To give it the appearance of genuineness many of the pamphlets containing this boque "outh" bear the notation "Copied from the Congressional Record. Feb. 13, 1912." However, they do not state how this "outh" came to be printed in the Congressional Record. By referring to the Congressional Record it will be found that in the contested congressional election case of Bonniwell against Butler, in which Mr. Bonniwell claimed that his defeat was beought about by the circulation of this false "outh," the 'oath" itself was merely filed as an exhibit to show the means used to accomplish his defeat. His opponent. Mr. Butler, repudiated the document and "I apprehended with alarm the use of such a document in a political campaign, or at any other time. I did not believe in its truthfulness and so stated my judgment concerning it on November 4.

The Committee cannot condemn too strongly the publication of the false and libelous article referred to in the paper to Mr. Bonniwell and which was the spurious Knights of Columbus Oath, a cupy of which is appended to the paper." (See Congressional Record, Vol. 15, Feb. 15, 1913, P. 3221.)

In order that no one may be decrived by this propaganda, the undersigned states that neither the said alleged "oath" nor any other obligation of like nature was ever taken by Knights of Columbus and we hereby agree to pay
