Sunday School Lesson

JESUS AND HIS MINISTRY

HE CAME TO GIVE HIS LIFE FOR MANY

Scripture—Luke 4: 15; 19:1-10; Mark 10:45; John 3:16; 12:44-50.

BY NEWMAN CAMPBELL
NEVER WAS the world more in need of a Saviour to tell us how to get rid of our selfishness, our prejudices and other unchristian feelings and actions, and learn to live as Jesus would live us—and as He lived.

Once more our lesson takes us to the beginning of Jesus' ministry. And we read of the things He said and the way He spoke, and how He was here with us on earth now to help us to see how we can make the world a place better than it is.

Political parties in every country quarrel and call names; governments rise and fall; all seem to be at war with brother battling brother, and young men dying as martyrs, while civilians lose their homes, possessions and lives.

After the baptism of Jesus, He went into the wilderness where He was tempted by Satan. You remember how He told Satan to be gone. Then He went to His old home, Nazareth, and on the Sabbath He went into the synagogue, and read up to read, and this is what He read:

MEMORY VERSE

"The Son of Man also came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many."—Mark 10:45.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me because He hath anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He hath sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord."

When He closed the book and began to talk, so gracious were His words that the people who had known Him from childhood were amazed and asked one another if this was indeed Joseph of Nazareth. Mary's son whom they had known so long.

He told them that "No prophesy is acceptable in his own country." And His further remarks amazed them so that they took Him up to a mountain that overlooked the town, and would have thrown Him off to His death, but He slipped through the crowd and got away. How quickly people change from amazement and wonder to anger!

Later on in His ministry, crowds followed Him, for His fame spread. He had healed the sick, cast out demons, and all the people brought their sick, lame, blind, and demon-possessed to Him to be healed.

The publicans and sinners came to hear and see Him; even the Scribes and Pharisees came, they hoped to trip Him. They accused Him of consorting with sinners.
