

CLUBS

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

ACTIVITIES

Office Phone 700 — MRS. BEN SLOAN, Editor — Home Phone 463-J

Home Clubs Plan To Participate In Flower Show

All three Home Demonstration clubs which met last week voted to take part in the Flower Show sponsored by the Richland Garden Club August 14 and 15.

The Ratcliffe Cove club met Monday at the home of Mrs. Will Ratcliffe, president. Mrs. Hilliard Jones gave the devotional. Mrs. John Morrow, chairman, reported on the work of the Achievement Day committee; and other reports were heard from Mrs. Reeves Nolan, Mrs. Graham Rogers, Mrs. R. C. Francis, Mrs. Ward Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Ratcliffe.

Also on Monday, the Rogers Cove club met with Mrs. Horace Crawford and Mrs. Carey McCracken co-hostesses at Mrs. Crawford's home. Mrs. A. L. Yarborough, historian, reported, and read several original poems. Mrs. McCracken, poultry leader, led a discussion on problems that the poultryman faces.

The Home Demonstration Kitchen was the scene of the Junaluska club's meeting Friday. Mrs. C. M. Dicus and Mrs. Clark Messer were hostesses, and Mrs. A. J. McCracken presided. Reports were given by Mrs. Carl Medford, Miss Elizabeth Glosser, Mrs. Cephas Clark, Mrs. Carroll McCracken, Mrs. Clark Messer, Mrs. Grove Leatherwood and Mrs. A. J. McCracken.

At all three meetings a demonstration on food conservation was given by the home agent.

Mrs. Weaver Is Head Of Rocky Branch Society

Mrs. W. C. Weaver was elected president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Rocky Branch Baptist Church at a meeting in the church Monday night.

Others elected were Mrs. Paul Browning, vice president; Mrs. Derry Norman, treasurer and chairman of the stewardship committee; Mrs. Lloyd Mull, secretary; Mrs. Ennis Chambers, community missions chairman; Mrs. Roy McClure, mission study chairman; Miss Elizabeth Mitchell, publicity chairman; Mrs. Carl Dillis, literature chairman; and Miss Elizabeth Mitchell, director of Young People's Work.

Taking part on the program for the meeting were Mrs. Roy McClure, Mrs. Carl Dillis, Mrs. Lloyd Mull, and Miss Elizabeth Mitchell.

The society voted to send $15.00 to the Heck-Jones Memorial Offering and to donate $25.00 to the church bus fund.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bradley had as their guest last week the latter's sister, Mrs. E. A. Gaskill of Knoxville.

Mrs. Carey Teague Wells

Mrs. Wells is the former Miss Jean Ann Bradley. She was married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist Church here. (Photo by Culherson)

Miss Jean Ann Bradley Weds Lt. Carey Teague Wells

Miss Jean Ann Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Alfred Bradley of Waynesville, became the bride of Lt. Carey Teague Wells, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Carey Teague Wells of Canton, in a double ring ceremony at the First Methodist Church, Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

The Rev. J. E. Yountz, pastor of the church, and Dr. C. N. Clark of Lake Junaluska officiated.

The altar was decorated with floor vases of white gladioli and lilies and branched candelabra, against a background of palms and ferns.

Miss Sarah Davidson of Commerce, Ga., organist, and Miss Bebe Wells of Tavares, Fla., soloist, presented the wedding music. Both are sorority sisters of the bride.

Miss Davidson played "Clair de Lune," "Always," "To An Evening Star," "My Wonderful One," and "Liebestraum" and Miss Wells sang "The Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

The Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet was played during the taking of the vows and the traditional wedding marches were used as processional and recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white Duchess satin, fashioned with round neck and lace yoke scalloped on to the bodice with seed pearls. The long sleeves ended in points at the hands and the full skirt, which extended into a cathedral train, had wide panels of lace in front and back. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a lace cap which was edged with illusion and seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with white bridal roses.

Mrs. Joe Cline, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina gown of white lace over taffeta made with a lace jacket. She carried a white prayer book showered with red roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Williams of Osceola, Arkansas, and Miss Bebe Wells of Tavares, Fla., sorority sisters of the bride. Miss Jackie Sue Messer and Mrs. Boyd Medford, They wore gowns identical to that of the honor attendant and carried bouquets of red roses. Little Miss Martha Hudson,

Miss Marie Strange Is Married To Worth Messer

Richland Garden Club Will Meet With Mrs. McCall

The Richland Garden Club will meet in the home of Mrs. W. Sherrod McCall Thursday, June 28, at 12:30 p.m. Associate hostesses will be Mrs. James L. Elwood and Miss Louise MacFadyen.

Mrs. Lunetti Barber of Raleigh, who is associated with the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission, will be the speaker. She will discuss the conservation of Wildlife.

Beta Sigma Phi To Organize Canton Chapter

A new chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority will be organized in Canton Friday night, under the sponsorship of the Alpha Theta Chapter of Waynesville.

Thirty-one prospective members have been invited to meet at the Champion YMCA at 8 o'clock in the evening and hear a discussion of the aims and purposes of the sorority. A social hour will follow the business session.

All members of the Waynesville chapter are requested to attend.

Home Demonstration Leaders Training School To Be Held Friday

A leaders' training school for Home Beautification and House Furnishings leaders will be held in the Home Demonstration Kitchen in Waynesville on Friday at 2:00 o'clock. Miss Pauline Gordon, State College Specialist, will be present to give the demonstration on Flower Arrangements. All leaders are urgently requested to be present.

daughter of Mrs. George S. Hudson of Canton and cousin of the bride-groom, was flower girl. She wore a full length dress of white organdy with lace trim and a short veil attached to a lace cap similar to that of the bride. She carried a miniature bouquet of red roses.

Dr. Wells served as best man for his son and ushers were Richard Bradley, brother of the bride; Joe Cline, brother-in-law of the bride; Dr. Tom Etheridge of Atlanta, classmate of the groom; and Dr. Luther Rollins of Canton.

Immediately after the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in their home on the Eagle's Nest Road.

Those assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Massie, Mrs. Woodson Jones, Mrs. W. F. Swift, Mrs. Jack Messer, Mrs. Ossie Sutton, Mrs. Wayne Corpening, Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. Harry Whisenhunt, Miss Mary Cornwell, Mrs. Joe Palmer, Miss Marguerite Way, Mrs. Erwin Burgin, Miss Mary Ann Massie, Miss Norma Jane Burgin, Mrs. Albert Cline, Jr., and Mrs. E. A. Gaskill of Knoxville, aunt of the bride.

The bride's table was covered with an embroidered linen cloth and held a silver bowl of white roses and gypsophila, flanked by silver candelabra. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Bradley, mother of the bride, wore a gray lace dress with a purple orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore aqua lace with a purple orchid corsage.

After the reception Lt. and Mrs. Wells left by motor for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside in Ithaca, N. Y., where Lt. Wells is stationed with the United States Air Force.

For traveling the bride wore a suit of turquoise silk shantung with white accessories and the orchid from her Bible.

The bride was graduated from the Waynesville High School and received a Bachelor of Arts degree in dramatics and education from Brenau College this spring. While a student at the latter she was president of the Phi Mu, social sorority; treasurer of Zeta Phi Eta, national honorary speech sorority; a member of Phi Beta Sigma, honorary scholastic sorority; president of the Student Government Association; and was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. This year she received the Mary Mildred Sullivan citizenship award presented by the New York Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and was a member of the Senior Honor Society.

Lt. Wells attended the Canton schools, Davidson College and was graduated from the Emory University School of Dentistry. He was a member of the Pi Kappa Phi, social fraternity, and Psi Omega, dental fraternity, and served as president of his senior class. He practiced his profession in Canton for three years prior to enlisting in the Air Force last February. He is stationed at Sampson Air Base.

The marriage of Miss Marie Young Strange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fletcher Strange, and Aubrey Worth Messer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Worth Messer, was solemnized in the First Baptist Church Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Broadus E. Wall, pastor of the church, pronounced the vows.

The altar was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and lilies with palms and ferns, and branched candelabra holding cathedral candles.

Joe Morrow, organist, and Miss Merrill Green, soloist, presented a program of music. Miss Green sang "Through The Years," and "Because," prior to the ceremony and "O Perfect Love" as a benediction. The traditional marches were played as processional and recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white nylon marquisette with a sheer yoke outlined with bertha of marquisette appliqued in white taffeta. The same design of applique was used around the hem of the bouffant skirt and extended the length of the chapel train. Her triple-tiered fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a coronet of silvered illusion and seed pearls. The bride carried a white prayer book showered with white roses and topped with a white orchid.

Miss Barbara Hale of Harlan, Ky., was maid of honor and wore a gown of powder blue organdy. She carried a bouquet of mixed garden flowers in pastel shades and wore matching flowers in her hair.

Mrs. Jack W. Arrington of Skyland was matron of honor and wore lilac organdy made with basque waist and bouffant skirt. Her flowers and headdress were identical to those of the maid of honor.

Linda Kay Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard Smith, was flower girl. Her dress was of lilac organdy and she carried a basket of rose petals.

Wayne Edwards served as best man for the bridegroom and ushers were J. D. Cooper of Canton, James M. Davis, Jr., Charles Messer, cousin of the bridegroom, and Bobby Sams of Asheville, also a cousin of the bridegroom.

Following ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the Young Peoples Building of the church.

Those assisting were Mrs. Ben Messer, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Lewis N. Green, Mrs. Joe Liner, Miss Merrill Green, Miss Hattie Freeman, Mrs. George Craig, and Miss Ann Haney of Asheville, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Strange, mother of the bride wore a dress of cocoa chiffon with yoke of imported lace and a corsage of green orchids. Mrs. Messer, mother of the bridegroom, wore a rose crepe dress with a lavender orchid corsage.

After the reception the couple left by motor for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will be at home at the Kirkpatrick Apartments on Walnut Street. For traveling the bride wore a costume suit of cocoa shantung with white accessories and the orchid detached from her bridal prayer book.

Mrs. Messer was graduated from Waynesville High School and attended Mars Hill College where she was a member of the Non-Pareil Society, the Glee Club, and the Hilltop Staff. She also attended Furman University in Greenville, S. C. and was a member of the Furman Singers. She is now employed with Welco Shoe Corporation.

Mr. Messer was graduated from the Waynesville High School and attended Warren Wilson Junior College at Swannanoa. He served in the Naval Air Corps during World War II and now has a position with Dave Steel Company, Inc. in Asheville.

West Canton H.D. Club Changes Meeting Place

The place of meeting of the West Canton Home Demonstration Club on Thursday, June 28 at 2 o'clock, has been changed from the home of Mrs. Wiley Hyde to the home of Mrs. Earl Poe.

Mr. and Mrs. Spritz Fete Couple At Wedding Breakfast

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Spritz of Cincinnati entertained at a breakfast Sunday preceding the wedding ceremony of their son, Mr. Daniel Hubler, and Miss Ida Louise Gibson. The affair was given at The Lodge. Guests included members of the two families and out-of-town wedding guests.

Mrs. Charles B. Russell has as her guests Miss Jemima Best of Leechburg, Pa., and Mrs. Lewis Miller of Salisbury.

Mrs. Daniel Rider Hubler

Mrs. Hubler was married Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church. She is the former Miss Ida Louise Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoyle Gibson, of Waynesville. (Photo by Ingram's Studio.)

Miss Ida Lou Gibson Is Bride Of Daniel R. Hubler

The marriage of Miss Ida Louise Gibson to Daniel Rider Hubler of Cincinnati, Ohio, was solemnized in the First Presbyterian Church, Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoyle Gibson of Waynesville and the bridegroom is the foster son of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Spritz of Cincinnati.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Malcolm Williamson, pastor of the church, and Bishop Paul B. Kern of Nashville, Tenn.

The chancel was decorated with ferns and floor standards of white gladioli, yucca, and hydrangea.

Miss Bette Hannah, organist, and Miss Ida Jean Brown, aunt of the bride, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Miss Hannah played "Liebestraum," "Clair de Lune," "I Love Thee," "Panis Angelicus," and "Through The Years," prior to the ceremony. During the ceremony she played "O Perfect Love," Miss Brown sang "Because," and "O Perfect Love," and as a benediction sang, "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore the wedding gown of the bridegroom's sister which was of ivory silk faille, with branched candelabra.

See Miss Gibson—Page 3

Miss Albright Is Hostess At Supper Party

Miss Anne Albright was at a supper party Friday as a courtesy to her guest, Leonora Smith of Glynn, former director of primary education at Western Carolina College.

The guests in addition were Miss Alma E. teacher of Elementary at Woman's College, who is in the summer at Lake Ka; Mrs. Johnny Gruelle, the Raggedy Ann book; Frank G. Brown, superintendent of Elementary Education, Wood County, and Mrs. Stamey.

Mrs. Gully Is Entertained By Joint Hostesses

Mrs. Frank G. Brown and Anne Albright entertained supper party in the home of Mrs. Inez Wooten Clayton, N. C. former teacher at Western Carolina College, who is visiting at Cullowhee.

Committee Chairman Of Woman's Club Will Plan Program

Committee chairman of the Waynesville Woman's Club meet at the Haywood Courthouse, Wednesday at 2:30, the purpose of planning the program and for a discussion of departmental projects.

The chairmen include Mrs. Killian, membership; Mrs. Mundy, social; Mrs. Charles finance; Mrs. J. R. Boyd, literature; Mrs. C. D. Ketter, subscription; Mrs. W. Sherrell, publicity; Mrs. E. H. telephone; Mrs. N. W. Gar, public welfare; Miss Anne Albright, international relations; Mrs. J. V. Smith, relations department; Mrs. Yountz, American Home; Mrs. Carl Mundy, education department; Miss Johnson, literature department; and Mrs. E. J. Stamey, music department.

Miss Louise Ballard, president of the club, will meet with the club members at 8 o'clock.

Miss Leonora Smith of Glynn, Md., was a week-end guest of Anne Albright.

SALE

ONE GROUP OF SUMMER SHOES

12.95 and 9.95

ON SALE

$6.95

The Toggery

SHOP

RAY'S DEPT. STORE

THIS WEEK

for

30th ANNIVERSARY

SALE SPECIALS

It's Easy To Park

— Easy To Shop

— Easy To Save At

RAY'S DEPT. STORE