carl Francis Home On Furlough

Sgt. Carl Francis arrived home yesterday for a 25-day furlough. He has spent nearly three years overseas, and has been in Korea since last July. On the expiration of his furlough he expects to report to Fort Jackson, S. C.

If you add fruit or nuts to a chiffon cake batter, they must be very finely chopped or they will sink to the bottom of the cake.

'DESERTER' FOUND ON WAR JOB

HAVING joined up with a unit of the Oklahoma National Guard, Robert W. Brooks, of Hugo, Okla., was written off as a potential deserter in his home town until the facts came to light. Actually, he had volunteered for duty with his World War II Navy outfit and for six months has been working as an Aviation Ordnanceman helping to arm planes from the U.S.S. Princeton, flagship of Task Force 77. He's pictured here on his bomb-loading job. (Navy Photo from International)
